CRUSHING DEFEAT FOR KUROPATKIN

TOKIO, OCTOBER 15 (7 P. M.)—FIELD MARSHAL OYAMA ESTIMATES THE RUSSIAN CASUALTIES AT 30,000 THE FIGHTING CONTINUES BUT THE RUSSIANS ARE RETIRING. GENERAL KUROPATKIN EVIDENTLY IS CRUSHINGLY DEFEATED.

TOKIO, OCTOBER 15 (NOON)—HEAVY FIGHTING CONTINUED YESTERDAY THE REPORTS FROM THE FIELD LAST NIGHT INDICATE THAT ALL THREE JAPANESE ARMIES MADE DISTINCT GAINS GENERAL OKU CAPTURED TEN GUNS, MAKING HIS RECORD FOR THE BATTLE THIRTY-FIVE. THE FIGHTING IN THE VICINITY OF BENSIHU CONTINUES THE REPORT DOES NOT MENTION THE SITUATION REGARDING THE ISOLATED RUSSIAN COLUMN

FURIOUS ATTACK MADE.

Russian Score Though at Fearful Cost.

AT THE RUSSIAN FRONT Thursday October 13 (by way of Mukden Saturday October 15)—The Japanese offensive began Tuesday along the whole line The heaviest work was on the Russian extreme right where the fighting for the possession of Hau and Sumin pass did not cease until midnight

The Russians succeeded in capturing the latter though at fearful cost

The position at Poitasautz still further toward the Taitse river held by the Tomsk regiment was furiously assaulted and the regiment lost heavily The Tamboff regiment extricated itself from a seemingly hopeless position and succeeded in effecting its retirement The Russian stuck to most of their positions heroically Tuesday except at the Schil river

On the morning of Wednesday the Japanese renewed their attack preparing the way for their infantry with an artillery bombardment At noon the Russian right began falling back but the attack upon the Russian center and left weakened perceptibly The artillery fire slackened in the evening but the infantry fire continued with little intermission throughout the night The Japanese today (Thursday October 13) renewed their attacks and the battle proceeded with varying success But upon the whole favorable to the Japanese as the Russians continued to give ground

The Russian wounded are being sent north to Harbin

ROOSEVELT TO ATTEND THIS GIRL'S WEDDING

WASHINGTON October 14—President Roosevelt accompanied by Mrs Roosevelt Secretary Loeb and Mr and Miss Hitchcock left in a special over the Pennsylvania railroad for Valley Forge Pa to attend the wedding of Miss Rebekah Page Knox daughter of Senator and Mrs Knox of Pennsylvania to Jas Engle of Pittsburg

WILL REPRESENT EMPEROR WILLIAM

BERLIN October 15—Emperor William has designated Lieutenant General von Loewenfeld of the Emperor's military staff and Imperial Adjutant General von Schmettow to represent him at the unveiling of the statue of Frederick the Great in Washington November 10 Both delegates named are descendants of officers of Frederick the Great

AWFUL SLAUGHTER ON FIELD.

Bodies of Japanese Are Literally Torn to Pieces.

MUKDEN October 15—One of the bloodiest episodes of the desperate fighting between the Shakhe river and Yantai during the last three days occurred at the village of Endotiula west of the railroad and on the neighboring heights east of the railroad The Japanese had been driven out of those positions with terrible losses but October 13 they concentrated such a murderous artillery fire upon the village that it became necessary for the Russians to withdraw the railroad however being held The same evening the Russian commander gave imperative orders to reoccupy Endotiula

JAPS BAYONETTED

The Zarask regiment without firing a single shot marched under cover of darkness and bayonetted several battalions of the Japanese many of whom died as they slept A few Japanese escaped and sought shelter in stacks of Chinese corn but the Russians carried away by frenzy rushed upon the survivors and literally tore up their bodies with bayonets The Russians then rolled themselves in the Japanese blankets The next morning the Japanese again shelled out the regiment while their artillery came on at a run and secured a position east of the railroad Again General Kuropatkin ordered to retake the position but the efforts of the troops were in vain The Russians could not reach the Japanese trenches so hot was the Japanese fire Only a few returned where companies had charged The companies in some cases were commanded by sergeants after the officers had fallen One officer his face streaming with blood jumped up to a general who was furious

SLAUGHTER HOUSE

Where is your company asked the general

This is all that is left of it replied the officer It was like a slaughter house

The artillery fight Wednesday was the fiercest of the war The Japanese handled their guns superbly and chose splendid positions Their guns seemed to have every range measured They would concentrate the fire of two hundred first on one place and then on another Some of the Russian regiments were literally shot to pieces The bombardment reached a climax at 10 o'clock in the forenoon when the Japanese tried to envelope and break through the Russian left wing

ROOSEVELT SURE TO BE ELECTED.

Republicans Are Certain of 314 Out of 476 Electoral College Votes.

NEW YORK, OCTOBER 15—AT THE BEGINNING OF THE FOURTH WEEK BEFORE THE NATIONAL ELECTION THE CONTEST SEEMS VIRTUALLY SETTLED THERE IS AN ALMOST UNANIMOUS OPINION THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY THAT ROOSEVELT WILL BE ELECTED TO THE PRESIDENCY

DEMOCRATIC CAMPAIGN MANAGERS ADMIT THIS IN PRIVATE CONVERSATION THE QUESTION IS, HOW LARGE A MAJORITY WILL HE HAVE?

AT REPUBLICAN NATIONAL HEADQUARTERS IN NEW YORK THE CLAIM IS STILL MADE THAT 314 OUT OF 476 ELECTORAL COLLEGE VOTES WILL BE REPUBLICAN

DEMOCRATIC CHAIRMAN TAGGART IS UNABLE TO FIGURE MORE THAN 234 VOTES FOR PARKER FIVE SHORT OF A MAJORITY TO GET THIS NUMBER HE COUNTED WEST VIRGINIA, NEW YORK AND INDIANA AS DEMOCRATIC

INDICATIONS ARE THAT THE REPUBLICANS WILL CARRY ALL OF THESE STATES, AS WELL AS CONNECTICUT NEW JERSEY AND WISCONSIN, WHICH TAGGART CLASSES AS DOUBTFUL.

BRYAN'S WHIRLWIND TOUR THROUGH INDIANA, PROMISES TO HURT THE PARTY THERE QUITE AS MUCH AS IT WILL IN THE EAST, AND TAGGART IS CENSURED FOR USING THE NEBRASKAN

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT AND CHAIRMAN CORTELYOU RECOGNIZE THE REGULAR REPUBLICANISM OF THE LA FOLLETTE MEN IN WISCONSIN, WORKING THE COMPLETE UNDOING OF THE SPOONER-QUARLES CROWD

In private conversation Democrats are freely admitting that Judge Parker is hopelessly beaten The week but strengthened this opinion which was beginning to be formulated ten days ago Then some of the Democrats though they had a chance To-day few of them have the temerity to claim even that

The scheme to flood Colorado Indiana Montana West Virginia Maryland Delaware New Jersey New York and Connecticut with money on election day is adhered to

It is the only chance offered to the Parker managers

Chairman Taggart will leave New York to lay his wires for election day work in Indiana Incidentally he will investigate the situation in Illinois with a view to ascertaining what effect heavy expenditures might have on the purchasable vote and the result in that State

But while adhering to this scheme to buy eight doubtful States Democrats are beginning to lose faith in its power New Jersey it is now admitted will be Republican The best Chairman Taggart can do with it in spite of the scheme is to place it in the doubtful column

The same is true with respect to Connecticut

NEW YORK SURELY REPUBLICAN.

Of New York the Democrats expect nothing For the sake of the impression it will create the claim is made that Parker will carry the State

For the private information of those who are seeking facts it is admitted that the Republican electoral ticket will win here by a majority approximating 80 000 with the possibility that it may go to 75 000

At Republican national headquarters the same confidence that was encountered a week ago still endures The lowest figures calculated on are 314 votes in the Electoral College for Roosevelt and Fairbanks

This positive claim, made apparent-

PRINCE IS IN FIELD.

Fights Against Russ For the Honor of Japan.

WASHINGTON October 15—The Japanese legation today received the following cablegram from the home government at Tokio

Marshal Oyama reports engagement on Friday as follows

His Imperial Highness Prince Kanin is now fighting on the left bank of the Taitse river at a point seven miles east of Bensihu Our attack and advance are progressing satisfactorily throughout the whole front Our left army captured ten more guns

A second cablegram reads as follows

Marshal Oyama reports that throughout the entire front of all four armies the enemy was driven back to the right bank of the Shai river thus totally destroying the enemy's plan of attack The casualties of the enemy are estimated at 30 000 The Cossacks which were buried by our men on Thursday exceeded 2000 The trophies consist of a large number of rifles ammunition cars etc besides the guns already reported

RUSSIANS HAVE FALLEN BACK.

UNOFFICIAL REPORTS MORE ENCOURAGING AT ST. PETERSBURG.

LONDON October 15—A dispatch to a news agency from Tokio dated today says that as the result of Friday's sanguinary fighting the center column of the Japanese left army succeeded in partly occupying Shahopu The Russian main body fell back on the mountainous districts of the railway The Russians around Bensihu have fled in a northeasterly direction

The Japanese last night the dispatch adds engaged three Russian reserve divisions under the personal command of General Kuropatkin The fighting in this quarter was resumed this morning

Special importance is attached at Tokio to the engagement at this point

FIRE ON RUSSIAN GENERAL.

Kuropatkin and Staff Caught in Midst of Rain of Shells.

ST PETERSBURG, Oct 15—According to special dispatches received here General Kuropatkin had a narrow escape during the fierce fighting of Wednesday night and Thursday for the possession of Temple Hill and the Double Horned mountain east of the railroad

With his staff he was personally directing the fighting at this point

Orderlies were constantly galloping up with reports from other parts of the field and carrying dispatches to and from the telephone and telegraph stations which were working behind the hills

This evidently attracted the attention of the Japanese who severely unmasked some batteries the shells from which burst all around the distinguished group compelling General Kuropatkin to shift his position hastily and seek shelter

It is understood that General Kuropatkin before the battle commenced again designated Lieutenant General Sakharoff and then Lieutenant-General Sakharoff and then Lieutenant-General Bilderling to succeed him in the command in the event of his being disabled

RUSSIAN ARMY RETREATS.

MAIN BODY FALLS BACK—JAPS PARTIALLY OCCUPY SHAHOPU.

ST PETERSBURG October 15 1 15 p m —Unofficial reports from the battlefield are more encouraging this morning There has been no rout but there is no question that the Russians have fallen back twenty miles

According to private advices dated Mukden at 6 30 last night General Kuropatkin checked the Japanese advance yesterday at the Shakhe river He crossed the river and is holding a line along the north bank extending from west of the railroad eastward to Bentsiaputze.

FIFTEEN HURT IN COLLISION.

California Limited Crashes Into a Freight Train.

PUEBLO Colo October 15—Fifteen were injured two of them perhaps fatally in a head on collision today between the east bound California Limited passenger train No 6 and a west bound freight train on the Denver and Rio Grande railway a mile and a half west of Portland The most seriously injured are

MRS F H CUNNINGHAM Eden Colo serious bruises and probably internal injuries

GEORGE BOSSINGER engineer of passenger train arm and leg broken and badly bruised

O M SMITH fireman of freight rib broken

CARL ITCOCK fireman of passenger, badly hurt

G L BANKS train porter badly hurt

A G MOLTER conductor of passenger cut about head

D H HAWLEY passenger, reported badly hurt

C E EVANS express messenger crushed and badly injured about body

PAUL PASLEY and W H CONKLING mail clerks

T W WEBSTER passenger Pueblo legs badly hurt

The injured were taken on relief trains to hospitals at Pueblo and Salida

The accident was due to the failure of the freight train which was late to take the siding at Portland and allow the passenger train which was running on schedule time and had the right of way to pass Both locomotives were completely wrecked the baggage and express cars were telescoped and piled up in a heap the forward end of the chair coach was smashed and five freight cars loaded with merchandise were demolished

The Pullman cars escaped damage The passenger train was running about thirty five miles and the freight twenty miles an hour when the collision occurred the impact of the engines was terrific Great confusion followed the collision and exaggerated reports regarding the disaster were circulated

CREW PERISH IN SHIPWRECK.

DURING FURIOUS GALE SCHOONER ELWOOD BURTON GOES ON ROCKS

HIGHLAND LIGHT Mass October 15.—In a furious northeast gale the schooner Elwood Burton Captain Williams struck on Peaked Hill bar during the night and the captain and three of the crew perished

The mate and two other seamen were rescued from floating wreckage by the crew of the Peaked Hill life saving station Although the life savers were quickly upon the scene so rapid was the destruction of the vessel they could do nothing more than pick up the survivors clinging to wreckage

Later two bodies washed ashore

ROOSEVELT'S TRAIN AT DEVON

PHILADELPHIA October 15—President Roosevelt's special train reached Devon at 1 50 p m Mrs Tyler a cousin of Mrs Roosevelt joined the party on the train The party will remain on the special car until 3 15 when they will take a tallyho for Mr Knox's home at Valley Forge.

KUROPATKIN FORCED BACK.

Unable to withstand the tremendous assault of the Japanese Kuropatkin has been forced back to a position north of the Sakhe river after a battle of the most desperate and sanguinary character Absolutely no official news of to-day's fighting has been given out at St Petersburg but the correspondent there of the Associated Press after repeated unofficial but circumstantial reports said to originate in high places cables that the public is convinced Kuropatkin's advance has ended in complete disaster with such frightful losses that they will stagger Russia even after Liao Yang Oyama reporting to Tokio says that the fighting continues but that the Russians are retiring, and the correspondens adds

Kuropatkin evidently is crushingly defeated'

The Japanese commander estimates the Russian losses at thirty thousand.

OYAMA TELLS OF BATTLE.

How the Japanese Troops Held Their Own in Fight.

RUSSIANS MAKE NEW MOVE.

Hope to Cut Off Japs and Annihilate Them.

MUKDEN October 14 Friday (Delayed)—News has been received here that the Russian forces were not in desperate retreat of the Japanese and expected Kuropatkin's success with which opens a direct route to the right flank of the Japanese main position at Yentai mines

It be hoped is true General Kuropatkin's plan have succeeded and the Russians have taken the Japanese in flank and rear

One more effort it is seconded and the Japanese must retreat with heavy loss from the Sakhe river or run the risk of being cut off from the army between the Sakhe and Schilipes and be annihilated But it is added it must be remembered that flanking movements are [illegible] and cut both ways

In any case the decisive moment appears to have arrived

RUSSIANS ARE IN RETREAT

Kuropatkin Fights in Order to Save a Rout.

TOKIO October 15 (8 p m)—General Kuropatkin's southern advance has been beaten back and his army is in retreat He is however still doggedly fighting, so as to spare the Russian army from an utter rout

Field Marshal Oyama's triumphant troops have driven the Russians north of a line along the Sakhe river They are vigorously pressing the pursuit and will probably inflict still more severe damage on Kuropatkin's forces

JUDGE PARKER TO MAKE ADDRESS

ESOPUS N Y October 15—Judge Parker has decided to deliver an address of some importance here today to the occasion of the visit of two delegations one from the Van Petch of Long Island and the other including about 100 independent voters from New York City New Jersey and other nearby points

It had been intended to receive the Independent contingent a week from today and make no speech to the Aeon Club members was contemplated However Judge Parker decided to combine the visit of these two delegations and to deliver an address

OYSTER MEN GO TO COURT

Cannot Agree on Conduct of a Haywards Company.

There is trouble among the planters Oysters [illegible] together in the company known as the Pacific Oyster Company with its principal place of business at the foot of Haywards [illegible] capital stock of the corporation is $100 000 fully paid up and it is claimed that the succulent bivalves have brought rich profits to the promoters which has finally led to trouble and dissension between factions of the company of which one has the majority of the stock and the minority a vigorous fighting opposition

Both factions want injunctions and suit was filed to this by R E Dabee J P Paton C Imme S U Dabee and I B Russel to restrain R H Countryman Sam Lizarsky C P Overton J W Pew John R Diggett and J Meiers from getting one out to stop the plaintiffs from holding an election on October 18 for the purpose of altering the constitution and bylaws of the corporation providing for the increasing of the directorate from five to seven members

The factions are gathered around two blocks of stock in the first of which is contained 19 shares and in the other 165 shares The plaintiffs in the presence that even the larger number of shares of the corporation but complain that they are being generally hampered and annoyed by the owners of the minority until they are almost stopped from expressing and accomplishing their wills in regard to the affairs of the company The injunction was granted and the matter will be heard on Monday next

WELL TOLD STORIES OF AMUSING INCIDENTS IN THE LIVES OF PEOPLE IN THE PUBLIC EYE

We had a grocer here once who was not like [illegible] He did not get on He soon had to shut up shop His methods did not suit a place like this Here is an example of that grocers way of doing business

A millionaire cottager called on him one morning and said half amused and half angry

You have charged me on this bill two shillings I never got What do you mean by such items as one hamper of raisins three lumps of cheese one packet of [illegible] two pieces sugar

I mean sir said the grocer [illegible] boy who brings their boys with them when they do their marketing must pay for all they get

Sir Squire Bancroft Jones said a Philadelphia librarian dined with me during his American tour We talked of how often that little success is apt to engender in young artists and Sir Philip said

My father used to tell of a young English nobleman who took to painting He had possible work got him numerous commissions from noblemen tradesmen and became in a small way a fashion

He insisted on driving my father to his studio one day to see his work

Here are my two latest things he said on their arrival They are entirely different in subject and in treatment but I am sure you'll like them both One is a portrait of my uncle copied from an old fashioned photograph The other is a painting of my grandmother doing some needlework

My father looked carefully at both paintings for a moment Then he said

Which one did you say was your uncle

Marie Provost the French novelist is a favorite in the American colony of Paris

Whenever I see an English bishop said M Provost it [illegible] Americans I laugh a little to myself for the good man's stately presence reminds me of a terrible mishap that once befell me

I entertained a certain bishop last year at dinner My butler an elderly man had brought in from a friend's house as an inexperienced lad to help him in the dining room and it seems to me this lad during the laying of the cloth annoyed the butler beyond endurance with questions as to his duties

How shall I hold the plates"

Do I serve the dishes on the right or on the left side of the guests"

Must the bishop be served first or second"

So he continued interminably and at last the impatient butler said

All you will need to do will be to stand behind the bishop's chair and whenever his lordship puts down his glass you must reach over and wipe his mouth with a napkin

That as the butler expected silenced his assistant But the young man actually took the butler's ironical remark for a serious order As soon as dinner began he stationed himself behind the bishop waited till his lordship had drunk and put down his glass and then as deliberately as his responsiness would permit he opened out a large napkin and wiped the dignified old gentleman's mouth

Imagine my horror

Rourke Cockran was asked by a St Louis reporter to give the public some advice on the art of public speaking

A youth Mr Cockran answered smiling once went with your question to an old Englishman who had made a good success as a lecturer

How may I become sir said the youth a successful public speaker like yourself"

The old lecturer laughed

Tha wan's to be a public speaker do tha, lad" he said 'An tha thinks Aam the chap to put tha up to a wrinkle about it? That's reight ad Ah am

Now hark tha When tha rises to mak tha speych hit taable an oppen tha mouth If nowt comes tak a sup o water an hit taable again an oppen thy mouth wider than afoor

'Then if nowt comes tak thyseln off an leave public speyin' to such as me.'"

BACK ON THE STAGE

Joan Hadenfeldt is Once More Before the Footlights.

SAN FRANCISCO October 15—Just six weeks ago Joan Hadenfeldt quitted the stage forever to marry Lord Woodhouse of New York and President [illegible] was to be no more footlight fame or the Junesque young woman was [illegible] heart across the Orpheum circuit

The Cycle of Love has dazzled the Eastern vaudevillians for a time

The death of George Apon who wrote the piece and killed himself for whom Miss Hadenfeldt's [illegible] was supposed to have died and Miss Hadenfeldt's [illegible] impossible ever to appear again in the Cycle of Love Not at all Whether or not matrimony proved a foe Joan Hadenfeld radiant as ever is posing once more in the limelight and in the same Cycle of Love which brought death in its round to the young author

How it all happened is a story of love tragedy and the fate of fame—vaudeville fame which the pen of Corelli might chronicle

She has not yet brought an action for a divorce

MAYOR IS AFTER SCAVENGERS.

THEY MUST OBEY THE GARBAGE REGULATION PASSED BY COUNCIL

Mayor Olney and Attorney Lin S Church representing the Pacific Incinerating Company this morning had a conference relative to the enforcing of the garbage ordinance and came to the conclusion that it would be best to circulate among the householders the decision of the Superior Court which recently upheld the decision of the lower court in finding Angelo Legoriza guilty of violating the ordinance After the people have been fully warned there will be a vigorous campaign instituted against the scavengers

There was one scavenger arrested this morning and other arrests will follow

APPOINTS COMMISSIONERS

Mayor Olney this morning appointed William H Taylor and V Feight as commissioners from Alameda county to represent the people of the community at the Trans Mississippi Congress which meets at St Louis the latter part of the month

RUSSIANS FEAR THE WORST.

Kuropatkin's Troops May Have Been Badly Defeated.

ST PETERSBURG October 15 (7 p m)—The silence of the Russian authorities at this critical hour is hard to [illegible]

Not a single official word has come to give the lie to the rumors and anxieties for over two days and not the outside is convinced that a only [illegible] that General Kuropatkin would [illegible] claimed advantage has ended in complete disaster will such fighting to [illegible] that they will stagger Russia even after [illegible] to the West [illegible] stories attributed to [illegible] a cold of the failure of the Russian left from which Kuropatkin aimed [illegible]

The Russian commander is stated to have had two and a half army corps there with one and a half corps in reserve and they are said to have lost seven and three [illegible] of [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

ALAMEDA FIREMEN DECLARE THEY ARE COMPETENT.

Volunteers Willing to Disband, But Not For Incompetency—News From Encinal City.

ALAMEDA, October 15.—The Board of Trustees met last night as a committee to give the volunteer fire department a hearing. Of the Board, President Foderer, and Messrs. Combs and Bowers were present. Fire Chief Krauth and a number of paid and volunteer firemen were also on hand and a lively controversy arose regarding the proposition to disband the volunteers upon the score of inefficiency.

The Sherman street fire, over which there was so much discussion some time ago, was revamped and a war of words between Chief Krauth and the leaders of the volunteers was waged.

George T. Morris, foreman of Thompson Hose Company, A. P. Smiley, J. E. Hansen and others were emphatic in their statements that the charges of incompetency made against the volunteers, particularly in regard to the Sherman street fire, were unjust and irrelevant.

A. P. Smiley asserted that the volunteers were willing to be disbanded if the city desired it, but not on the charge of incompetency at a single fire.

After a controversy which lasted for several hours and which resulted in little save reparten, the meeting finally adjourned. No definite action was taken and no decision arrived at.

The matter of securing additional machinery for the municipal light plant was informally discussed. Some pieces of machinery were exhibited but in this as in the other matter, no definite action was taken.

SHAKESPEARIAN AFTERNOON.

ALAMEDA, October 15.—Miss Florence Young gave a "Shakespearian Afternoon" at her home, 2145 Alameda avenue, Thursday.

It was the occasion of a reunion of the members of the Adelphian Club, who participated in the Shakespearian sketch presented before the Adelphians a short time ago entitled "Shakespeare's Heroines Form a Club." A few other invited guests who did not take part in the play were also present. During the afternoon a Shakespearian game was played and refreshments were served.

Among those present were: Mrs. G. H. Perry, creator of the Shakespeare Section, Miss Ella McCann, Mrs. Emma Rathgeb, Mrs. I. N. Chapman, Miss Shaw, Miss Dollie Chapman, Miss Bennett, Mrs. Husbands, Mrs. James A. Waymire, Miss Blanche Tisdale, Miss Ruth McIntyre, Mrs. A. J. Foster of Berkeley, Mrs. Dray and Miss Dray of San Francisco.

HALCYON MINSTRELS.

ALAMEDA, October 15.—Beyond the shadow of a doubt the minstrel show to be given by Halcyon Parlor, N. S. G. W., at the Macdonough Theater next Thursday and Friday evenings will be a great success.

The company has been drilled into perfect condition by constant and careful rehearsing. The jokes and songs will all be up-to-date, while the costumes and scenery will be second to none.

Despite the fact that owing to the partial destruction of Armory Hall the parlor is compelled to give the performance in Oakland, there is every indication that the attendance will be as large, if not larger, than it was at first anticipated.

FORM CHORAL CLASS.

ALAMEDA, October 15.—Members of the Music Section of the Adelphian Club have formed a choral class.

At the first session twenty-four members were in attendance and great interest was displayed.

W. Bartlett of San Francisco, who was organizer of the Alameda Operatic Society here years ago, will act as musical director. Meetings will be held every Friday morning, at 10 o'clock, at the club-rooms in Park Row.

MURPHY VINDICATED.

ALAMEDA, October 15.—J. R. Murphy, a young man who has many friends here, was quickly and completely cleared of a serious charge yesterday morning in Justice Fred S. Cone's court. He was arrested on complaint of Olive Young, a child living on Pease avenue, who charged him with indecent conduct. Murphy demanded a jury trial. After some evidence had been introduced Deputy District Attorney Brown declared that there was absolutely nothing to show that defendant was guilty, and a verdict of acquittal was rendered. It was shown positively that on the day the alleged offense was committed Murphy had not left his own residence.

HANLON SAYS THIS ABOUT BRITT.

EDDIE THINKS THAT JIMMY WILL TAKE ON "CORBETT" AT 132 POUNDS.

Eddie Hanlon, in an interview which an Eastern sporting editor says that he thought Britt would ultimately give "Young Corbett" a return match, but that he would insist on 132 pounds. Hanlon went on to say that he could not see how Britt could stay in the ring and refuse "Young Corbett" another meeting, especially in view of the fact that the Denver boy has always been willing to give his victims a chance to retrieve themselves.

"Britt would lose his standing on the Coast if he broke his word," declared Hanlon. "If he had not made a solemn agreement to fight 'Young Corbett' again it would be his own business whether he did or not, but the moment he entered into a contract he made it public matter and one in which he has another principal to consider in the person of 'Young Corbett.' A spoken promise is a solemn thing with square men, but with a written contract there is absolutely no going behind the returns."

WIFE SHADOWS HUSBAND.

FOLLOWS HIM AS CLOSELY AS HIS OWN SHADOW.

Not more faithful to a man is his shadow than is Mrs. Leon A. Labonde to her husband, who on occasions is consumed with a desire for strong drink. Sometimes she follows him for weeks. He comes from a wealthy family, is a musician of more than ordinary ability and when free from a desire for alcoholic stimulants is a devoted husband. This much came out in the Police Court this morning.

When the longing for drink comes on Labonde he cannot restrain himself, the wife says, and it is then that she becomes his guardian angel and follows him everywhere as if she was his shadow.

While performing her duties in this respect last night, the wife sought to prevent her husband from entering a saloon at Tenth and Broadway. Her wifely devotion aroused the young Frenchman's wrath. He talked violently to his wife and was arrested for using vulgar language. He had the additional charge of being drunk placed against him at the City Prison.

The wife pleaded so hard with Police Judge Samuels to allow her husband to go that the court consented to release the musician until Monday next on his own recognizance.

ROOSEVELT SURE TO BE ELECTED.

ly with full knowledge of conditions, is in striking contrast to the 234 votes, or five short of a majority Chairman Taggart has been able to figure out.

The significant thing about Republican headquarters is the assurance with which the situation is viewed. It is regarded by the campaign managers as a contest already closed. Nothing remains to be done except to keep interest alive so as to guarantee a full vote on election day.

ALL OVER BUT THE SHOUTING.

This is the progress for the three remaining weeks of the campaign. Hold on to what we have, keep the other fellows from making any gains and pick up what additional votes we may be able to obtain. In other words, it's all over but the count and the shouting.

Chairman Taggart, whose reports are at first hand, has begun to complain of apathy. He pictures existing conditions as being without a parallel, and confesses himself confused. He doesn't understand why the people are not more enthusiastic.

The general contentedness of the voters, as reflected by the result in Maine and Vermont, seems not to appeal to him—at least no for public admission.

It is a fact, however that the men who are touring the country for the Democratic National Committee report that they are unable to arouse enthusiasm or interest in the people. The crowds they address are small, and Democratic interest in the campaign seems to be at the lowest ebb.

PARKER'S SILENCE A DEAD WEIGHT

At headquarters Parker is being held responsible for this state of affairs. He is accused of having thrown a wet blanket over the whole campaign.

In those days of silence prior to the resignation from the bench, he keyed Democratic expectancy to a high point.

"Just wait until I resign; then I will go before the people and say things that will make them take notice," was the sort of hope he held out to them. Parker has been off the bench for two months, and he hasn't said half a dozen words that are worth while.

Added to this disappointment, which affects Democrats all over the country, is the effect of the Judge's weekly visits to this city. His days here are spent in dark-room conference, exchange of whispered confidences, and other gumshoe methods that excite only suspicion and distrust.

What the Judge accomplishes is not apparent. That he is meddling excessively is the plaint around Democratic national and State headquarters, and with the fact becoming more and more apparent that Roosevelt will be elected, Tom Watson's statement that Parker's campaign is degenerating into a joke seems to be not far wrong.

CONGRESSIONAL TICKET, TOO.

Republican confidence extends to the election of candidates for Congress. When seen today, Chairman Babcock of the Republican Congressional Campaign Committee, said:

"Roosevelt will, of course, win by a sweeping majority. Our victory will be complete. We will organize the next House of Representatives with a Republican membership almost identical in numbers with that in the present Congress.

"There is no doubt about this. We have only to wait for the result to prove the strength of our cause."

THIRTY YEARS AGO IN OAKLAND.

BY F. R. PORTE R.

Thirty years ago the Oakland Daily Transcript, a large four-page journal, seven columns to the page, and carrying a surprising amount of advertising matter, was the foremost daily newspaper in this field. I see by an October 27th, 1874, copy, now before me, that A. W. Bishop was its editor and one of its two owners.

The principal illustration is an engraved view of the town's chief hotel, the Grand Central, a 240-room edifice, four stories high, with central tower, and mansard roofs, situated on Twelfth street, opposite the now Dewey theatre. J. C. Olmstead was the landlord.

Oakland then had three banks—the Alameda County Savings and Loan Society, B. T. Ferris, president; the Oakland Bank of Savings, P. S. Wilcox, president, and the Union Savings Bank, A. C. Henry, president.

I note that there was a Mount Diablo stage line operating then, and that Wm. Sohst had a carriage works, and was also an undertaker, at Eighth and Franklin. J. F. W. Sohst yet runs some of the same business.

J. J. O'Brien, afterward a great San Francisco drygoods dealer, was in business at Thirteenth and Broadway, and A. A. Moore was district attorney and Henry Morse, sheriff.

Dr. E. A. Woolsey was making money in those days, for in the Board of Supervisors' proceedings he is down for $120 for "post mortems."

Wallace Everson was a member of the city council and his colleagues were Messrs. Webber, Spaulding, Larue, Mason, Knox and Snook.

A State University item read: "The plank walk in front of the college was laid by a number of students on Saturday. It is about time that this were done, as the rain of the last few days has already made the roads almost impassible."

Incendiaries were operating, one of their fires, a hay barn at New Broadway street, near Twenty-second street, costing Walter Blair, $2,200.

John Yule was then deputy clerk of the Third Judicial District Court, and Charles G. Reed was a deputy county clerk.

T. H. Goodman, general passenger and ticket agent of the Central Pacific railroad, was a like official of the "Oakland and Alameda Ferry."

Among "West Oakland News" was this: "No man can read about all the burglaries without a determination to have his wife sleep on the front side of the bed."

"The Berkeley Ferry and Railroad Company," H. T. Graves, president, was running the steamer "Clinton" between that town and San Francisco.

W. W. McKenzie was the city's leading undertaker. His shop was on Eighth street, near THE TRIBUNE'S present quarters.

Francis & Carter, at 466 Eighth street, were offering "beaver suits to order for $40."

McCrum & Cushing were grocers at Twelfth and Broadway. The junior partner, still on deck, is father to H. D. Cushing, a Thirteenth-street merchant of today.

W. B. Hardy was selling books and stationery at his present location on Broadway. It was in 1858 that Mr. Hardy started his Oakland business.

Joseph Greer was a "silk ribbon manufacturer" at Market and Twenty-second streets, and the Barnum Restaurant was then managed by P. Paggi and L. Marioni.

Miley and Laage then had "the" candy store of the town at 916 Broadway. Laage took the gas route several years ago.

Lawyer Sam Bell McKee's father was then judge of the district court at Oakland, and "on East Broadway below Chabot's reservoir is where you will find Henry Godart, the only man who destroys squirrels in the county, and does it quickly."

Officer Shorey, now a detective of the local force, arrested one Barcaressa at Seventh and Broadway for cruelty to a horse, and the Schooner Charlotte arrived from Stockton at the City Wharf with eighty tons of hay for the "Oakland City Flouring Mills."

I. Alexander, who afterward hung himself, was then a shoe merchant at 845 Broadway.

A local item showed the amity prevailing between local dailies in 1874: "The peripatetic band of musicians who live on what they can collect from those who listen to their music, visited Oakland yesterday. The Transcript office printers gave them three dollars, and a half—the News office three dimes."

HOLD UP WOMAN AND ESCORT

FOOTPADS DO NOT, HOWEVER, MOLEST THE YOUNG LADY.

While returning from the theater last night, A. H. Guidice of 905 Washington street and a young woman whom he was escorting home were held up by a brace of footpads on Tenth street, between Jefferson and Grove streets. The robbers secured 50 cents but in their haste to get away they overlooked $5.50 Guidice had in his purse.

One of the robbers held a gun at the head of Guidice while the other went through his pockets. The young woman, whose name is withheld by her escort, was not molested.

The police have not got a very good description of the highwaymen, but believe they may be the two who have been operating for the last few days in this city.

MAYOR DOES NOT USE VETO POWER

Mayor Olney this morning permitted the ordinance changing the grade on Broadway to become a law without his signature. Mayor Olney said that he was opposed to the change of the grade, but as the ordinance had passed the Council by a vote of ten to one he said he would not give the Councilmen the trouble of passing it over his veto.

TWO MEN HURT IN FIGHT.

SAID AT HOSPITAL THEY HAD FALLEN FROM CAR.

Pretending that they had fallen off a car and sustained injuries that necessitated their treatment at the Receiving Hospital, Tom Collins living on Fifty-Ninth street near Shattuck avenue and William Weatherall of 4629 Telegraph avenue visited that institution at an early hour this morning and had numerous lacerations and bruises dressed and Weatherall had a dislocation of his left shoulder reduced.

After the men had left the place it was learned by Conductor S. P. Hotaling that the men had been engaged in a general row out in North Oakland where they had been severely handled by their antagonists. The details of the affair were not learned but from the condition of the two men must have been of an interesting nature while it lasted.

MUST ANSWER CHARGES.

MAJOR CARRINGTON ARRESTED FOR FALSIFYING VOUCHERS OF GOVERNMENT.

MANILA, Oct. 15.—The Prosecuting Attorney has filed briefs in five cases against Major Frank Carrington, charging him with the falsification of vouchers of the civil government to the amount of $1,500. Major Carrington has been arrested.

Major Carrington commanded the Philippine scouts. He came to the St. Louis Exposition to take charge of the scouts there, but was ordered back to the Philippines to answer charges.

MISSION BOARD IN SESSION.

REPORT MADE OF THE EVANGELIZATION IN THE UNITED STATES.

ST. LOUIS, October 5.—The second day's session of the Christian Women's Board of Missions, which group of meetings constitute the opening sessions of the international convention of the Christian Church was held in the Music Hall building.

Meetings of the board of managers of the Foreign Christian Missionary Society and the general board of the American Christian Missionary Society, the parent body, were held today, and the regular sessions of the societies will continue next week.

The Board of Missions meeting today opened with devotional exercises. Mrs. T. W. Grafton of Indiana then made a report of evangelization in the United States.

FOR THE BOYS

We desire, through the columns of THE TRIBUNE, to call the attention of the citizens of Oakland to the merits of the institution known as the Boy's Retreat, located at 407 Eighth street, near Broadway.

This institution provides rooms, entertainment and manual training for many of our boys. It is worthy the consideration and support of all Oakland's citizens, as it is a credit to our city socially, and its patrons derive an untold amount of good, morally and physically.

It has a properly organized board of directors and is conducted in a business-like manner. That the institution may be placed on a proper financial basis we have authorized our superintendent to canvass the city for annual contributions, and sincerely hope the good people will respond liberally when called upon.

The undersigned will be pleased to receive contributions.

WILLIAM MORRISON'S DAUGHTERS WANTED

The board of relief of the local order of Odd Fellows would like to know the whereabouts of two daughters of William Morrison, who died in Sacramento a few days ago. Nothing is known of Morrison except that he was a native of Ontario, Canada and that he had two daughters living in Oakland. E. J. Woodman, secretary of the board of relief of the Sacramento I. O. O. F., notified the secretary in Oakland that the Coroner would hold the remains for a few days in case any relative should appear to claim them.

M. RICE PILOTING HOYT'S "A TEXAS STEER."

M. Rice, business manager for "A Texas Steer," is in this city making arrangements for the appearance at the Macdonough Sunday and Monday nights, October 23 and 24, of that play, the most amusing and greatest of all satires on American politics. Mr. Rice is one of the best known men in his line in the country, having piloted through all parts of it some of the finest attractions on the stage.

"A Texas Steer" does an immense business everywhere and will be accorded enthusiastic audiences at the Macdonough. It has an all-star cast. Harry Emory, a modest but sterling and conscientious actor, will appear in the role of "Brander," the bluff old Texan cattleman who is elected to Congress against his will and who goes to the Capital at the point of his cowboy's pistols. May L. Stockton will appear in the charming character of "Bossy" and Will H. Bray, the originator of "the Minister to Dahomey," will figure in that role, which he has always enacted with stellar earnestness and success.

Some very pretty corset covers are being made of colored batiste and mull. They are very low in the neck and a little full over the bust, with tucks about the waist instead of darts; and they end, as all the newest covers do, at the belt.

W. H. M'KINNON IS BACK.

TELLS OF INTERESTING THINGS SEEN ON EASTERN TRIP.

W. H. McKinnon, who has been prominent in developing the real estate and other possibilities of the city, has just returned from an extended trip in the East, where he visited the St. Louis exposition, New York, Niagara Falls, Chicago, and other points of interest. After stating that he was glad to be in California sunshine again, Mr. McKinnon gave the following impressions of his trip:

"The first thing that will strike one in the East who is interested in politics is the steady and determined way the people are going to vote for Roosevelt and Fairbanks. There is less hurrah to this campaign than any I have ever seen. It does not mean that the people are not interested in the outcome of the election but it means that they have selected their choice and that there is no necessity for the usual campaign fireworks. The East in my opinion, including the State of New York will go for the Republican party.

"Great crowds are attending the St. Louis exposition. The people are getting their money's worth. It is certainly a great show and St. Louis has every reason to believe that her effort will go down into history ranking with the best achievements of that kind.

"The other parts of the country which I visited are prosperous. Niagara Falls is all that has ever been written or said about it. One of the sights which impressed me most vividly was that of the Grand Canyon. It is a most imposing spectacle and in its way is every bit as magnificent as Niagara.

"When it comes to climate there is nothing to compare with California. The people east of the Rockies do not know what they are missing by not being in California. Some of them are finding it out, however, and are headed this way."

LIVELY BLAZE IN PLANING MILL

In some unknown manner fire last night broke out in the boiler room of Kendall's Planing Mills at Second and Grove streets and did damage to the amount of $200.

The rafters of the building were damaged mostly. The prompt work of the fire department saved the mill from total destruction.

The night watchman reports that he passed by the engine room twenty minutes before the fire broke out, but did not notice anything unusual.

EAST OAKLAND PROPERTY OWNERS JOIN BOOSTERS.

In the interest of our subscribers, a statement was obtained from the E. B. & A. L. Stone Co., contractors, for the recent improvements made in the grading of 14th avenue and side streets and the new storm sewer on East 14th street and 22nd avenue from Fontainbleau avenue to Southern Pacific right-of-way about as follows: This work was done by authority of the City and covers two assessment districts; the first district embracing 7th avenue on the west, City limits on the east, south of East 12th street on the south and East 25th street on the north. Second district, embracing 19th avenue on the west, City limits on the east, south of W. P. R. R. on the south and north of East 14th street on the north. The property owners in the assessed districts, after years of waiting, seem generally very well pleased that these much needed improvements have at last been completed. Judging from the cheerful manner in which the assessments have been paid by the majority of the owners of property in these districts the benefits derived by same far exceed the allotted cost. In district assessment the law required that the contractor shall return the assessment roll within thirty days from date of issue to the Superintendent of Street listing all properties against which assessments have been levied and remain unpaid at that time. This establishes a first lien on the property. In the first district the assessment roll will be returned October 19th, 1904. Interest will then accrue on the principal at the rate of 10 per cent per annum. In the second district the assessment roll will be returned October 30th, 1904 with above penalty. The contractors hope to be able to turn in a clean assessment roll. They are furnishing information and bills at their office 900 Broadway, Oakland Cal. Don't be knockers. Fall in line with the boosters and take advantage of the limited time to pay the balance of the assessments. The Seventh Ward doesn't want a mortgage on it.

HAIR NATURALLY ABUNDANT.

When It is Free of Dandruff, It Grows Luxuriantly.

Hair preparations and dandruff cures, as a rule, are stick or irritating affairs that do no earthly good. Hair, when not diseased, grows naturally, luxuriantly. Dandruff is the cause of nine-tenths of all hair trouble, and dandruff is caused by a germ. The only way to cure dandruff is to kill the germ; and, so far, the only hair preparation that will positively destroy the germ is Newbro's Herpicide—absolutely harmless, free from grease, sediment, dye matter or dangerous drugs. It allays itching instantly, makes hair glossy and soft as silk. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10 cents in stamps for sample to the Herpicide Company, Detroit, Michigan. Bowman & Company special agents.

LARGEST STORE WEST OF CHICAGO

GRAND OPENING OF THE PRAGER DEPARTMENT STORE MONDAY.

Prager's Department Store invites the people of Alameda county to their grand opening, Monday, October 17 and will commemorate the grand event by giving to every visitor 10 green trading stamps free.

After months of inconvenience during the alteration of the entire five floors of the building, business has progressed nicely and increased every week.

Prager's want to maintain the reputation of being always reliable and are prepared to give customers every needed attention and sell their goods at less figures than elsewhere in San Francisco.

Besides the rows of bebe ribbon used through beading to draw up the neck of corset covers, the tops of the armholes and the fronts are now further embellished by goodly-sized bows of wide ribbon.

CHARLIE SHEAR'S WILL FILED FOR PROBATE

The will of the late Charles B. Shear, proprietor of the Rialto saloon on Thirteenth street was filed for probate this morning by his widow, Mary Greta Shear. The estate is valued at $3,500 and is said not to exceed this sum.

By the provision of his will the property is left to his wife, with the provision, however, that if she marries before their youngest daughter, now ten years of age shall have reached her majority, the estate is to be divided share and share alike between the mother and the three children, each to get one-fourth of the estate.

Chemisettes, tuckers, and undersleeves of genuine old openwork or other embroidery upon muslin are in great demand. A chemisette furnished recently by a Paris maker, for use in a taffeta frock, was valued at $600.

BOY IS GUILTY OF MURDER.

George B. Morse's Slayer Will Go to the Penitentiary.

MARYSVILLE, October 15.—The jury in the Claude F. Hankins case came into court at 8:15 o'clock last night and found the 14-year-old boy guilty of murder in the second degree, and recommended him to the extreme mercy of the court. His counsel at once gave notice for appeal. Sentence will be passed Monday morning at 10 o'clock.

The arguments in the case of Hankins, charged with the murder of George B. Morse, were resumed yesterday morning in the Superior Court and were concluded at 11:15.

The jury retired to consider the verdict at noon. At 2 o'clock the jury came into court and Foreman C. S. Brooks addressed the court as follows:

"Your Honor, the jurymen so far have not been able to reach an agreement, and before proceeding further we would like some information as to the effect of our vote on certain degrees in the way of punishment. We would like to know the minimum and maximum penalty in case of a conviction of murder in the second degree."

The court told the jury that the minimum punishment for murder in the second degree was ten years in the State prison.

CELEBRATE THEIR WEDDING.

COL. AND MRS. LYON OBSERVE FORTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF THEIR MARRIAGE.

Colonel and Mrs. J. L. Lyon, prominent residents of this city for the last thirty years, celebrated the fortieth anniversary of their wedding last Thursday evening, more than one hundred friends joining to make the occasion a happy and memorable one. The spacious rooms were elaborately decorated in white and green, with the dates 1864-1904 in white, suspended in an archway between the two parlors.

Mrs. Lyon, who wore a handsome black gown and diamonds, was assisted in receiving by her husband and son, Harvey B. Lyon, now a senior in the State University. The two other sons, prominent merchants in Los Angeles and Fresno, sent congratulatory telegrams and beautiful gifts to their parents. During the evening a delightful program was rendered as follows:

Piano solo, Miss Winifred Wilson; recitation, Mrs. Carrie Fross-Snyder; bass solo, Ralph Fisher; clarionet solo, Wilson Barstow.

This was followed by an elaborate supper. Those present were: Rev. and Mrs. H. J. Vosburgh, Miss Vosburgh, Mr. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stevens, Miss Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. GRAND OFFICES GOOD TEMPLARS

The forty-fifth session of the Grand Lodge, I. O. G. T., has just completed its business. Petaluma had the honor of entertaining the members of the Grand Lodge during the session from the 11th to the 15th inst.

The reports of the officers were very encouraging, the grand secretary showing ninety lodges with over 4500 members—a large increase over last year.

The following are the officers for the ensuing year: Past grand chief templar, Rev. J. W. Webb; grand chief templar, Hon. T. D. Kanouse; grand councilor, W. P. Netherton; grand vice templar, Miss J. Offut; grand secretary and assistant grand secretary, A. L. Johnston and wife; grand superintendent of juvenile work, Mrs. J. H. Robins of Oakland; grand treasurer, Volney Taylor; grand marshal, J. Tobb; grand deputy marshal, Miss R. Fullmore; grand guard, Miss N. Drew, and grand sentinel, G. Latson.

The place of the next meeting chosen was San Jose.

Past grand secretary of Arizona W. P. Wolbridge, and P. G. C. T. of Texas, W. C. Dutton, were present.

ASBURY CHURCH TO MOVE.

HOUSE OF WORSHIP TO BE REMODELED INTO BUSINESS BLOCK.

The building formerly occupied by the Plymouth Avenue Congregational Church, which has recently consolidated with the Oak Chapel Church, will henceforth be the meeting place of the members of Asbury Methodist Episcopal Church South, which is located at the corner of Fifteenth and Clay streets, and which will be remodeled into a business block.

The proposition to change the meeting place of the congregation was presented to the annual conference yesterday morning by the Rev. C. F. Reid and met the hearty approval of the delegates, and the board of missions was "authorized" to complete the proposed deal at once.

The case of W. F. Grove, who was finally expelled from the ministry by a unanimous verdict of the conference on Tuesday was finally closed yesterday by Bishop Morrison, who said:

"There is but one law on the subject of divorce, and that was laid down by the Son of God himself, and I have no ruling to make on it."

HANDS MUST BE EDUCATED.

Book Knowledge Without Commercial or Technical Training Has Little Value.

The nineteenth century offers very lucrative inducements to those who have acquired a technical education.

College educated men often receive less remuneration than does the electrician, civil engineer, mechanical or mining engineer, expert accountant or proficient stenographer. A school that is eminently qualified to give young men or women training in these important branches, as well as bookkeeping, shorthand, typewriting, modern or foreign languages, is the Pacific Technical College, which has just occupied spacious new quarters in Hamilton Hall, corner Thirteenth and Jefferson streets.

Mr. Charles C. Swafford, well known educator, with many years experience and association with large colleges, is the president. Mr. Swafford is assisted by an able corps of assistants, among whom is Mr. John A. Sands, Deputy Superintendent of Schools, who is secretary and manager.

A school of this nature has long been needed in our midst, where so many are located for educational advantages. The large enrollment is an indication of the imperative needs of such a school and a testimonial to the able management and curriculum here pursued.

Toby Irwin of Oakland and Eddie Haney of Philadelphia went six rounds to a draw last night at the "Quaker City." Irwin had things decidedly his own way during the first three rounds by a clever left-hand jab and punch. In the third round Haney was only saved by the bell, as Irwin scored a clean knock down with a hard left-hand punch to the body. Eddie was temporarily bewildered by the punch, and the bell was a timely interference. Irwin, however, failed to take advantage of his opportunity in the fourth round and Haney quickly recovering from the punch, easily held his own during the next three minutes. He went after Irwin with a rush in the fifth, and with a hard right to the jaw floored the Frisco boy. Irwin took a severe drubbing during the round, but was there when the bell rang. Haney easily had the last round, evening up the advantage that Irwin had gained in the first three rounds.

"OPEN SHOP" WAR IN SIGHT.

RESTAURANT KEEPERS, BACKED BY CITIZENS' ALLIANCE, MAY TAKE INITIATIVE.

Present indications point strongly to an "open shop" war between the Restaurant-keepers Association, backed by the Citizens' Alliance and the Cooks and Waiters' Union.

For some weeks the association has been considering the proposition of adopting the policy of the "open shop" and it is asserted that its installation is practically agreed upon, although the exact date of the change is not yet announced.

The source of the present agitation of the policy can be traced to a boycott levied upon the Cottage Restaurant on Tenth street, by the union. The former owner of that place employed only women and, claimed that she could not secure efficient cooks through the agency of the union, which, however, insisted on the help in the establishment being unionized. She refused the demands and the boycott was declared. For a time women pickets were employed, which increased the proprietor to even a greater extent.

The Citizens' Alliance took the matter up and the union people claim that the organization is responsible for the sentiment in favor of the "open shop" which now prevails among the restaurant keepers. The latter refuse to make any statements concerning their plans nor will they even admit that they have any plan under consideration for bringing about the "open shop."

The union representatives have gone about the city and secured the signatures of many of the cooks and waiters to an agreement to walk out in case the employers decide to install the "open shop" policy.

It is understood that the employers intend to continue, paying the wage schedule now in force and to grant the employes one day of rest in seven, as at present.

An agreement exists between the union and the employers which will not expire until next June, calling for a continuance of the present order of things.

In the event of the restaurant keepers attempting to disturb the existing conditions, the union will charge them with bad faith.

Those advocating the stand taken by the employers assert that the Cottage Restaurant boycott is sufficient provocation for breaking the agreement.

The union supporters, while they make little of the possibility of any general change in the present policy of the restaurant keepers are nevertheless, preparing to meet any such condition.

Tomorrow evening a special meeting of the Cooks and Waiters' Union has been called by President Martin Gregovich, at the headquarters at Eighth street and Broadway.

The conditions will be carefully considered and plans probably formulated for a campaign against the contemplated change in policy.

It is expected to have the presidents of the Bartenders', Waiters', Cooks', and Dishwashers' Unions of San Francisco, present to deliver addresses.

P. H. M'CARTHY TO RETURN.

Tomorrow morning P. H. McCarthy, president of the State Building Trades' Council will arrive in San Francisco from Milwaukee where he has been attending the convention of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners.

He was elected vice president of the Sixth District and chairman of the General Executive Board despite the opposition that was waged against him.

The Building Trades Council will be on hand to receive him tomorrow in San Francisco in conjunction with the San Francisco Council. He will be tendered a reception at the Building Trades' Headquarters across the bay.

TOWN TALK.

"The Scoffers of Oakland" are cynically treated in a tre chant article in this week's Town Talk by "One of Them," and the article will be read with interest by men on both sides of the bay. "The Professional Reformer" is discussed by Theodore Bonnet, and the Oriental missionary with his relation to gunboats is written of by Edwin H. Clough. Harry Cowell has a charming essay on the folly of being too wise. The Cosmos Club dinner comes in for comment by the Saunterer, and Fred Myrtle's rhythmic speech thereat is quoted. Other Saunterer topics are: The Wood case and the postmistress; engagements of the week; the Bard dinner and the Phelan feast; Harry Holbrook's grievance against the Waldorf-Astoria; some navy matters and Major Devol's relation thereto, etc., etc. There is the usual good store of poetry, jokelets, sketches and miscellany, and all the departments are full of good things.

SHAKESPEARE PARTY.

Miss Florence Young gave a pleasant affair recently at her Alameda home. The guests were members of the Adelphian Club who presented the comedy, "Shakespeare's Heroines Form a Club."

Among the guests were: Mrs. George H. Perry, curator of the Shakespearean section; Mrs. I. N. Chapman, Mrs. Emma Rathgeb, Mrs. E. a McCain, Miss Dollie Chapman, Miss Shaw, Miss Bennett, Mrs. Husbands, Mrs. J. A. Waymire, Miss Blanche Tisdale, Miss Ruth McIntyre, Mrs. A. J. Foster of Berkeley and Mrs. Dray and Miss Dray of San Francisco.

CLUB READY FOR CAMPAIGN.

SWEDISH-AMERICAN CLUB TO TAKE INTEREST IN SUPERVISORIAL FIGHT.

The Swedish American Republican Club held a rousing and well attended meeting in Becker's Hall last evening. A lively interest was shown in the fight of the Fifth Supervisorial District and the club decided to take a very active part in the same. The executive committee was instructed to arrange for other meetings and invite the favored candidate to speak before the club.

The famous Swedish orator, Hon. E. Ewander, from Chicago, the editor of "Hemlandet" will at the same time give the members an interesting idea of what has been accomplished by the Republican party up to the present time.

The Swedish Glee Club will render some of its favored selections and by all indications, there will not be a hall in Oakland too big for this meeting.

Twenty-four new members signed the club roll and paid the yearly dues.

The club will hold its annual picnic in Shellmound Park October 23rd, and an effort will be lacking in making this picnic one of the most successful in the year.

EVERYBODY GOES TO SPENCER'S

When they desire to hear some of the latest songs and monologue talk or see the latest pictures of recent important events. At Mr. Spencer's phonograph gallery at 472 Seventh street can be found an up-to-date place of its kind, which is conducted in a strictly moral manner. Mr. Spencer is selling Edison records for 35 cents each and Columbia records for 25 cents each. He is sole agent in this city for the Edison record and keeps on hand a full supply of them. It's a penny arcade. At no time is it any higher.

THE ARGONAUT

"The Call of the Tenag," the story in the Argonaut of October 17, is by Lieutenant Charles S. Martin, U. S. A., and deals with army life in the Philippines. It is an account of the disgrace of a drunken soldier, and of his heroic deed afterward, by which his comrades were saved from death. The story is dramatic and pathetic, and intensely interesting. Helen Hyde, writing from Japan to the Argonaut, tells of funerals of Japanese soldiers, and of some of the superstitions of the people. She also sends with her letter, one from a soldier at the front, who was in the thick of several fights. "Murders of the Medicis" is the title of Geraldine Bonner's last letter from Italy. She details the history of Bianca Capello, one of the most famous women of the Medici regime, and tells of a visit to Poggia a Cajano where she lived and met her death. Incidentally Miss Bonner describes, in attractive manner, some of the Italian country through which she passed. The anonymous author of "The Martyrdom of an Empress" has written another volume, "Imperator et Rex," which is a eulogy of the Emperor and Empress of Germany. The author claims to have been intimate with them, and counts the Emperor little short of a demigod. The book is reviewed in the Argonaut of October 17, and interesting extracts from it are given. Mrs. Josephine Hart Phelps' article this week will be made up of criticisms of "Lord and Lady Algy" at the Alcazar Theater, and "Much Ado About Nothing" at Lyric Hall.

NEWS LETTER.

Have you heard of "Frenzied Finance" and have you calculated what the effect of the Lawson disclosures will be on your life insurance policy? No. Well, read the News Letter and you can form your own conclusions as to the policy you are now carrying. This is a burning question and of interest to every policyholder in the country.

Sympathisers with the Boer cause will be surprised to hear of the sequestration in various parts of the Transvaal of millions of pounds sterling in gold. They will also stand agape when they hear that "Oom Paul" died possessed of nearly $5,000,000. That was going some for a poor but honest old gentleman.

Society is touched upon by a very clever writer in an article called "The Wall Flower." The methods of the Newspaper Artists' League are exposed.

MONDAY CLUB.

Mrs. Edson Adams will entertain the Monday Afternoon Whist Club next Monday at her home on Jackson street.

The membership includes: Mrs. Adams, Mrs. Andrew Moseley, Mrs. Frederick Hathaway, Mrs. Bliss, Mrs. Harry Adams, Mrs. Egbert Stone, Mrs. Horry Meek, Mrs. Knowles, Mrs. Robert S. Knight, Mrs. Arthur Crellin and Mrs. Francis Dunwoody.

OF INTEREST TO LADIES.

Mrs. E. W. Johnson, so well and favorably known in Oakland, has taken new quarters at 515 Telegraph avenue, having removed from 738 Telegraph avenue. As a modiste, Mrs. Johnson ranks among the best on the coast, having many bright ideas along the lines of designing and planning. Many beautiful garments worn by the elite of Oakland have been designed and made by Mrs. Johnson. The new location is nicely situated and will, no doubt be greatly appreciated by the many patrons of this fashionable modiste.

DRANK WHISKY

In an insensible drunken stupor Joe Defrates, a lad twelve years of age, was taken to the Receiving Hospital this afternoon, it being feared that he was the victim of poison Afterwards it was learned that the boy in company with two others had obtained possession of a quart bottle of whisky and drank all of it.

Defrates was found near his home at 364 First street and taken to the hospital where Dr. O. D. Hamlin pronounced it a case of alcoholism. He was put to bed.

FATALLY HURT AT GAME

Old Man Killed--College Elevens Play Great Ball.

BERKELEY, October 15.—While watching the intercollegiate football game at the new California field this afternoon, L. H. Buddemer, an old man of 60 years of age, fell from the bleachers and it is believed he will die.

Dr. E. Jones of Oakland is working on the man, who, it is believed in falling fractured his skull.

According to letters found in his pockets, the stranger is from 331 West Twelfth street, Portland, Oregon. He wears a pin emblematic of the Odd Fellows and Ancient Order of United Workmen.

S. H. Buddemer, who fell from the bleachers, died in fifteen minutes. He is believed to be the father of one of the substitute players on the California team.

FIRST HALF SCORE:

CALIFORNIA.. 5
STANFORD.. 6

BERKELEY, October 15.—For the first time in the history of intercollegiate athletics, a Stanford team invaded Berkeley today and played football on the new California field.

Shortly before the game was called the Stanford team accompanied by a uniformed brass band and rooters, arrived at Berkeley station and paraded to the field.

Several thousand spectators are present, among them being President Benjamin Ide Wheeler of the University of California and President David Starr Jordan of Stanford.

Shortly before 3 o'clock, Tomassini of Stanford kicked off to Kendall, the Berkeley quarter-back. He ran in thirty yards before he was tackled. Captain Fenton of the Stanford team was tackled in his tracks. He was hit so hard that he was laid up for several minutes.

Richardson of Berkeley blocked a Stanford punt. Sperry of Berkeley ran in thirty yards. Berkeley forged ahead by a series of bucks and was well under way towards the touch down when Stanford punted out of danger.

Ryley of Berkeley punted 45 yards from the middle of the field within a few feet of the goal line. Captain Fenton of Stanford tried to kick the ball out of danger, but Ryley ran through the line and caught the kick, falling on the ball for a touch down. Richardson of California failed to kick the goal, making a score of 5 to 0 in California's favor.

By a series of punts Stanford forced the ball through California territory in the latter part of the first half and scored a touchdown. The ball was carried over the goal line by Vandervoort, Stanford's right half. Stanford kicked the goal, making a score of 6 to 5 in favor of Stanford.

For slugging, C. O. E., Stanford's center was ruled off the field by Percy Hall, the umpire.

WARRANT FOR CASHIER

CHARGED WITH COLONIZING VOTERS IN NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, October 15.—Warrants were issued today against Richard Van Cott and Bankson McAvoy, a cashier in the postoffice, and a Republican worker from the Fifth Assembly District, on charges of colonization of illegal voters in the Fifth District. Van Cott is a son of Cornelius Van Cott, postmaster of this city.

Murphy Claims New York Will Go Democratic.

NEW YORK, October 15 —Chairman Taggart and August Belmont, of the Democratic National Executive Committee called on Charles F. Murphy at Tammany Hall today. It was stated afterwards by Mr. Taggart that the call was of a special character.

Mr. Murphy assured Messrs Taggart and Belmont that New York City would give the national ticket a phenomenal majority. He also assured them that everything was moving favorable in the city. There was some discussion about the number of challenges which have been made through the activity of State Superintendent of Elections Morgan.

It was stated that a large number of Republicans had been challenged as well as Democrats. The Tammany leader told Chairman Taggart that there was something mysterious about the methods of Republican workers regarding registrations which the Tammany leader did not profess to understand.

While Messrs. Taggart and Belmont were at Tammany Hall arrangements were made with Mayor McClellan that the Mayor would make several speeches in New York and would also speak in Indiana.

DAVIS ATTENDS RALLY IN VIRGINIA

MILLWOOD, West Virginia, Oct 15. Henry G. Davis, accompanied by Senator Daniel and W. C. Daily a local speculator, left Parkersburg today and Richley, a place off the main line of the road, where a rally was held. The candidate rejoined his party of campaigners this afternoon at Fort Pleasant. At Ravenswood, Mr. Davis was cordially received by a large gathering. Both he and Senator Daniel made brief speeches. Mr. Davis' voice has lost a great deal of the hoarseness of yesterday.

BOY IS STABBED ACCIDENTALLY

Richard Brown, aged fifteen years, who lives at 320 Sixth street, was accidentally stabbed in the left leg last night at 8 o'clock by Walter Meyers.

The two boys were playing in an orchard in East Oakland, and in a scuffle to recover his knife from Brown, Meyers accidentally stabbed him in the leg.

He was taken to his home and Dr Crawford put six stitches in the wound

TO INVESTIGATE U. S. MAIL SEIZURE

WASHINGTON, October 15.—Postmaster General Wynne today had brief conference with Secretary Hay regarding the opening of the mail bags for the United States cruiser Cincinnati by Russian officials The brief report on the subject, which has just reached the postoffice department, was given to the State Department and will be included with the other papers relating to the seizure of American mails on the British steamer Calchas for representation to the Russian Government on the subject.

DRAKE SELLS ALL OF HIS HORSES

NEW YORK, October 15.—The entire racing stable of John A. Drake was sold at Morris Park today. Ort Wells, full brother to Dick Wells, the holder of the world's record for one mile, was sold to W M. Sgeftel for $15,000, after some spirited bidding. Jocund went to John Hynes for $6100 Rapid Water sold for $6000, M. L. Hayman being the buyer. Green B Morris paid $1000 for High Chancellor.

MAJOR RENNIE TO RESIDE HERE

By the recent arrival of Major Z. C. Rennie and family we have to record an addition to the population of Oakland. They will reside in the house of Hon. Victor H. Metcalf, 1263 Harrison street. Major Rennie is a native of Massachusetts and served in the Civil war. Eighteen years ago he was selected by the Mutual Life of New York to establish their business in the antipodes and served as their general manager for Australia until the beginning of this year, when he retired in favor of his son, who succeeds him. While residing in Australia Major Rennie was a prominent and influential member of the Masonic fraternity. He was appointed by the Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Scotland one of its grand superintendents. This appointment he held for four years until leaving Australia, when he received the thirty-third and last degree of Scottish Rite Masonry.

Mrs. Rennie is a native of New Haven, Conn. While residing in Australia Major and Mrs. Rennie were reckoned among the leading and best society people.

LIVE WIRE EXPLODES POWDER

Terrific Concussion Results From an Accident in Mine.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., October 15.—A terrific explosion occurred in mine No. 8 of the Union Pacific Coal Company at Rock Springs shortly after the noon hour today. Seven miners were cut, bruised and burned and five, were taken to the Union Pacific Hospital here.

The explosion was caused by a miner who was carrying a can of fifty pounds of powder coming in contact with a live wire.

The explosion did not wreck the workings, but it caused great excitement, and there was a rush to the exit manholes and hoisting shafts. The scene of the explosion was about one and one-half miles underground.

BRIGHT NIGHT AT PRESS CLUB

ACTORS AND PLAYERS MINGLE WITH NEWSPAPER MEN INFORMALLY.

The members of the Oakland Press Club were entertained last night by the talented actors and players now appearing at the Empire Theater. The occasion was an informal one but none the less delightful. The entertainment was varied in character and was equal to the performances given at the best houses on the coast. Each of the acts had an additional charm, as the performers took up the spirit of the occasion and went through their various turns with more sociability than it would be possible to enjoy were they on the stage Manager Stone of the Empire acted as master of ceremonies in introducing the various artists.

The first performance was that of Lillian Reta Dolliver, a child of 10 years whose dramatic power and imitable instinct is sufficiently developed already to have attracted the attention of the best critics on the coast. She recited "McLain's Child," a piece full of tragic emotion. The little miss' voice was equal to the heaviest part of the piece—a thing that was wonderful in itself. All those who heard the recitation predicted no less a future for her than to be crowned America's tragedy queen.

The Cox family quartet, visiting here from New York, rendered several selections with great credit to themselves. The quartet is composed of Misses Gussie, Mildred, Josie and master John.

The Cox family came to the coast with a great reputation, and during the evening at the Press Club full maintained the prestige which had preceded them. The blending of the voices and their quality individually was something well worth going a long distance to hear.

C. Ernest Edwards, formerly a popular society singer of San Francisco but now a professional performer, sang two tenor selection, which were heartily appreciated. He graciously consented to sing an encore to each piece.

Among the bright features of the evening was the performance of Jarred De Kota, magician and master of the art of deceiving the eye. Unlike the stage performances, Mr. De Kota stood within a few feet of his spectators, and with tantalizing accuracy fooled them by doing the seemingly impossible.

Mr. De Kota presented several illusions and also did marvelous work in "palming" all sorts of things.

After the performance light lunch and liquid refreshments were served.

Last nights gathering is the first of many to follow.

MORSE APPEALS

Dissatisfied with the ruling of Judge Ogden in regard to his decision of the suits brought by Henry N. Morse against the Board of Supervisors, for the purpose of preventing them from building the Mocho road leading from Livermore into the Magnesite district, notice of an appeal to the Supreme Court was filed this afternoon by attorneys Frisel and Hamilton for Morse.

MAKES WAR ON HER OWN SON

Would Arrest Him For Crime of Burglary.

There is war between Corinne Harlan a comely young colored woman and her twelve-year-old son, Eddie, who objects to the attentions paid his mother by one John Smith, a colored Pullman porter. The lad stole a pistol a few days ago ostensibly to protect himself against the threat of Mr. Smith, whom the boy says threatened to fill him full of lead in case he made any trouble for him. The mother however fears that possibly Mr Smith's skin instead of her sons may be the one in danger and this morning visited the District Attorney's office for the purpose of swearing to a charge against her boy of burglary and having him sent to a reform school.

After listening to the mother's story Deputy District Attorney Brown questioned the lad who seemingly told a straight story about the affair. He admitted taking the pistol from the room of a man by the name of Jones who boards at his mother's house. He said that he did this in order to defend himself in case Smith tried to hurt him. The lad then told of the visits Smith was paying to the Harlan home at 1718 Pacific avenue and to which he objected.

It is charged against the boy that he refuses to go to school and is generally bad and that his breaking into the room of Mr. Jones was only the climax of a great many other offenses. Mr. Jones has made no complaint to the authorities as he was given the pistol back again after he had discovered the loss of it, the boy explaining to him the reason he had taken it.

Both stories are to be investigated before any further action is taken in the matter and in the mean time Eddie Harlan is being confined in the detention ward of the Receiving Hospital until some action is taken by the Juvenile court in his case.

UNITED STATES CRUISERS SAIL

SAN DIEGO, October 15.—The Paul Jones, dispatch boat for the Pacific squadron which has been at target practice at Magdalena bay, arrived in port today with the information that the Boston, accompanied by the collier Nero, has sailed for Panama and the New York for New York.

OPIUM.

I am that one in whom worn hearts forget
Their wasteful wage of sin-earned misery;
Dear Circe of the sinful, I am she
Whose face with others' tears are wet!

My voice is slow with murmur of the sea,
My breast like green seduction of her graves—
I bear the fevered heart, as on her waves,
Until they drown beneath all memory.

I have no creed of life or loyalty,
I have no joy of daring, or disdain
Of perfidy, mine are the weary stain;
The fallen, as to love, turn back to me.

In my betrayal certain madness lies,
Of my desertion emperors have died;
My soft embrace no bliss may safe deride,
For I am she no man may dare despise.

My hair is stupor, languor-shaded deep
My eyes and dark with unsearched mystery;
Men find Nirvana's prophecy in me,
I am the tireless courtezan of Sleep!
—Martha Gilbert Dickinson Blanchi, in Smart Set.

Professor Moses Again.

Professor Bernard Moses has added gaiety to the campaign by delivering a political speech to his class at the State University. Perhaps the proceeding was dictated simply by a desire to be unanimous, but it is nevertheless a shining instance of doing the right thing at the wrong time and in the wrong place. The classroom of a public educational institution is not the place to air political opinions, and the Government's policy with reference to the Philippines can worry through without being propped up by Professor Moses. But if the professor feels that he must either talk politics or break his suspenders, he had better hire a hall and do his speiling on his own time. He is not paid a salary by the State to make political speeches to students.

There are excuses for Professor Moses, however. He was once a member of the Philippine Commission and has never recovered from the effects of that experience. It has touched his faculties like a case of sunstroke, and he talks about it on all occasions and in all sorts of company with the reminiscent ardor of an old maid who got kissed on one solitary occasion at a husking bee. That rare old gossip of the Queen Anne period, Pepys, was not more self-conscious nor more addicted to babbling small beer. It is a case of incorrigible garrulity being faintly illuminated by small wit. Our Moses has never yet got out of the bullrushes, and must needs make a clamor to let people know his whereabouts.

Professor Moses is as full of novelties as a dime museum. One of his freaks was a scheme to breed up a superior race in the Philippines by crossing Chinese coolies with native women. It was his impression that this would pacify the natives and improve their morals. He had the good grace, however, to refrain from elucidating this delightful theory to a mixed class in the State University. Whether he was deterred by a sense of propriety or the presence of young ladies has always been a question, but there has always been a burning desire on the part of the coolies for Professor Moses to be given a free hand to carry out his proposed plan of elevating the Filipinos in the scale of civilization. Doubtless this plan of "benevolent assimilation" contains an element of interest, but the public preferred to laugh at it rather than take it seriously. Consequently the scheme to propogate a superior race in the Philippines has been permitted to fall into innocuous desuetude, to borrow a phrase from Grover Cleveland.

Nevertheless we have Professor Bernard Moses still with us to give us pleasing starts by way of variety, by his manner of saying and doing unexpected things. His belief that the class rooms of the State University are a political hustings is not surprising in view of his past performances, and can be classed with his Philippine theory and his notion that reporters are "lost souls." But the time may come when it will be necessary to place a curb on the vagaries of Professor Moses. He is altogether too much of a good thing.

Prophet Alexander Dowie denounced Judge Parker to his followers in a characteristic tongue lashing speech. Evidently Dowie desires a monopoly of the faking privilege.

Oakland is All Right.

We accept the San Francisco Call's kindly offer to assist Oakland in setting her house in order in the spirit in which it is tendered. However, it is not amiss to remark that the improvement bonds recently voted in San Francisco are going a-begging in the money market. This fact does not suggest that we are so worse off. Furthermore, the county jail of San Francisco has been in open contempt of the law and the Board of Health for these twenty-five years past, and its county hospital has been a disgrace to a modern city. Our excuse for a city hall is all that our contemporary says of it, but when we start to build a new one we hope to complete it in less than the thirty years' time it took to finish the ancient ruin known as the city hall of San Francisco, and we hope the cost will not be more than treble the estimate, as was the case across the bay. It is true that we have brought down some good birds in shooting at a crow, but the mischief can be remedied; a mistake would have been beyond repair. The result of the bond election, though disappointing in several respects has had no discouraging effect in Oakland, nor has it dampened the spirit of progress in this city. Public sentiment is being educated and solidified on the improvement question, and will make itself felt in due time. Oakland is all right.

When Kuropatkin got ready to advance he announced his intention by public proclamation. In this way he made sure of getting a warm reception.

Whipping For False Husbands.

The divorce question is still agitating the religious organizations. A Methodist divine advocates the whipping post for husbands who are unfaithful to their wives, maltreat them, or fail to provide for their families. He suggests this as a remedy for divorce. The ducking stool for scolding and unfaithful wives would round out the proposition. Meanwhile the Episcopal Church is rent by a proposition to allow the innocent party in divorce cases to remarry. The whole question is involved in perplexity and doubt, but the discussion of it is narrowing down to an issue between society and the individual—whether it is better that individuals should be left to suffer injustice than that society should be undermined by the divorce evil. It is quite apparent to those who have studied the subject at close range from actual experience that the great majority of divorces are unnecessary. A very large proportion of them are prompted by the desire of one or both the parties to marry somebody else. The courts thus become a medium for the gratification of vagrant passion and the polygamous instinct without incurring the odium that is ordinarily visited on irregular sexual connexions.

Time works queer revenges. A strike of the negro roustabouts on the Mississippi river has been broken by the importation of white men from Northern and Western cities. Importing colored men to break strikes in the North and West has been a common thing, but taking white men South to take the places of negro strikers is something new. Perhaps it is all for the best.

Bard's Democratic Supporters.

It is stated that a number of Democratic legislative nominees in Southern California, particularly in Los Angeles county, have pledged themselves to vote for Thomas R. Bard for Senator. In every case the Democratic candidates so pledged are running in districts where the Republican nominees are opposed to Bard's re-election.

Does this mean that Bard's supporters are in a secret deal with Democrats to knife Republican candidates who favor some other aspirant for Senator? If so, it is well that the Republicans throughout the State should be made aware of the situation. A candidacy that is being secretly advanced by party treachery is not likely to commend itself to loyal Republicans.

A candidate claiming to be Republican and asking the support of Republicans has no business making deals with the legislative nominees of opposing parties. This Los Angeles matter ought to be sifted to the bottom.

A Point for Voters.

A dispatch from London says: "Great Britain faces the prospect of a winter of severe distress. The number of unemployed in London has already reached dangerous proportions, and the president of the Local Government Board has invited a conference next week with delegates from all local authorities in the metropolis to obtain information on labor conditions in each district and suggestions for special relief for the starving people."

Let the voters compare the condition thus presented in a free trade country with the prosperous conditions prevailing here, and then ask themselves if it is wise to strike down the Protective Tariff, which is a barrier between the labor and industries of the United States and the destructive competition that is ruinously felt in Great Britain.

Tom Watson says Parker's fight is a joke. Tom Taggart says Watson's fight is a fake. Both statements appear to be true.

The Democratic Breakdown.

The Democratic campaign shows signs of going to pieces before election. The cracking and rumbling that precede the thaw of disintegration are plainly heard. The Parker canvass was weak enough to begin with, but it has received a succession of body blows from Bryan, from Tom Watson, and the Hearst papers that have simply been heart-breaking. Intemperate attacks on the President by Southern fire-eaters punctuated by outbreaks of mob violence directed against negroes have added to the distress. A finishing stroke has come from General Daniel E. Sickles, a veteran Democrat, in an article strongly endorsing President Roosevelt and defending Pension Order No. 78, which was singled out for attack by Parker.

Nor is it remarkable that the Democratic campaign should practically collapse in advance of election. Starting out with the proposition that protection is robbery, it invited a comparison of the conditions that prevailed from 1892 to 1897 with the conditions which have prevailed since the inauguration of President McKinley. It again exhibited hostility, peculiarly irritating under the circumstances, to the pensioners who served in the Civil War. The Panama Canal project was covertly assailed under pretense of finding fault with the recognition of the republic of Panama. Peevish objections have been raised to the construction of a strong navy and the strengthening of our coast defenses. In effect, the Democratic candidate has declared himself in favor of giving up the Philippines and turning them adrift to be seized by Japan, Germany or Great Britain. The brilliant foreign policy exemplified by the diplomatic triumphs of Secretary John Hay has been criticized and derided. Lastly, the affiliation of the Democratic managers with the trusts has aroused suspicion and distrust.

No wonder the Democratic campaign is breaking up like a spring thaw. A series of unpopular and untenable negative propositions can never be made to pass for a policy, nor can they deceive an intelligent people.

Hints for the Ladies.

Rows of small embroidered frills edge the dust ruffles of high-priced petticoats.

Fine white bobbinet makes most satisfactory curtains for people of moderate means, as they launder well, drape gracefully and wear a long time. Simplicity should prevail in their arrangement.

Some of the daintiest collars are of white linen worked in white, or in soft muslin worked in black and white, scarlet or navy blue—in fact, with some color that shall match exactly the tone of the blouse or gown.

Cheesecloth or silkoline makes good dusters, and window or box draperies that are no longer fresh and atttractive should be cut into squares and neatly hemmed for the purpose. There should be a sufficient number on hand that they may be washed as regularly as the face towels, as they last longer and give more satisfactory service with frequent washings.

Again mothers are called upon to cover school-books as a protection from little fingers not always above reproach. Paper, silesia or calico soon soils or wears out. Table oilcloth or enamel cloth, as it is often called, wears well, does not show the dirt and whenever soiled can be cleansed with a wet cloth or sponge, coming out as good as new. This serviceable cloth, comes not only in white, but in many pretty patterns in blue, brown, green, etc.

One of the most useful articles is a combined skirt hanger and bag for the dainty dancing frock. Delicately flowered dimities and lawns, costing from 5 to 12 cents a yard, are most suitable, and three widths of wide material or four of narrow are required. The bag should be a few inches longer that the gown. If the bag is flowered in pink roses, then sew a narrow ruffle of pink along the bottom as on a skirt, and line the inside of the top to the band for the draw string with pink lawn, stitching a continuation of this lining down for a band. When a pink ribbon is run through each side of the bag and tied in bows, the gathered top will form a dainty little pink ruffle, two inches deep. Next take a wooden or wire skirt-hanger and baste in place around it enough cotton batting to make a wadding. Cover this with shirred pink ribbon or a strip of silk gathered on each edge with a piece left beyond the gathers to form a ruffle, and then tie a pink bow in the middle. The hook and handle are twisted around with ribbon and a bow at the top finishes the work, unless the maker wishes to add a few little sachet bags on ribbon ends into which the owner of the bag may tuck her favorite sachet.

MY MA, SHE KNOWS.

My pa, he scolds me jus' becuz
He says I'm gettin' tough;
He says my face is never clean
My hands are always rough;
I'm not behavin' like I should
An' goin' wrong, I s'pose;
But ma, she takes an' pats my hand,
An' smiles, becuz she knows.

My pa, he says I'll never be
A business man like him,
Because I hain't got any "drive"
And "get-up," "pluck" and "vim;"
But ma, she says, so solemn like,
"A man's a boy that grows;"
"And boys must have their playin' spells;"
And ma's a trump, an' knows!

My pa, he shakes his head an' sighs,
An' says he doesn't see
Where I get all the careless ways
That seem jes born in me;
An' ma she laughs, an' laughs, an' laughs,
'Till pa's face crimson grows,
An' then she says, "'Tis very queer,"
But somehaw, ma she knows.

My ma, she knows mos' everything
'Bout boys an' what they like;
She's never scoldin' 'bout the muss
I make with kites and bike;
She says she wants me to be good
An' conquer all my foes,
An' you jes' bet I'm going to be,
'Cuz my sweet ma, she knows.

CHANGE IN WEST OAKLAND POSTOFFICE.

E. C. HA. N.

The branch postoffice at West Oakland changed hands yesterday, C. L. Wines, who has been in charge of the department for the past eight years, retiring in favor of E. C. Hahn, who will hereafter conduct the business of Uncle Sam at the same place, 1792 Seventh street.

During Mr. Wines' incumbency, as superintendent of the branch office, he has made many friends. Mr. Wines was attentive to business, and his record is an excellent one. The reason that he is leaving the service of the Government is because he has been elected to the important position of cashier of the West Oakland Bank and Trust Company, which has opened for business at 1788 Seventh street.

Mr. Wines has had considerable experience as a banker, having been connected for a number of years with a bank in San Francisco.

Mr. Hahn, who succeeds Mr. Wines, has been a merchant at West Oakland for a number of years. He is a bright, active young man and no doubt will give the public in West Oakland the same prompt service as was given by Mr. Wines. Mr. Hahn was formerly agent for Wells, Fargo & Company at West Oakland. He is known as a progressive and active young merchant. Mr. Hahn is vice-president of the West Oakland Bank and Trust Company.

ASHES OF DEAD OFFERED AT PUBLIC AUCTION.

Junk Dealer Trying to Make a Turn on Remains of Robert Haupstuck.

OMAHA, October 15.—Though he has been dead for ten months, the ashes of Robert Haupstuck, late of Alameda, Cal., are not permitted to rest in peace. They are now in the hands of a junk dealer here, who refuses to part with them.

After his cremation in Oakland, Cal., the wife started overland last December, intending to carry the urn to his former home in Germany. On the way she was taken sick and died in an Omaha hospital. Papers found in her possession indicated that she was accompanying her dead husband's body and a search was promptly inaugurated for the corpse. Telegrams were sent forward to Chicago and New York, but no stray coffin could be discovered. Meantime an administrator was appointed in Omaha to take charge of the personal effects of Mrs. Haupstuck, and eventually these were sold at auction to a local junk dealer for $3.

Inadvertently the urn containing Haupstuck's remains were included in the sale. All that time the relatives in Germany manifested little interest in the search of the corpse, and it was finally abandoned. The ashes were not discovered until a month later. Today they were offered for auction and a stranger bid $200. The second-hand dealer believes this came from the German relatives and expects a much larger amount to be offered.

And Thus Break Elopement Record in Berkeley.

BERKELEY, October 15.—The elopement record in the college town has been completely broken this month by the number of clandestine marriages that have taken place. The latest couple to surprise their parents and friends by announcing their secret nptials are Miss Bertha Batdorf a student at the Berkeley High School, and Clarance Lee, a well-known and popular young man of Berkeley.

It was last Sunday that the young couple journey to San Rafael, the Gretna Green of California, and there were married. Today the happy pair could keep their secret no longer and they made a complete confession to their parents, who at once extended their blessing.

The young couple will go to housekeeping but for the present will reside with Mrs. Lees parents Mr and Mrs J Batdorf, 1245 Berkeley way.

AN ENGAGEMENT.

The engagement is announced of Miss Lili Pfeil and Emil A. Berndt. Miss Pfeil is the daughter of Mrs. Jacoba Pfeil and the late R. Pfeil and grand-daughter of Captain K. Van Oterendorp of Alameda. The groom elect is well known in business circles, being manager for W. W. Dimond & Company of Honolulu.

DENY ENGAGEMENT.

Mrs. Willis wishes to deny the statement recently published of the engagement of her daughter, Miss Lela Willis, to Clarence Simonton. No engagement exists and the announcement was possibly due to the mistake of some acquaintance of the young people.

A TEA.

A tea for the benefit of the East Oakland Free Kindergarten will be held at the home of Mrs. T. J. McMannis, No. 409 Orange street, on Thursday, November 10th. An interesting program is being arranged, and useful articles, together with home-made candies will be on sale.

WILL MARRY.

The engagement is announced of Miss Bessie Johnstone, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Johnstone of Pleasanton, to T. Fred Bell of San Francisco, son of Mrs. Teresa Bell.

Miss Johnstone is a school teacher in the Encinal city and well known in Alameda society. Mr. Bell is a prominent attorney of San Francisco and will soon be heir to a large sum of money from the Bell estate. The wedding will take place in January at the home of the bride's mother in Pleasanton and will be a simple, home affair.

WILL PLAY WHIST.

Piedmont Parlor, No. 87, N. D. G. W., are making large preparations for a whist tournament to be given on November 3d in Ben Hur Temple, 1060 Broadway. The committee is working to make the affair a success. Several fine prizes have already been secured.

PERSONALS.

Louis B. Levy and family have returned from a three months' visit to Honolulu, where they went on a pleasure trip. Mr. Levy is the well-known theatrical manager and rumor has it he is soon to be interested in an Oakland place of amusement.

Dr. A. F. Merriman, Jr., has returned from a two months' trip throughout the United States and Canada. He attended the Fourth International Dental Congress and enjoyed a stay at the Fair.

Mrs. Arthur Crellin will leave October 20 for an extended trip. She will visit New Zealand, and plans to be away for several months.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Mason of Berkeley are visiting the World's Fair, after an extended trip to New York and other Eastern cities.

Mr. and Mrs. Max L. Schlueter of Oakland are among the Californians who have spent the season at the World's Fair in St. Louis. They are thoroughly enjoying the many wonders of the exposition and have met a large number of friends during their sojourn.

WOMEN'S CIVIC CLUB.

The Women's Civic Improvement Club will hold a meeting Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Chabot Observatory, Jefferson street entrance. Business of importance will be discussed and a full attendance is requested.

WHEELOCK CLUB.

The Wheelock Club held the first meeting of the year yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs Remi Chabot on Madison street. After a game of cards, tea was served and a pleasant afternoon enjoyed.

The players included Mrs. E. J. Barrett, Mrs. E. B. Beck, Mrs. Q. A. Chase, Mrs. George W. Cope, Mrs. G. W. Cook, Mrs. J. A. Folger, Mrs. James Moffitt, Mrs. A. Fine, Mrs. E. A. Heron, Mrs. Samuel Hubbard, Mrs. Frank Kendall, Mrs. E. G. Lukens, Mrs. Prentiss Selby, Mrs. Gordon Stolp, Mrs. E. M. Walsh, Mrs. Florence Wells, Mrs. Charles G. Yale and Mrs. John Yule.

FABIOLA SALE.

The ladies of Fabiola Hospital are planning for their annual rummage sale, beginning Wednesday, November 2. Fabiola has always made a splendid success of these rummage sales and donations for the coming affair will be received at the Broadway store of Konler and Chase.

Plans are already on foot for the Fabiola calendar tea which is always one of the largest events of the year. It will be given early in December at the Madison street home of Mrs Remi Chabot. A fine musical program is in preparation.

SWALLOWED TIN HORSE.

J. P. Simonsen's 3-year-old son swallowed a tin horse about an inch long. The little fellow has been none the worse for his experience.

BOARD OF WORKS MEETS.

AWARDS CONTRACT FOR DREDGING IN FRONT OF CITY WHARVES.

The Board of Public Works yesterday afternoon awarded a contract for dredging the city wharves to the Atlantic, Gulf and Pacific Dredging Company. There were but two bids. There is 30,000 cubic feet to be removed from the estuary at a cost of 15½ cents a cubic yard. The wharves, when the dirt has been removed, will accommodate deep water vessels.

The Board of Police and Fire Commissioners directed Chief of Police Hodgkins to enforce the ordinance preventing the tacking of signs on trees, thereby mutilating them. The Woman's Civic Improvement Club registered a protest with the commissioners against permitting advertising matter to be placarded on the trees.

J. F. Gunther substitute policeman, was appointed an acting regular yesterday by the commissioners, vice James Drew, temporarily retired.

The appointments of Peter Strogan and Milo Medin as special policemen were revoked.

The patrol wagon horse "Joe" was condemned on the recommendation of City Veterinary Archibald.

INSTALL OFFICERS.

California Lodge, No. 2, Sons of Herman, installed the following new officers last night, for the ensuing year:

President J Bode; vice-president, Albert Curtin; secretary, John Tillman; trustee G. Beckert.

The following officers of the Grand Lodge had charge of the installation: Grand President A. Hagedorn, Grand Vice-President A. Lindeberg, Grand Secretary E. G. Bruegge and Grand Treasurer F. Michelson, all of San Francisco.

MONDAY

Grand Opening of Prager's

In fulfillment of our promises the doors of this, the largest department store west of Chicago, will formally be thrown open to the public Monday. All will have an opportunity to critically inspect the entire building from basement to roof, and compare it for bigness, completeness and splendor with other similar establishments.

The rapid growth of Prager's is without equal. It was organized just two years ago, and occupied the ground floor and basement. The store with its great values and low prices jumped instantly into popular favor. Soon there was not room to properly handle the crowds, and expansion was necessary. Just four and one-half months ago the entire Murphy building was taken to permit of this growth. What transformations have taken place since will be seen at the Grand Opening Monday.

Nothing has been done on narrow lines; everything is strictly broad-gauge. You may go from one department to another, and you will find the most elaborate shopping conveniences; magnificent mixtures and every conceivable kind of merchandise. There is everything here for home luxury, and for the comfort and health of men, women and children. Low prices twinkle everywhere.

There are four quick and safe elevators to transport shoppers to the five floors. Reception rooms with attendants and lounging places are on each floor. Public telephones, a branch postoffice and dozens of other features are here.

You will find a competent organization of salespeople to serve you with rapidity and satisfaction at all times. In a word—this is an ideal shopping center in every sense.

THE WORST TRUST OF THEM ALL.

There is one trust that generally escapes escoriation at the hands of the press, and it deserves the least consideration of any. It is the remorseless drug trust, which has advanced the price of drugs so shamelessly that some of what are called "fancy" drugs have ceased to be prescribed at all; for instance, pilocarpine is twenty-five cents a grain. A prescription might easily call for 500 grains, or $125.00 each prescription. Hyoscyamine costs about forty cents a grain. No practioner can dare to prescribe such drugs, except in the rarest cases and in minute quantities. There are one or two drugs which are used principally in the preparation of special proprietary medicines, and when this is the case the drug trust raises their prices so as to either take all the profit, or compel the abandonment of the business; for instance THE INDIA DRUG CURE of 201 Turk street San Francisco, makes a proprietary medicine for the cure of morphine, cocaine, opium and all the other drug habits, and are compelled to use a very costly drug; which the drug trust has advanced to about $850.00 dollars per pound. It is absolutely indispensable and is used in large quantities. It could be made for about $10.00, and certainly does not the cost the trust $850.00 now. Upon whom does the burden of this cruel iniquity fall? Chiefly on the class who can least afford it—the people already impoverished by the terrible results of drug-addiction. Numbers have not been able to pay the past prices, and some of them have resorted to the cheap "fake" cures, which are simply their accustomed "dope" disguised in another form. For the present THE INDIA DRUG CURE intends to give their patients the benefit of the old stock they have on hand, but inevitably as soon as that is gone, and they have to buy new stock, the price of the CURE will advance to double the old figures; which means that it will be beyond the reach of thousands, whose only hope it is.

The writer has known a farmer to save up for two years to take the CURE. How hopeless such a case would be with the new prices. It might be possible to cure a drug addict without the costliest of the drugs now used, but the risk would be great, and the suffering simply awful; and they will not stand the least suffering, distress or even inconvenience. Certainly THE INDIA DRUG CURE does cure the worst cases of morphinism, and other drug-addiction without pain, suffering an oddistress or even detention from usual business pursuits, and has cured thousands in this city and this coast; but it will go against the grain to see poor devils give up in despair just because the rapacious beasts who constitute the drug trust want to add a few hundreds or thousands to their profits. And O, the biting bitterness of being helpless against such vampires!

DRILL WON BY RESERVES.

COMPANY B DEFEATS CADET CORPS OF SAN FRANCISCO.

The competitive drill which took place last night between Company B of the Calvary Reserves and the Congregational Cadet Corps of San Francisco was won by the Calvary Reserves.

The drill, which was a credit to both the contesting companies, began at 8:15 o'clock and lasted until after 10. The decision of the judges was satisfactory to all.

After the decision had been awarded the victors gave three cheers for the defeated, who in turn responded for the victors. Then the captains, the judges, and several others were cheered to the echo.

The judges of the drill were: Captain J. F. Eggert of Company F, 1st Regiment, C. N. G.; Captain L. M. Cobbledick.

The Calvary Reserves' officers were: Captain C. W. Stilwell, First Sergeant G. W. D. Kneass, Sergeants Chas. Ross C. T. Dorman, H. M. Eastman, and Leslie Brown, Corporals C. Young and C. Curry.

The Congregational Cadet Corps' officers were:

Captain H. T. Hobson, Lieutenant E. K. Peddler.

Last night's contest is the first of a series of drills that will be held, for the possession of a silver loving cup. The next will take place in about six weeks and will be between the Starr King Corps of San Francisco and Company B of the Calvary Reserves. Then the two victorious teams will contest for the cup.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Lyon entertained over 100 friends, Thursday evening at an elaborate reception, celebrating the fortieth anniversary of their wedding. The decorations were in white and green and in an archway the dates 1864-1904 were suspended. The affair was very enjoyable, an impromptu musical program adding much to the evening's entertainment. Those who contributed numbers included Miss Winifred Wilson, Mrs. Carrie Fross Snyder, Ralph Fisher and Wilson Barstow.

Mrs. Lyons wore a black gown with diamonds and was assisted in receiving by her husband and son, Harvey B. Lyon. The two absent sons sent congratulatory telegrams and handsome gifts.

AN EARLY SEASON AND A GAY ONE.

The winter season has started off merrily and is one of the earliest of record. The Fore wedding at St. Paul's for which hundreds of cards have been sent out will be a large affair. Miss Ione Fore should make a beautiful bride for she is a stunning girl though the most beautiful girls do not always make the handsomest brides—sometimes it is the plain little girl who shines out in the trying; white satin on the all-important occasion. Miss Fore has chosen some handsome girls for her attendants, for she need fear no rivals. The cards are handsome things engraved in Old English type and read:

Mr. and Mrs. Charles William Fore request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter Ione to Mr. Eugene Elbert Hewlett on the evening of Thursday, October the twentieth, at nine o'clock, at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Oakland, California.

Mr. Hewlett is one of the best known among the young San Francisco attorneys and he and his bride will make their home upon the other side of the bay. He is said to be a charming fellow and he has certainly won a charming girl. Miss Ione being considered the flower of an exceptionally handsome flock. We once thought that perhaps one of our Oakland eligibles would win this girl, but nothing came of it.

Nine o'clock is the fashionable hour for weddings this year—evening weddings of course—and evening weddings seem to be rather more popular than afternoon ones so far this fall. Those things go in cycles always, like railway accidents. The Fore wedding will be a fashionable event and many new gowns will make their debut on this occasion.

⁂ ⁂ ⁂

ANOTHER OCTOBER WEDDING.

Another pretty wedding of next week will be a home affair, also at the fashionable hour of nine. The bride to be is Miss Irene Paul Thomas, daughter of Mrs. William Paul Thomas, and the groom is Mr. Harry Leopold Clapp, only son of Mrs. Milton Clapp and a grandson of Henry L. Davis, of San Francisco. Mrs. Clapp and her son spent last winter in Alameda and this romance which is to culminate Tuesday evening sprang up between the young people, both of whom are very young, much younger than fin de siecle brides and groom are generally. The marriage will take place at Mrs. Thomas' residence, 2124 Santa Clara avenue, which will be most beautifully decorated for the occasion. There will be about a hundred guests—the intimate friends of both families.

Mrs. Clapp, who has been spending the summer and fall in the East, has come to California for the occasion, and is accompanied by her brother and sister-in-law from New York. They are all three guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Davis of San Francisco. Mr. and Mrs. Davis entertain on Saturday evening of this week in honor of their son and daughter-in-law and their grandson and his fiancee.

⁂ ⁂ ⁂

DOINGS ACROSS THE BAY.

The social season in San Francisco will be formally opened by the large tea to be given by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stetson Wheeler in their beautiful new home. This is the first big affair of the winter and is scheduled for next Saturday afternoon. There will be a large receiving party and the tea will be one of the most charming of the winter for everyone is so glad to see everyone else at the first affair of the winter for everyone is so glad to see everyone else at the first big affair of the fall. This tea is for the twenty-second, so the social season is opening eight days earlier than last year, when the coming out tea for Miss Cristine Pomeroy on October 30th was the first big event of the year. The name of Miss Elsie Marsh is on the cards, so with those of the host and hostess. Miss Marsh is Mrs. Wheeler's sister, has for years made her home with the Wheelers, and is soon to be married. Besides being in Miss Marsh's honor this tea partakes, also, of the nature of a housewarming as it is the first large affair the Wheelers have given in their new home.

MARRIAGE ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Announcements have been sent out informing friends and acquaintances of the marriage of Miss Adelaide Margaret Samuels and Mr. Clarence Elwyn Crowell, the latter so well known in Oakland. Mr. and Mrs. Crowell will reside in Oakland, but have not yet returned from their wedding journey. I understand that the engagement has existed for some time though it was but recently announced. The father of the bride is a well-known artist and the Samuels have a lovely country home in Monterey county, though they reside in San Francisco.

Other announcements tell of the October wedding of Miss Laura Lee Macdonald and James C. Sims. Mrs. Sims is a niece of the Santa Rosa Macdonalds and Mr. Sims was for many years a practicing attorney there though he now has an office in San Francisco. Mrs. Sims is a very handsome and striking woman and her husband is also tall and good looking. They should make a striking pair.

⁂ ⁂ ⁂

VISITING IN THE EAST.

Mrs. May L. Cheney, assistant recorder at the State University, is visiting the large Eastern Universities on a leave of absence. Returning, she will be in St. Louis about November first, in time for the general meeting of the Collegiate Alumnae to which she is a delegate and where she will represent the California Chapter.

Mr. and Mrs. Rolla Watt are also in St. Louis spending several weeks at the Fair.

Among others in St. Louis are Mr. and Mrs. John E. Boyd of San Rafael. Mr. and Mrs. Boyd are accompanied by Miss Boyd, and are industriously "doing" the Fair where they will remain for several weeks. The weather is now so cool and delightful that the exhibits may be seen and the buildings examined without discomfort. Mr. and Mrs. Boyd went to Pike's Peak on their way East and had a novel and interesting experience with a blizzard.

Mr. John Housman of San Anselmo is still at the Fair though Mr. Hotaling returned several weeks ago. The delights of the Ivory City are such that it is difficult to tear one's self away from them.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Deering have returned after a month delightfully spent in visiting Eastern cities. They went directly to Chicago, then to Boston by way of Niagara. In Boston and its environs a week was passed. Five dinners were given in Mr. and Mrs. Deering's honor while they were in Boston. In New York, which was their next stopping place, Mr. Joseph Reed entertained them at Sherry's and they were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Lewis (Margaret Cameron) where Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Irwin were invited to meet them. The Lewises have a charming apartment in New York, overlooking the Riverside drive. From New York Mr. and Mrs. Deering went to Washington to see the Congressional Library and Mount Vernon and the remaining time was passed in St. Louis.

A CARD CLUB LUNCHEON.

Mrs. J. Walter Scott entertained the ladies of the East Oakland Five Hundred club at luncheon on Wednesday, this being the first meeting of the season. After the luncheon five hundred was played. There is talk of changing the club to a bridge club It was a delightful meeting of old friends after the summer vacation. Mrs. Scott's home is charmingly hospitable.

⁂ ⁂ ⁂

DR. KERR IMPROVING.

Dr. William Watt Kerr, who was so badly hurt in an automobile collision is improving, but is still confined to his bed at his home. His condition was critical at one time.

⁂ ⁂ ⁂

MRS. WILSON SENDS OUT CARDS.

Mrs. Jack Wilson has sent out cards for the second and ourth Mondays all winter. The Wilsons have moved from the St. Dunstan to the Palace. The fashionable apartment house this winter, however, is to be the Marie Antoinette on Van Ness avenue.

⁂ ⁂ ⁂

THE NEW GOWNS THIS YEAR.

We are all of us so busy with the dressmakers and milliners that we have scarcely time to breathe, but it is the part of wisdom to get these material things over before winter begins as there is no time during the season and all women who pretend to be the least "in society" know that they will have calls for all their finery from the very commencement of the winter.

Mrs. Rudolph Spreckels, who has just returned from several weeks in Paris was telling me the other day about the styles. She had been buying dozens of gowns for herself and her little girl, but almost nothing for the small boy.

"Boys are only boys everywhere," she said. "There is nothing new for them, not even in Paris."

In tailor gowns fashions are much as you please. There are many tight skirts which flare at the bottom—these in the short street styles. Very few Etons are seen except for dressy gowns. Tailored coats for street wear are all long with leg o' mutton sleeves instead of the bagginess above the cuff as last year. Velvets, velveteens and corduroys are as popular as they were last year.

In dressy gowns all the skirts are full though many of them have the fullness drawn into stitched tucks around. Some Eton effects with lace jabots are seen and many elbow sleeves, both with and without lace undersleeves.

Thin gowns of lace and chiffon are now more popular and more costly than ever. Brown seems the rage for street wear, closely pressed by purple and yellow and brown are very chic for evening wear. The dresses that are most perishable are most costly. Many stunning black and whites are seen as always and embroidery and much handwork distinguish the imported frock. Whole garlands of pink tulle roses of tiniest size decorate wide flounces of white lace.

Dressy coats for evening are quite long again, below the knee, and are very beautiful, many of them showing most costly linings. Hats are directoire, continental or plain picture hats, with plumes and lace and fur, but the picture hats have higher crowns than last year.

⁂ ⁂ ⁂

PEOPLE COME BACK LATER.

Everywhere in the East and on our own coast, people are returning from the country later each year. September is such a glorious month in the country, that all the summer homes have been kept open this year longer than usual, and it will be well on in October before some of them will be closed this year.

And that means of course, that the social season will be late in beginning. Across the bay, it will be fairly opened by the large assembly, to be given on the evening of November fourth,—the prime mover in the Assembly being Edward Greenway.

Mr. Greenway still owns up to birthdays, and the next milestone will be passed on November fourth. A birthday dinner is to be given at the Palace Hotel, and later the guests will adjourn to the Assembly, which will also be given at the Palace.

At this assembly the debutantes of the year will make their initial bow. There are not so many as usual, mothers in the main, not preferring the formal debut, which is very trying to the average young girl.

But there is no denying the fact that the Assembly gives a young girl a social entree, not accomplished by anything else in the social round. It is a sort of social cachet, and this year, as the list of invited guests is smaller than usual, it is presumably more exclusive.

Many of the debutantes of recent years in San Francisco made their first appearance at Mrs. Salisbury's Fortnightlies. Of course there are other patronesses, but as Mrs. Salisbury always had a perfect genius for things social, the many details of the management of the dances were left entirely to her.

Mrs. Salisbury's social prestige was due to many things. She did not have money, but she did have family.

Besides she was simply untiring in attending to details, and she was a good friend. Perhaps that has always been the secret of her great social success—that she has always been a good friend. And she has been exceptionally kind to young girls, always interesting herself in their affairs, and an older woman can do a great deal to help along a young girl's little romance. Many a young girl owes a happy home to the kind efforts of Mrs. Salisbury.

But she is ill this winter, and the message went out that there would be no Fortnightlies,—which leaves the social field for the younger set entirely to the Assemblies.

One hears they are trying to be brilliant affairs, with gorgeous decorations, and a most elaborate supper, Mrs. McCalla is one of the patronesses, and she is immensely popular in both army and navy circles. Probably no woman has ever been more popular at Mare Island, than Mrs. McCalla. So the young lieutenants of the army and navy will be largely in evidence at the Assemblies this winter.

Invitations, of course, come to our side of the bay, for many of our girls are very popular in the San Francisco social field. Among those who are often included in exclusive affairs across the bay are the Misses Grace and Laura Sanborn, Gertrude Allen, Viva Nicholson, Lucretia Burnham, Miss McNear and Miss Katherine Kutz. The latter's father is Rear-Admiral Kutz, and the family home was for many years at Mare Island. The Kutz and McCalla families are great friends, and Miss Kutz is often a guest at Mare Island.

Among the debutantes of the first Assembly will be the Misses Anita and Genevieve Harvey and Miss Constance De Young.

⁂ ⁂ ⁂

DE YOUNGS CLOSE MEADOWLANDS.

The De Youngs have closed Meadowlands, the beautiful San Rafael home in which they have been entertaining extensively this year. They always do things on such a large scale, that no doubt there will be much entertainment this winter, in the big home on California street.

The Intrepid was christened the other day by Miss Helen De Young, and at the conclusion of the ceremony, the De Youngs entertained a hundred guests, among them General and Mrs. Oscar F. Long.

Mrs. Requa will probably entertain at Highlands in honor of Miss Constance De Young, as the Requas and De Youngs have been fast friends for many years. Constance De Young has been beautifully educated, having spent some years in a Parisian convent.—and a French convent makes one of the finest finishing schools in the world.

⁂ ⁂ ⁂

CHANGE OF ENVIRONMENT.

In these days, when people travel about so much, when houses on both sides of the bay are rented furnished, news notes of people we know in San Francisco are interesting. Prominent people from the larger city come over here for a while, enjoying the change of environment, and our people go across the bay, staying at the Palace, or taking an apartment for a few weeks of the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Kittredge, who have been spending the entire summer at "Tres Encinas", their country home at Los Gatos, have come up to town for the winter. They are established at the Palace Hotel, and Mrs. Kittredge is to send out cards in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Baker have a charming little home in San Mateo, where they expect to spend most of their summers. They have closed it now and are in San Francisco for the winter. Mrs. Baker was formerly Miss Ethel Kittredge, and as the Kittredges have many friends over here, we may expect to see them often this winter.

⁂ ⁂ ⁂

LUNCH AT THE PALACE.

There have been many interesting luncheons across the bay this week, and some of them have been given in that picturesue "Palm Garden" of the Palace Hotel.

No where could there be a more attractive place for a luncheon,—and none of the big New York hotels, not even the famous "Sherry's" can boast anything that can at all compare to the famous "Palm Garden."

Mrs. Sydney Wood entertained there for Mrs. Corbin, at a farewell luncheon. Among the guests were Mrs. Herbert Moffitt and Mrs. Isaac Requa. The latter wore one of the most elaborate costumes of the afternoon,—the beautiful gown admirably set off by a bonnet in tones of dark red. The Requas and Longs were also on the dock, as the Corbins sailed away for Manila. The flowers for Mrs. Corbin were simply superb, among them great American Beauty roses, and immense basket of violets, the latter a gift from Highlands.

Mrs. William Irwin also entertained at the Palm Garden, for her sister, Mrs. Richard Ivers of Honolulu. Among the guests were Mrs. Will Taylor of this city, and Mrs. Dixwell Hewitt.

The Will Taylors are most enthusiastic automobilists, absolutely fearless—only everybody else needs to get out of the way, when the Taylor automobile comes tooting its horn, and taking in the whole road.

Mrs. Dixwell Hewitt was beautifully gowned at the luncheon. Mrs Hewitt who was formerly Kate Clement, is striking and dashing as ever. And one might expect her to be beautifully gowned. No one ever called her beautiful—not even pretty, but she always attracted general attention, as she walked down a ball room. She was usually the best gowned woman there, and she and her mother made every gown she wore,—tailor or party gown, —it never mattered—and they were all chic to the last degree.

MISS FIFE IS BACK.

Miss Beatrice Fife has returned from Southern California, and expects to entertain extensively this season, in her handsome home on California street. Miss Beatrice Fife is the very pretty and attractive niece of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Luning.

CHICKERINGS RENT HOME.

The Allen Chickerings have rented their pretty home across the bay, and will spend this winter with the W. H. Chickerings who have returned to town.

Mrs. Chickering was formerly Miss Sherman, one of the "Kappa Kappa Gamma" girls of the University, and she has many friends over here, who will be sure to plan for her a pleasant winter.

Miss Emily Chickering will also be home this winter. She has been away a great deal to an Eastern school and abroad

Miss Emily Chickering is the admiration of all her girl friends, she speaks German and French so beautifully. Indeed she speaks it well enough to teach it, and has taken charge of the German department in the Horton School, while the regular teacher, Fraulein von Rippert is away on leave. And the German department extends all the way from the kindergarten to the University.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Magee and their children have gone back to San Francisco for the winter. I think they will hardly care to spend any more summers at Alden Farm in the picturesque foothills,—for only the house remains, all the beautiful garden and orchard having been destroyed in the forest fire.

DRISCOLLS HAVE RETURNED.

Mrs. J. M Driscoll and Mr. Thomas Driscoll have returned from Santa Barbara, and Mrs Driscoll has again taken a furnished house in San Francisco, where the family proposes to spend the winter.

Miss Alice Bacon, the pretty fiancee of Tom Driscoll is in town, and is a guest of Commander and Mrs. Phelps on Vernon Heights. She is a great friend of Miss Eleanor Phelps.

One hears that Miss Alice Bacon is a very sweet girl, young and fascinating, and very pretty indeed, and Mrs. Driscoll is immensely pleased with her daughter-in-law elect, as well she may be. The wedding is to take place in January in the old Mission at Santa Barbara. The Bacons have a beautiful home in Montecito, the aristocratic suburb of Santa Barbara.

Miss Bacon has chosen her wedding attendants from the girls whom she has known all her life,—especially those with whom she used to play, in her childhood days at Mare Island.

Miss Cornelia Kempff will be the maid of honor, and two of the bridesmaids will be Miss Katherine Kutz and Miss Eleanor Phelps. The young people will go abroad for a wedding trip.

Miss Katherine Kutz will entertain for the pretty bride-elect, and so, of course, will Mrs. J. M Driscoll

MILLERS TO CLOSE HOME.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. G. Miller are planning to close their home on this side of the bay, and take up their residence in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Y. Campbell, formerly Miss Lizzie Watt, now spend their summers in San Mateo, and the winter months in San Francisco.

WHEELERS PLAN TO GO AWAY.

To every one's regret Doctor and Mrs. P. L. Wheeler are planning to make their permanent home in San Francisco. They are closing the residence on Madison street, and Mrs. Wheeler will leave in the near future for Mexico, where she will spend the early weeks of the winter. On her return, the Wheelers will establish their home across the bay.

VISITING MR. AND MRS. BAKER.

Doctor and Mrs. J. M. Grissim are visiting Mr. and Mrs. George W. Baker. Mrs. Grissim was formerly Miss Irene Baker, one of the leading members of the once popular "Fortnightlies." The Grissims live in San Jose, and they very seldom come to Oakland,

MRS. WIGGINTON CREED, NEE HOOPER, WHOSE WEDDING THIS AFTERNOON WAS AN ELABORATE AFFAIR.

as Mrs. Grissim is very devoted to her two little girls.

Mr. Ray Baker has left Paris for Italy, and after visiting the leading Italian cities, he will sail for New York, arriving home some time in November.

HAVE GONE TO SALT LAKE.

Mrs. Moylan Fox and Miss Jessie Fox leave this week for a visit to Salt Lake City. The family has been occupying the Belden house on Oak street, of which they have a lease until next spring After that, if they decide to remain in Oakland, they will build their own home.

DE GOLIAS IN ST. LOUIS.

Mr. and Mrs. George De Golia spent a few days at St. Louis, and they have now gone on to Washington, D. C.

Mr. De Golia went East on a business trip and does not expect to remain away very long. The De Golias will go to New York before returning to the coast.

VALENTINES IN GERMANTOWN.

Mrs. John Valentine and her children are comfortably established at Germantown, where they have taken a furnished house for the winter, and the children have commenced their year's work in two of the leading Eastern schools.

Miss Ethel Valentine will go East in about a month to spend the winter with the family. Mrs. Valentine intends to return to California, and the permanent family home will probably be in Oakland, among the old time friends.

MISS MATHES ENTERTAINS.

Miss Mollie Mathes entertained on Friday at a very informal little tea, in honor of Mrs. W. J. Belcher of Downieville, who is visiting here. Mrs. Belcher was formerly Miss Emma Smith of this city.

Miss Mathes and Miss Gertrude Voorhies were guests of Mrs. Belcher on her home at Downieville last summer and much enjoyed their visit in the mountains.

The tea was very informal indeed, only about thirty guests being invited, for the most part friends of Mrs. Belcher, the guest of honor.

Miss Mathes was assisted in entertaining at the informal tea by Miss Emily Chickering and Miss Elsie Everson.

MOFFITTS STILL IN THE EAST.

Mr. and Mrs. James Moffitt and Mr. James K. Moffitt are still in the East, where they are still the guests of Mrs. George Doubleday.

Mr. and Mrs Lynch and their children have been spending the summer in a beautiful country home in Ridgefield, Connecticut.

OAKLAND PEOPLE ACROSS BAY.

Among the San Francisco homes in which one often meets Oakland guests are the Holt and Houghton homes.

Mrs. Houghton and Miss Minnie Houghton spent the entire summer at the Vendome in San Jose, and returned last week to their home across the bay. Mrs. Houghton is very fond of her pretty granddaughter, Miss Ruth Houghton.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Holt have a handsome home on Pacific avenue, and have decided to remain across the bay. Their Madison-street home is for sale. Miss Grace Holt is a great traveller. She has been all over Europe, and is abroad again with friends, who have been spending the summer in Switzerland.

BELLS LEAVE ROSS VALLEY.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eells have closed their home in Ross Valley and returned to San Francisco. Many complimentary affairs are planned for Miss Gertrude Eells, whose engagement to Lieut. Babcock was recently announced. Some of the events in honor of the engagement will take place at Berkeley, as Mrs Eells is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Shepard, and her niece, Mrs. Louis Ralston was formerly Miss Mary Craven.

DEVOTED TO SAN FRANCISCO.

The Seward McNears are devoted to San Francisco, and have never cared to return to Oakland to live. They have a charming little home in Ross Valley, and a very pretty home across the bay.

Mr. and Mrs. George McNear, Jr., have been obliged to give up their handsome apartments at The Empire owing to the health of the children. They are coming over here this winter and in December will take the David Edwards house at Piedmont. It is a very picturesque house, adjoining Alta Vista.

Mr. and Mrs. David Edwards are spending some weeks with Mrs. Edwards' aunt, Mrs. Wetherbee, of Fruitvale.

LIEUT. KEMPFF CHANGED.

Lieut. Clarence Kempff has been detached from the New York and assigned to duty on the Ohio. He is spending a few days at the St. Francis, in San Francisco, before reporting for duty.

Admiral Kempff and Cornelia Kempff have given up their Berkeley residence, and have gone to Texas, where Admiral Kempff is attending to business interests. They will return to the coast for the holidays.

MISS KNOX SAILS AWAY.

Among the passengers sailing for the Orient last week was Miss Margaret Knox, the youngest daughter of Dr. Myra Knox. Miss Knox went to the Orient with friends, and expects to spend the winter there. The party of friends go directly to Nagasaki and later to Shanghai.

MISS HAMPTON AS A HOSTESS.

Miss Sallie Hampton was the hostess at a delightfully informal tea, given at the Dyer home on Jackson street. The tea was given in honor of Mrs. Frank Adams, who has recently come to Oakland, from Southern California. The tea was for the most part a neighborhood affair, only about thirty guests being invited for the afternoon. The veranda was beautifully appointed, with easy chairs, and as the day was beautiful, the guests lingered there late in the afternoon.

Miss Hampton was assisted in receiving by Mrs. George Wheaton, Mrs. Walkley, Mrs. Edson Adams, Mrs. Allan Babcock, Mrs. Everts.

In the dining room the guests were served by some young girls of the neighborhood, the Misses Ruth and Rose Kales, Else Schilling, Anita Thomson, Ruth Houghton, Katherine Brown. It was a delightfully informal affair, since the guests were for the most part from the neighborhood, and knew each other very well.

SCHILLING TEA A LARGE AFFAIR.

The first large "at home" of the season was given at the Schilling residence, on Thursday afternoon, when Mrs. Schilling entertained a large number of friends at one of the most elaborate affairs given here in many months.

The Schilling home is beautiful, and the grounds so splendidly planned, that they are among the most picturesque in the city. Not a single detail was omitted that could add to the enjoyment of the afternoon, and the guests lingered till the shades of night warned them that the day was done.

The house was a superb study in decoration—it is so large that it simply absorbed decorations galore, without taking away from the home atmosphere of the big mansion.

Everywhere were splendid carnations, many of them expressing the happy thought of friends. Violets were daintily arranged, and their fragrance was very evident throughout the spacious rooms. Some of the violets were arranged in the most picturesque fashion in rustic baskets, making very artistic studies in decoration.

The dining room looks out upon the lake, and its big windows have the effect of superb pictures,—one sees through them the beautiful lake and hills, and nearer the Schilling grounds, with the big palms, apparently painted on the windows. The big fountain played just outside the windows, and the whole effect was unique and picturesque to a degree.

In the dining room a large table bountifully laden, was spread almost the entire length of the dining room. It carried high decorations of the most superb chrysanthemums, and candelabra in beautiful pink effects.

Mrs. Schilling could not have had a more beautiful day for her reception. The house and grounds were at their best and the whole Lakeside neighborhood accepted Mrs. Schilling's invitation and was much in evidence. There were guests from all over the city, and many from across the bay, and the late hours of the afternoon showed in the Schilling drawing room a scene wonderfully bright and gay.

After greeting the hostess, the guests were served in the most hospitable way in the large dining room, and it was wonderful how deftly all the guests were served considering the great crowd of callers. There was music to add to the gay scene, and later the guests wandered out upon the porch overlooking the lake. The porch was arranged in a most effective way, and was beautifully picturesque Here punch and lemonade were served.

MISS JESSIE BARSTOW, WHOSE ENGAGEMENT TO J. A. HUNTER WAS ANNOUNCED THIS WEEK.

MRS. NORINE CRAWFORD WHO HAS BEEN ENTERTAINING AT HER HOME IN ALAMEDA.

Down in the fascinating Japanese tea house, a Hawaiian band played sweet music during the hours of the reception, adding to the pleasure of the guests as they strolled through the many picturesque paths in the beautiful grounds.

The boat house, which is beautifully appointed, had also its share of guests, and the entire scene was unique and fascinating to a great degree.

Mrs. Schilling received her guests in the large drawing room, and she looked exceedingly well in a gorgeous gown of white brocaded effects, beautifully trimmed in lace.

Nearly every member of the receiving party wore a very elaborate reception gown, in fact very handsome gowns were much the order of the hour.

Mrs. George Wheaton is one of the very few women who can wear violet, and she looked like a violet queen, very beautiful indeed. Her gown was in tones of violet, and she wore violets in her hair, and on the corsage there was a large heart of violets, the whole costume original, elaborate, and exceedingly becoming.

Mrs. Edson Adams wore a gown elaborately planned. It showed pink panne effects, the corsage beautifully trimmed in lace. The gown carried superb roses, and Mrs. Adams wore roses in her hair.

Mrs. Harry East Miller wore a gown of cream taffeta, made with a very long train. The skirt showed shirred effects, and the gown was lighted with American beauty roses.

Mrs. J. R. Burnham's gown showed a beautiful creation in lavender tones. The corsage was trimmed in lace, and Mrs. Burnham's ornaments were diamonds.

Mrs. Thomas Crellin wore an elaborate gown in cream white tones, beautifully trimmed in lace.

Mrs. Thomas Coghill was among the receiving party, and she looked extremely well, in a very dainty gown of white lace, the gown made most elaborate by the beautiful pearls which were Mrs. Coghill's ornaments.

Mrs. Minor Goodall is always easily one of the most beautiful matrons in any drawing room She wore a beautiful gown in tones of blue.

Mrs. Charles Houghton wore a handsome gown in tones of brown, the gown carrying a trimming of exquisitely fine lace.

Mrs. Edwin Goodall wore a costume in white effects with diamond ornaments.

Mrs. Charles Minor Cooper, formerly Miss Ella Goodall, came over from San Francisco for the reception. She looked exceedingly well in one of her elaborate trousseau gowns of white.

Mrs. O. P. Downing came from San Francisco to assist in receiving at the reception. She wore a gown of gray trimmed in red, a gown bright from abroad.

Mrs. Edgar Bishop looked exceedingly well in a gown of dark tones, trimmed in lace.

Mrs. George Greenwood was daintily gowned in blue.

The young girls of the receiving party remained in the dining room for the most part, assisting in serving the large number of guests Miss Else Schilling was daintily gowned in blue, and Miss May Coogan wore a gown of white chiffon, very daintily made.

Miss Cordie Bishop was a very pretty study in white, and Miss Ruth Kales who is a very pretty, fascinating girl, was in pink.

Miss Rose Kales looks exceedingly well in yellow, and her gown was simple, dainty and very becoming.

Miss Sevilla Hayden was in white, and Miss Lucretia Burnham wore a very interesting gown, in French effects—it was in tones of white, the girdle and corsage showing Dresden trimming.

Miss Virginia Harmon was in white, and Miss Vera Havemeyer was one of the very pretty girls of the receiving party.

The gowns of the guests were the most elaborate seen at any social function this year—they were for the most part, elaborate reception gowns.

Mrs. Philip Clay, who came from across the bay, wore a trousseau gown of black and white, the gown set off with a wide picture hat.

Mrs. E. H. Kittredge and her daughter, Mrs. Edmund Baker, were among the guests who came from San Francisco, and, as usual, both were very beautifully gowned. Mrs. John Russ and Mrs. E H. Herrick also came from across the bay.

Mrs. Russ wore a calling gown beautifully trimmed in white ermine, and Mrs. Herrick's gown showed a fine effect in black lace.

Miss Nellie Chabot wore a very handsome imported gown in flounced silk, the corsage showing a deep berthe of very rare lace.

Mrs. E. R. Folger was in white, and Miss Violet Whitney wore a pretty reception gown in tones of brown.

Miss Viva Nicholson looked very tall and stately, and very pretty, too, in a handsome reception gown, set off with a most becoming hat in dark tones.

Mrs. John F. Conners wore a gown in cream white effects, the corsage showing dainty hand embroidery in pink tones. With the gown was worn a picture hat in white velvet and touches of real lace.

Mrs. John Yule wore a very handsome gown, in dark effects, and the gown was set off with a very becoming bonnet.

All the young girls fortunate enough to be invited, went to the tea, quite irrespective of whether they were old enough to be in society or not.

An interesting group of young girls was made up of Miss Cornelia Stratton Miss Noelle De Golia, Miss Clarisse Lohse, and Miss Marion Walsh.

Another very striking quartet of girls, beautiful enough to be noticed anywhere, and fully able to hold their own anywhere, was made up of Katherine Brown, Ruth Houghton, Anita Thomson, and Marguerite Butters.

Katherine Brown was gowned in gray, Ruth Houghton wore a handsome gown in striped silk, the corsage set off with a perfectly gorgeous deep collar of lace. Anita Thomson was all in white, the gown set off with a charming old fashioned locket, and a white hat. Miss Marguerite Butters wore a gown of gray crepe de chine, with wide sleeves, and she wore in her hair a daintily arranged wreath of roses.

Mrs. Dan Belden was perfectly beautiful. She, also, was all in white, and she wore an elaborate white hat, very beautifully trimmed in ostrich plumes.

Mrs. W. F. Sharon and Mrs. Mygatt were among the guests from Piedmont and from Vernon Heights were the Misses Carolyn and Anita Oliver, both beautifully gowned.

But one might go on indefinitely and not exhaust the list of very artistic gowns, for almost every one looked specially well.

Among the notable guests of the afternoon were Mrs. T. C. Coogan, Mrs. William Chickering, Mrs. A. A. Moore, Mrs. Moylan Fox, Miss Jessie Fox, Mrs. Florence Henshaw, Mrs. E. M. Hall, Jr., Mrs T. L. Barker, Mrs. William Clift, Miss Jean Clift, Mrs. Wallace Everson, Miss Marion Everson, Mrs. Arthur Goodhue, Miss Elsie Everson, Mrs Lee Cole Burnham, Mrs. Mauvais, Mrs. Frederick Morse, Mrs. Frank Watson, Mrs. G. B. Cook, Miss Nicols of Stockton, Mrs. Allender, Mrs. Brayton, Mrs. Bakewell, Mrs. Gaskill, Mrs. Harry Carlton, Miss Mona Crellin, Miss Ethel Crellin, Mrs. Samuel Taylor, Mrs. Frank B. Ogden, Mrs. Harrold, Mrs. George Davis, Mrs. Irving Hurrell, Miss Ada Kenna, Mrs. Frank L. Brown, Mrs. J. A. Folger, Mrs. Emma Shafter Howard, Miss Evelyn Craig, Miss Jessie Craig, Mrs. D. H. Mathes, Miss Mollie Mathes, Mrs. Ehrenberg, Miss Agnes Ehrenberg, Mrs. E. J. Boyes, Mrs. Ernest Boyes, Miss Edith Beck, Miss Johanna Volkmann, Miss Florence Hush, Mrs. Will Magee, Miss Katherine Kutz, Miss Lillie Reed, Miss Bonnie and Miss Edith Downing, Miss Sevilla Hayden, Miss Mary Hyde, Miss Van Dyke, Miss Irene Bangs, Miss Jackson, Miss Sallie Hampton, Mrs. Allen Babcock, Miss Elsie Fry, Mrs Arthur Crellin, Miss Mabelle Rutherford, Miss Isabelle Kendell, Miss Harry Knowles, Mrs. Allender.

It was a reception planned on an interesting and elaborate scale, and and was thoroughly successful in every way.

HOOPER WEDDING IN ALAMEDA.

Miss Isabel Hooper, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hooper, of Alameda, and Wigginton Creed, the son of Mrs. William H. Creed, were married at three o'clock this afternoon. Over 200 guests attended the wedding, which proved to be the elaborate event of the month.

The beautiful Hooper home on Hawthorne street, was the scene of the brilliant affair, and the decorations in the spacious rooms and hallway showed unique effects in autumn foliage intertwined with shaggy yellow chrysanthemums The yellow tone prevailing throughout the decorations and the glossy brown of the autumn leaves were prettily suggestive of the autumn season.

A bridal bower of white chrysanthemums in the drawing room made an effective background for the bridal party, and under the canopy of white flowers the impressive marriage service was read by the Rev. Charles Walkeley, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

The bride is a graceful brunette, and her gown of shimmering white satin, with its lengthy train emphasized her grace and dignity. The gown was made with a transparent yoke and deep berthe elaborated with rare duchess lace A tulle veil was caught in her dark hair and the bouquet she carried was of white roses.

Miss Pussy Creed, the little sister of the groom, was a dainty little bridesmaid in her elaborate frock of yellow crepe de chine, and the matron of honor, Mrs. Sumner Crosby, wore a handsome gown in the same rich tone of yellow. Both attendants carried yellow chrysanthemums.

Clarence Creed attended his brother as best man and the ushers all college friends of the groom, included Duncan McDuffie, William Creed, Arthur Tasheira and Victor Henderson.

Among the handsomely gowned women, Mrs. C. A. Hooper, mother of the bride, was conspicuous in a white lace gown, and Mrs William Creed was also elaborately gowned.

The bride's table was a dainty study in yellow, chrysanthemums again lending their brilliant color to the decoration About the table were seated Mr and Mrs. Wigginton Creed Mr. and Mrs Sumner Crosby Mrs. Jeanette Hooper, Miss Evelyn Norwood, Miss Marion Goodfellow, Miss Grace McCormick, Miss Hilda Van Sicklen, Albert Hooper, Duncan McDuffie, William Creed, Arthur Tasheira and Victor Henderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Creed will enjoy an extended honeymoon, and on their return will make their permanent home here.

DAN BELDEN GAVE A DINNER.

Dan Belden was the host the other evening at a jolly little dinner in honor of Wigginton Creed. The other guests were Harry Farr, Walter Starr, William Cooke, Roland Oliver, and Doctor Gaskill. The guests included many people from Oakland, Alameda and San Francisco, and the wedding is one of the large social affairs for this week.

WEDDING OF MISS DONALDSON.

The wedding of George Chase and Miss Mabel Donaldson was also one of the interesting events of the week. The Chases have lived on this side of the bay for so many years that they are one of our very prominent and best known families.

Miss Mabel Donaldson is also known over here, having spent some time at the University of California.

One hears that the wedding procession was very picturesque, and that Helen Chase made a charming little maid of honor. She was gowned in white, and carried an armful of gorgeous big pink tiger lilies. And Miss Helen Chase also drew the ring in the cake," always regarded as "a sure sign."

Mr. and Mrs. George Chase have gone East and when they return they will make their home in the picturesque new residence at Piedmont, recently built by Mr. Chase.

INFORMAL DINNER AT BUTTERS HOME.

One of the informal dinners of the week was given by Miss Marguerite Butters in honor of Miss Alice Bacon. Miss Butters spent all last summer at Santa Barbara, where she was a great friend of Miss Alice Bacon.

The dinner was, of course, for friends of Miss Bacon, and among the guests at the table were Miss Alice Bacon, Miss Nichols of Stockton, who is visiting Miss Butters, Miss Wolf, of San Francisco, Miss Fore, Miss Katherine Kutz, Miss Eleanor Phelps, Thomas Driscoll, Mr. Havens and Harold Havens.

⁂ ⁂ ⁂

FABIOLA LADIES TO MEET.

One of the interesting meetings of the year is set for Friday of this week, when the ladies of Fabiola will consider the building plans for the new Nurses' Home. The demand for the trained nurse becomes greater day by day, and Fabiola has never been able to supply the demand for its nurses.

The ladies of the Association have practically decided upon the new building, and the meeting is called to consider the important question of "ways and means."

The plans were drawn by that talented architect, Miss Julia Morgan. The new building calls for the expenditure of twelve thousand dollars, and will represent one of the finest nurses' homes on the coast.

Mrs. Requa is at the head of the building committee, spending some hours each day at the hospital.

The ladies of Fabiola are doing right in planning a home, that may truly offer a rest to its nurses, tired out with the hardest work in the world. The directors of the association will probably plan a large social affair of some kind, in which case we will all go, and make it a success, and help them to pay for the home.

⁂ ⁂ ⁂

SOCIAL DATES FOR NEXT WEEK.

The important social dates for next week will be the reception on Tuesday at the Ebell Club, and the Fore-Hewlett wedding, set for nine o'clock on Thursday evening. For the latter great preparations are being made, and a large and representative gathering will be in evidence at St. Paul's Church. Only intimate friends have been invited to the Fore home after the ceremony.

On Saturday, Mrs. Mills has planned the unique performance of "As You Like It," but about that, you cannot make plans until the very day.

Somehow an out of door performance always seems to arouse the wrath of the clerk of the weather, and he promptly proceeds to take it out on us, in great style. It is enough to make you weep when you think of all the winter hats that have been destroyed up to date.

However, perhaps the sun may be shining for Ben Greet and his company, and then truly "As You Like It" will never have been played in a more ideal spot.

⁂ ⁂ ⁂

MAPLE CLUB LIST.

The Maple Club is among the first of the dancing clubs to complete its plans for the winter assemblies. The invitations carry the following dates: October 28, November 26, December 30, January 27, February 24, and April 21.

CARDS FOR THE CRAIG WEDDING.

Cards will be sent out in a few days for the wedding of Mr. Patianni and Miss Evelyn Craig. It is to be a home wedding, and the guest list will include only the most intimate friends of the bride and groom.

Mr. Patianni has taken a house, and the bride-elect is very busy these days choosing furniture, and planning the many details of a thoroughly artistic home.

RUMORS OF ENGAGEMENTS.

The usual rumors of autumn engagements are in the air, and some of them have a very persistent way of hovering around the Lakeside district. However an engagement belongs to a family till it chooses to announce it, and meanwhile it behooves the many friends to be deaf, dumb and blind.

MONTHS IN JAIL WITHOUT A TRIAL

NEW YORK, October 15.—Frank S. Hobbs, a mining engineer of Boise, Idaho, who was committed to Ludlow street jail on a civil order of arrest ten months ago, and who has remained there since without a hearing has been brought before Justice Dickey in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, on a writ of habeas corpus. The plaintiff in the writ is Edward B. Tuston, president of the First National Bank of Bloomsburg, Pa. Hobbs was arrested on the affidavit of Tuston that Hobbs had obtained $7,500 from him by fraud to invest in a mining scheme; and the further affidavit of Charles W. Ray, a promoter, that he believed Hobbs intended to leave the State. The suit was to recover the $7,500.

Witnesses stated that Hobbs had received no part of the $7,500, but that it was paid over to the treasurer of a company organized to exploit the property, a mining claim located by Hobbs in Idaho.

A disagreement arising later as to the value of the mine resulted in the imprisonment of Hobbs. Sheriff Erlanger heard of the prisoner's predicament, Hobbs' funds having been tied up in bank by a writ of attachment when he was arrested and secured counsel for him.

Taking of testimony has not been concluded and the Sheriff was directed to produce Hobbs in court again next Monday.

Corset covers made of a piece of wide edging (the embroidered edge serving as a top), held over the shoulders by ribbon straps and bows, and gathered into the figure by a ribbon run through its open-work, are very simple to make, besides being popular.

So Deceptive

Many Oakland People Fail to Realize the Seriousness.

Backache is so deceptive.
It comes and goes—keeps you guessing.
Learn the cause—then cure it.
Nine times out of ten it comes from the kidneys.
That's why Doan's Kidney Pills cure it.
Cure every kidney ill, from backache to diabetes.

Here's an Oakland case to prove it:

T. H. Wallace of 115 Eleventh avenue, bricklayer, says: "It was so long since I had my first attack of backache that I have forgotten the year it occurred. I was always sure to have a spell when I contracted a cold from exposure to inclement weather or after an extra hard day's work. I had an attack when I noticed Doan's Kidney Pills advertised in the local paper, and I went for a box. In a few days the backache disappeared. I will not have the slightest hesitation in recommending Doan's Kidney Pills to any of my friends and acquaintances whom I hear complaining of backache which arises from the kidneys not performing their work properly."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

How I Grew Tall

A STARTLING STORY WHICH WILL INTEREST ALL WHO ARE SHORT.

The Height of Either Sex Can Quickly Be Increased From Two to Five Inches Those Marvelous Results Can Be Accomplished at Home Without the Knowledge of Your Most Intimate Friends

THE FREE BOOK TELLS YOU ALL ABOUT IT.

MR. K. I. O. MINGES

Interesting statements and physicians have been trying to find some method which might do away with the defects of nature. Professor Kennedy has now succeeded in perfecting a method which will increase the height of either sex from two to five inches in a few weeks' time. Mr. Minges, who lives at 1604 Masonic avenue, San Francisco, writes: "I am pleased to say that I have gained three inches in height by your system, and I feel like a new man. I have recommended it to a number of friends, and all speak highly of it." Professor Kennedy has very kindly consented to send a valuable book containing a full description of his method, together with numerous testimonials and photographs of those who have used it, free, sealed, to any reader of this paper who writes him. Those who are short should not miss this opportunity to become tall. Professor Kennedy's address is 1133 Broadway, New York City.

PRESENT GREEK PLAY ON CLASSIC STAGE

Sophocles "Ajax" is Given by Students at the University of California.

BERKELEY October 15—Despite the uncertainty of the weather and the postponment made necessary by the serious illness of Miss Mabel Hay Barrows who was to have taken the leading part in the play quite a large crowd of people made their way to the Greek Theatre this morning to witness the presentation of the Ajax of Sophocles. The play was given in the original Greek the entire performance being in the open sky setting, the audience occupying its seats on the rising terraces of the Athenian Republic of four hundred years before Christ when Sophocles held the stage.

GRECIAN DANCE BY CHILDREN

Although the text used was given in the original Greek the entire setting served to envelop itself and numerous pleasing features took place during the operations under the direction of Miss Barrows. The beauty of the costumes and the dancing of the children and the possession of the Greek audience before the play began was an interesting part of the production. Altogether the whole stage of the play was quite unlike the usual production given by the first production of Ajax ever given in an American university or college.

IMITATE GREEK AUDIENCE

The performance began at 10 o'clock with the procession of the Greek audience coming to the play. They passed through the orchestra making offerings at the altar bands of maidens girls of boys women and men in addition singing garlanded and carried garlands of flowers. A chorus of maidens sang the Hymn to Apollo the oldest piece of Greek music extant. At the conclusion of the rites the audience took their seats on rugs and cushions in front of the stage and below the seats of the spectators.

STORY OF THE PLAY

At 10 70 the play began. The story of the tragedy is the story of the self destruction of Ajax and his scorn for the gods who punish him by madness during which he commits acts unworthy of himself. When he recovers his sanity he is overwhelmed with shame that he resolves to kill himself. His conduct was considered so dreadful in the eyes of the Greeks that they are unwilling to give his body decent burial till Odysseus intercedes in behalf of the dead hero and persuades Agamemnon to allow the sacrifices to take place.

Tecmessa wife of Ajax is the heroine of the play. Her efforts to prevent the suicide of her hero and her grief on finding his dead body give a splendid opportunity for dramatic acting. The difficult part was well taken by Gus Keane a senior student who was called upon at the last moment to enter the costume of Miss Barrow who was originally cast for the part. It was the custom of the ancient Greeks to have all parts taken by male actors so Mr Keane's assumption of the role of Tecmessa was quite in keeping with the historic atmosphere that surrounded the production.

DRAMATIS PERSONAE

The part of Ajax was taken by Henry Young. The other members of the cast were: Miss Gladys Wickson Athena, Monroe Deutch Odysseus, Aileen Jeffries Eurysaces (son of Ajax), Warren Lowe Agamemnon, William Ivamy Menelaus, and Maynard McPhee Messenger.

The members of the chorus representing the friends of Ajax warriors mariners from Salamis were: A. M. Cleborn, T. F. Ambrose, S. A. Buchanan, C. B. Cox, J. L. Dobbins, H. H. Kelsey, I. H. Duke, W. N. Gabriel, V. V. Nock, F. V. Boutt, N. E. Wilcox and P. M. Wilson. Besides these there were numerous retinue of heralds and messengers.

Although she was unable to take part herself much credit for the success of the performance is due to Miss Barrows who spent six weeks arranging for the production and conducting rehearsals. James Turner Allen of the Greek Department acted as chairman of the Committee of Arrangements and James K. Fisk was the stage manager. The music for the play was written by Willis Peck Kent.

FAIR READY TO BE OPENED THIS EVENING

Father Yorke Will Make the Address of Welcome—Jimmy Britt Will Box.

Workmen are rapidly completing the decorations for the fair to open in St. Arthonys Parish Hall tonight. The Rev. Father Yorke is directing the work and everything will have been completed for the official opening tonight. The booths are in the form of arcades and will be prettily decorated in green. Hundreds of electric lights will be strung in the hall and no doubt the scene will be one of beauty. The electric wiring is being done free of charge by Prager of San Francisco and the power will be furnished free by the Oakland Gas Light and Heat Company.

With an address delivered by the Rev. Father Yorke of St. Arthonys parish the fair will be formally opened at 8 o'clock tonight in the Parish Hall. Following Father Yorkes address there will will be a musical and literary entertainment that promises to be an excellent one.

Following is a portion of the calendar for the fair week.

Monday—Visit of Gaelic Dancers of San Francisco and Pipers of San Francisco. The members of the Y. M. I. of Alameda county will also be present.

Tuesday—Visit by Mayor Schmitz of San Francisco. The Mayor will also make an address. M. W. Simpson of Alameda candidate for Senator will also visit the fair this night.

Wednesday—This promises to be one of the best nights of the fair. The entertainment will be provided by the Olympic Club of San Francisco and one of the features of the evening will be the exhibition by Jimmy Britt the lightweight champion.

On different nights the various booths will have an "at home" as follows:

Monday—Carnation booth, Mrs. Fitzgibbon and Mrs. Fitzgibbon.

Tuesday—Violet booth, Mrs. Koelpin.

Wednesday—Fern booth, Mrs. Rosenbaugh.

The remainder of the calendar is not yet completed.

Dinners of the parish will conduct a restaurant in connection with the fair at Eighth and Broadway. Commencing Monday meals will be served for 25 cents between the hours of 11 o'clock and 2 o'clock.

WHAT THE S. F. WEEKLY PAPERS SAY.

Comment on President Wheeler—Guests at Bard's Dinner—Political News.

Benjamin Ide Wheeler is in the lime light again. It is to be presumed, therefore, that B. I. is satisfied. This time he has not been assisting in running both the great political parties, nor in giving advice to students. His present trouble is that he has overlooked the students. The seniors are therefore muttering in their sprouting beards and saying things about bunches of red tape that decorate the wheels at Berkeley. The "Daily Californian" prints a sarcastic editorial in which the editor, William T. Hale, a senior, refers at some length to the scientific side-stepping practiced by the faculty from the Prex. down to the janitor. It all arose from the request of the seniors for the use of Hearst Hall for their annual assembly. Permission was not obtained; the assembly was postponed, and now all the seniors are saying things about Mr. Wheeler. The little affair has greatly increased the friendly regard of the students for the head of the University.—News Letter.

Some light-fingered persons have been separating the students at Stanford from their belongings, and Dr. Jordan has again warned the student body that there is no room at the University for thieves and kleptomaniacs. The fact that this warning has been given the students for the second time, leads to the opinion that there is a suspicion that one or more of them have been enacting the part of Raffles. The leaders of the boys should do a little Sherlock Holmes work, and weed out the enterprising persons with the dexterous fingers.—News Letter.

STRAIT JACKETS AT SAN QUENTIN.

The criticism of the administration of San Quentin prison has been productive of some good results. It has directed public attention to the barbarous methods employed by Warden Tompkins, and it has called forth a vigorous protest from the State Board of Charities and Corrections against the further unlimited use of the strait jacket. In its first biennial report, just filed with the Governor, the State Board recommends that a law be passed at the forthcoming session of the Legislature, providing "that no prisoner be so confined in the strait jacket as to prevent his meeting the demands of nature, nor be confined in any case for a longer period than four hours consecutively without an opportunity to rest for at least two hours." This suggestion is made in the interests of common humanity and should be carried out.

We believe in punishing criminals but we do not believe in driving men mad, nor torturing them to death simply because the Warden who may have temporary charge of them, has not control them, nor sufficient acumen to foresee and prevent infractions of the rules. Mr. Tompkins may say in his own defense that Adam Stroh appeared before the Prison Directors and stated that he felt no ill effects from his extraordinary punishment. If his statement were true, he must be, physically, a remarkable man, but the probabilities are that Stroh lied so as to save himself from future punishment.—News Letter.

THE RETORT COURTEOUS.

Henry Weinstock of Sacramento and E. W. Maslin of Alameda have been friends from the time that they both studied from the same alphabet book and made mud pies in Sacramento. Several nights ago they met in Alameda, where Mr. Weinstock spoke before the Unitarian Club on "The Negro Question." Before the lecture began Mr. Maslin approached his boyhood friend and said, in a low tone:

"What on earth possesses you to talk on the negro question? You do not know a blessed thing about it."

"I am doing the same thing you always do," retorted the speaker of the evening, "if you knew anything of the topics you choose for public discussion, you would never open your mouth."—Town Talk.

THE HIT OF THE FUNCTION.

The "Fete of Champetre" which was held in the seclusion of the Ebell Club of Oakland, Saturday afternoon, was a unique affair. The Chancellor Chapter of St. Paul's Episcopal church gave the garden party and it was arranged that it be held in the grounds of Mrs. Emma Shafter Howard two weeks ago. But the rain descended and the winds blew and the fete was postponed. Then it was that one of the exclusive belles "had a hunch" that it would rain on October the eighth. The affair was a big success, financially and socially. The piece de resistance was a "Parisian Novelty" which was jealously guarded by Miss Lilian Isaacs and Marjory English, and which when displayed to the gaze of the one who paid ten cents was shown to be a life-sized French swimmer. How she did kick and dive, and what dainty abbreviations she wore in the way of a bathing suit. But the dimes rained into the till and that was the end and aim of the Paris mademoiselle in the striped things.—Town Talk.

A CITY'S PITIABLE PLIGHT.

The political situation in which the city now finds itself is novel. Formerly when fraudulent registration was practiced there was a sufficient division of political power to insure some investigation. The Election Commission was made up of city officials, belonging to different parties. The Registrar, who was appointed by the Governor, might not have belonged to the same party as the majority of the Election Commission, or, if he did, might have been allied with a faction opposed to the Commissioners. The different political organizations were anxious to see that their antagonists did not go to the polls with an unfair advantage. The change which has been effected now puts this city in a ridiculous position. The whole election machinery is at present under the control of one boss. The civic bodies and the well-meaning citizens who promoted the adoption of the new charter many now reflect on the chief objection which was raised to that instrument—that it would make one man the autocrat of the municipality. —Town Talk.

GUESTS AT BARD'S DINNER.

Senator Bard came to town last week in time to receive an invitation to the launching of the Intrepid. That was strictly a De Young function, and a wise candidate for United States Senator would have been Johnny-on-the spot. But Bard, I am told, ignored the invitation. Of course his failure to lend grace and dignity to the occasion was not a premeditated discourtesy. He simply failed to appreciate the importance of cultivating the friendship of the Chronicle's proprietor and made noeffort to attend. He was on hand, however, at a dinner given in his honor at the Pacific Union Club. There were present on that occasion Justice McFarland of the Supreme Court, Tom Bishop, the friend of the judiciary, and Collector Stratton. The presence of Mr. Stratton was significant. Senator Bard has broken into Contra Costa county, having received assurance of Senator Belshaw's support, and now he is trying to break into Alameda county. Mr. Stratton is very friendly with Senator Perkins, but the latter has agreed to keep "hands off."—Town Talk.

STAGGERED THE POLITICIANS.

The politicians of the State are aghast over the appointment of Clyde Seavey to the position of Secretary of the Board of Examiners. That was one of the juiciest plums in the gift of the Executive, and yet Governor Pardee presentid it to a young clerk who is not acquainted with more than half a dozen politicians in the State. He is no doubt a competent young man, equipped by experience for the duties, but big political jobs are not distributed to obscure clerks, no matter what their qualifications. And yet Pardee is said to be building up a political machine.—Town Talk.

EAGER TO MAKE THEIR DEBUT.

Oakland girls of upper-tendom are wild to make their debut. They complain bitterly that they are not given the privileges of their sisters who are only a year or two their seniors. Mothers, on the contrary, are not at all anxious that their "little girl" should enter society ranks at a tender age. They are graduated at a finishing school in New York perhaps as young as at eighteen, and, not caring for a university education, there is really nothing in particular for the young women to do. If they were to spend two, or even three, years in learning household duties, not from lectures by a teacher of domestic science, but from the practice to be had in almost any home, they would stand a much better chance in the matrimonial market when they did "debut;" but that is too derogatory, and so the same helpless, big-eyed divinities will make their bow show each year, and each year the men that are worth while will grow a little more weary.—The Wasp.

SCARED BY THE PROFESSOR.

One woman who had intended to take the course of lectures by Henry Morse Stephens, who holds the chair of History at the University of California, has been completely discouraged by the lecturer's leading remarks. Professor Stephens is to give a course of lectures in Oakland, in the regular University Extension series, the subject of this particular course being the French Revolution. Well, the great man gave his opening talk, in which he explained what he meant to do and say. He spoke of Carlysle as a romanticist, and listed Voltaire in the same catalogue. "Why," said he, "when Robespierre was mentioned as 'that pea-green Robespierre,' or that 'sea-green Robespierre,' it was simply a figure of speech, implying that he was melancholy and the warm red blood was not flowing in a healthy tumult through his veins. It was as if I should hold up my hand," withdrawing a very vigorous-looking fist from the pocket of his professional gray trousers, and, after a meditative look, thrusting it back again to its haven of comfort, "and find that the veins were green under the melancholy flesh."—The Wasp.

ADVANCEMENT IN ALAMEDA.

The Alameda Advancement Association and the West End Improvement Club of Alameda are engaged in "boosting" the salaries of teachers. They say that Alameda is a city of homes, and should show its progress by doing the square thing by those who teach the young idea how to grow up and take everything in its way. At the recent meeting of the Advancement Association the leading women of the city got up and talked. They, one and all, said that the teachers must have higher salaries. Then the gentle sex sat down and let their lords and masters take the stand. They agreed with their wives that the teachers should have more salary; they went a step farther and said that they must have bigger pay. Then they raved and ramped and tore their hair over the idea of a higher tax levy. They wailed that Alameda was essentially a city of homes and that it was poor—poor as the proverbial church mouse—and they voted that all the money there was in the public purse should be paid to the teachers and "the police and fire department be jiggered. The fire department let Mr. Tyson's pet horse, "Lion," worth $1000, burn up, any way. As for the police, what have they ever done for the city? It is a disgrace that they will pick up criminals and have their doughty deeds told of in the city papers, thus making the outside world believe that it is possible for a wicked person to breathe the purified ozone of Alameda, the fair city on the marsh."—The Wasp.

THEIR TRESSES FLOWING FREE.

A perfect stream of fat women may be seen wending their way bareheaded any afternoon or evening along the principal street of Oakland and the adjacent cities across the bay. It does not matter at what time you get off the train there they are, from early morn to dewy eve. When a fresh young beauty appears in public with no covering on her "crown of glory" it is a truly wonderful sight. But when fat ones of no particular age, although they are every last one of them, "over eighteen," waddle down the public thoroughfares, their scanty locks exposed to the wind, their scanty locks gaze of the populace, it is, to say the least, trying on the nerves. It is not decent. But there is nothing that some of the dowagers of Alameda county will not make a stagger at! More power to them. I hear, meanwhile, that half a dozen milliners have gone out of business. They declare that it is a conspiracy to drive them from the face of the earth. What with the craze for going without headgear and the equally great craze for making one's own hats, the society women have made a move toward getting even with the women, some of whom not only overcharged them, but who were insolent in the extreme. Men are waiting with a good deal of amusement to see what the outcome will be. As long as hats are made from fancy braids women will buy frames and sew the braid on themselves. It leaves a few pennies for other expenses, and while it is of course hard on the milliner of ambition who has just gone into business, the one who has been there for any length of time and has not feathered her nest deserves just about what she is getting.—The Wasp.

BLOSSOMS IN AUGUST.

HORTICULTURAL COMMISSIONER KELLER EXPLAINS THE UNUSUAL PHENOMENA.

Editor TRIBUNE: The reason why cherry trees and etc bloom in the month of August, which is somewhat unusual in our State, is the black slimy slug known to practical horticulturists as Eriocampa cerasi. This pest attacks the leaves of the cherry first; the apple and pear next; preventing the new from coming in full bloom. The trees later in the fall will bloom that is the branches, whose foliage has been destroyed by the slug, checking the full flow of the sap, and forcing it back to the original branch and checking their growth for the time being; and destroying their productiveness in their natural season. After a close investigation, I have failed to find healthy leaves on any of the cherry trees whose foliage has been destroyed by the above mentioned pest. It will appear on the foliage in the early spring. This pest destroyed millions of dollars worth of the cherry crops in Australia some years ago. It is now in its infancy in our State. If the lava of this slug is not destroyed it will drop to the ground close to the trunk of the tree, burrow into the soil and renew its destructiveness in the spring. I would recommend that the owner of such trees throw slack lime dust over the foliage. It will destroy the slugs. Pour lime water around the trunks of the trees; it will destroy the lava of this pest. In fact, it is a benefit to all trees. The orchards and home trees are sadly neglected owing to carelessness.

White wash for thirty in ge fruit trees: Take forty pounds of unslacked lime, ten pounds of sulphur, place the lime and sulphur in a fifty gallon barrel, pour the water on until slacked, stir occasionally to keep from burning, because the compound will generate unusual heat; when cold add three pounds of salt, so to harden the wash, applying thoroughly all over the trunk and in the forks and lower limbs of the trees. It will destroy the eggs of the canker worm and other pests. Injurious to plant life invariably deposited under the bark of the trees, and are in nests or clusters. They are very small, but easily destroyed by the lime and etc. Give the trees a good heavy coat of the white wash. Yours respectfully,

P. J. KELLER,
Horticultural Commissioner.

LOCAL BOWLERS DEFEATED.

Although the California Bowling Club defeated the Piedmonts of this city in the first three of the six games to be rolled, at the California Alleys Thursday night, the Oakland men put up an excellent exhibition of the game and were beaten by 46 pins.

When the final scores were counted, it was found that the San Franciscans had made 2688 pins against 2642 for the locals. Considering the fact that the Oaklanders were playing on alleys they were not used to, their work was excellent.

The next three games will be bowled on the Syndicate Alley in this city. The Piedmonts will probably defeat their opponents on the home alleys.

Following are the scores:

THE VALUE OF CHARCOAL

Few People Know How Useful it is in Preserving Health and Beauty.

Nearly everybody knows that charcoal is the safest and most efficient disinfectant and purifier in nature, but few realize its value when taken into the human system for the same cleansing purpose.

Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better, it is not a drug at all, but simply absorbs the gases and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out of the system.

Charcoal sweetens the breath after smoking, drinking or after eating onions or other odorous vegetables.

Charcoal effectually clears and improves the complexion, it whitens the teeth and further acts as a natural and eminently safe cathartic.

It absorbs the injurious gases which collect in the stomach and bowels; it disinfects the mouth and throat from the poison of catarrh.

All druggists sell charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best charcoal and the most for the money is in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges; they are composed of the finest powdered Willow charcoal, and other harmless antiseptics in tablet form or rather in the form of large, pleasant tasting lozenges, the charcoal being mixed with honey.

The daily use of these lozenges will soon tell in a much improved condition of the general health, better complexion, sweeter breath and purer blood, and the beauty of it is, that no possible harm can result from their continued use, but on the contrary, great benefit.

A Buffalo physician in speaking of the benefits of charcoal, says: "I advise Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges to all patients suffering from gas in stomach and bowels, and to clear the complexion and purify the breath, mouth and throat; I also believe the liver is greatly benefited by the daily use of them; they cost but twenty-five cents a box at drug stores, and although in some sense a patent preparation, yet I believe I get more and better charcoal in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges than in any of the ordinary charcoal tablets."

Cures Grip and COLDS

However often we take cold, we seldom recognize the first symptoms: the languid, tired feeling; the lack of energy and strength; the blues, and dark forebodings of some impending illness. This goes to show what a wrench the system gets by the checked circulation of the blood when a Cold is taken.

The next time you feel so, take a dose of Dr. Humphreys' "Seventy-seven." It will restore the circulation, start the blood coursing through the veins and break up the Cold—making life worth living.

PUPILS TO GIVE MINSTREL SHOW.

The minstrel and vaudeville show and dance to be given by the Class of December '04, of the Polytechnic High School promises to be a great success. It will come off on the evening of November 18, at Forester's Hall, Thirteenth and Clay streets.

Under the able management of Frank Hanley, the class is arduously rehearsing an elaborate program. The minstrel show will open with "Coonville Cullud Band," sung by a chorus of fifty male voices. Then will follow solos and coon songs by the six end men and the four soloists, among whom are the well known singers, A. Cosgrove and Miss Bunker.

The following coon songs will be sung: "Liza Jane," by J. Kearney; "Chicken Dinner," by C. Herkenham; "Feelin' for You," by P. Nicholas; "Rags," by J. Loling. As finale the chorus will sing, "My Own United States."

Following the minstrel show an overture will be rendered by the band, consisting of twenty pieces, which will also play for the singing and dancing.

The vaudeville show will contain the following: Dutch team, by Messrs. Fitzsimmons and Shin; instrumental duet, by Messrs. Trowsdale and Hanley, illustrated songs, by A. Cosgrove; dancing by Miss Pendleton; recitation by Miss Shurbert; another overture, "Sentimental Tommy," by Gus Edwards, will be rendered by the band, after which a dance will be held and refreshments will be served.

The entertainment is for the benefit of the special issue of "The Scribe," to be gotten out by the class at the end of the term.

GOES SOUTH.

Miss Vannie Cole will leave shortly for an extended visit to the Southern part of the State. She will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bashford, at their Monrovia home during her stay. Herbert Bashford's play, "The Hon. John North," will be presented at the Burbank Theater in Los Angeles this month. Mrs. J. A. Cole has been visiting relatives in this city for several weeks past.

Cure for Asthma and Hay Fever

The statements published below confirm the claim of Dr. Schiffmann that his remedy is an absolute cure for Asthma and Hay Fever.

Mrs. Mary Zachery, Pleasant Hill, La., says: "I have found your Asthma Cure a permanent cure for Asthma, for which I used it 7 years ago. I have never had the slightest return of the trouble since. I have also found your remedy excellent in Bronchial affections."

A Hay Fever sufferer writes: "I have had Hay Fever for 14 years. I bought a package of your remedy (Schiffmann's Asthma Cure), of our druggist and due to its use this is the first summer that I have not been troubled." Mrs. Frank Guilfogle, 6237 Ridge avenue, Roxboro, Philadelphia.

Sold by druggists at 50c and $1.00.

How the Grand Jury is Being Handled in San Francisco.

The KNAVE

Coffroth Gets His Permit in Spite of the Opposition of His Enemies.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 15.—Notwithstanding the efforts of certain persons, with political grudges, to sidetrack his aspirations as a fight promoter, James Wood Cofforth, matchmaker for the Shasta Athletic Club, succeeded in getting the Police Committee of the Board of Supervisors to indorse his application for a permit for the Britt-Gans championship go.

I do not think there has ever been such a bitter fight made against a promoter in San Francisco as the one floated to end Cofforth. But the Anti-Cofforthites overlooked a thing or two or three when they started to bring the sporting career of this young man to a full stop.

Cofforth has more brains in a minute than the bunch that opposed him can get together in thirty years. Incidentally he is absolutely honest. In the sporting world his word is as good as his bond. He conducts his affairs on an absolutely business basis. He has been one of the most successful fight promoters that this country has known. His success created for him an army of enemies. Failures are always ready to tear down the man on top. I believe the entire Board of Supervisors will grant the Shasta Club's request for a permit.

This fight ought to be the greatest ring battle ever witnessed in California. At 133 pounds Gans will be a perfect antagonist for Britt. Ordinarily the colored boy enters the ring weighing somewhere in the neighborhood of 140. He fought Walcott the other night at 138. At that weight his condition is perfect. But at that weight he is able to lick Jimmy Britt without any serious trouble, for Gans at 138 punches like a welterweight. At 133 pounds, however, he will be forfeiting enough steam to make him a legitimate opponent for Britt.

Tim McGrath thinks Gans will be able to put out the local boy without much trouble, because of the open manner in which Britt fights when he is mad. Other equally effective authorities on the manly art are of the opinion that Gans will lose all of his speed and steam when Britt plants that awful left on his stomach.

A great deal of money will be bet on this fight. On the night of the battle, I think it ought to be an even money proposition. The house will in all probability go beyond the $35,000 mark.

Our Grand Jury is the limit. San Francisco has seldom been graced with a Grand Jury addicted to the proclivities of the present inquisitorial body. A number of the jurors are anxious not only to have their names, but their pictures published in the newspapers. Consequently they are planning all sorts of sensational stunts. Incidentally the Jury is divided against itself because of racial and religious prejudices. For instance, the Jury refused to indict the Board of Election Commissioners because Mr. Voorsanger, a brother of the Rabbi, is a member of the Commission.

The following votes were cast against indicting the Election Commissioners in order to protect Voorsanger: Maurice Block, Milton H. Esberg, Otto Jungblut, M. Levy, A. Lillienfeld, George Purlenny and Isadore Zellerbach. The Grand Jury finally decided not to indict, but to practically present the Election Commissioners. One of the jurors suggested that an election officer named Silverstein be indicted. In an instant the six aforementioned gentlemen got together and threatened to leave the jury-room if any such thing were permitted.

When the alleged election frauds were turned over to the Grand Jury for action, it was predicted by the wise men that the scandals were ended right there. Every body figured that Abe Ruef owned the Grand Jury. It was said that he absolutely controlled Foreman Lillienfeld. Other gentlemen on the jury were listed as marching in the Ruef ranks. But the manner in which Abe's stalwarts were handled by the Grand Jury, has given the lie to the wise men. I understand the only vote that Ruef has on the Grand Jury is half of Lillienfeld's. Thus far all the men indicted or presented because of their connection with the alleged primary election frauds are Ruef's henchmen.

The removal of Captain of Detectives Martin by Chief Wittman is still one of the mysteries of the Police Department.

While Martin was not a brilliant Captain of Detectives, he was just as good as the average man in that sort of a job. And he had a reputation for being honest. When Chief Wittman handed it to him in the neck, a number of the merchants, who had dealings with Martin, gave the retiring captain a banquet.

There are innumerable stories afloat, all proposing to give the real cause for Martin's removal. Some are to the effect that Martin was too honest and could not be handled to the satisfaction of the administration. Others say he was not any too honest. The latest reason for his removal is that he had to get out on account of the old A. P. A. rows, that at one time threatened to rend the department. There are few men in San Francisco that have more friends than "Jack" Martin. He is an affable gentleman, and from the view point of the laity, an efficient officer.

During the past week at the Palace Hotel there has been an exhibition of the drawings and color sketches of artists employed upon the local newspapers and periodicals. The pictures were not much to look at, and the taste with which the affair was managed has been the subject of harsh criticism.

As a matter of fact the scheme for the exhibition was really based upon polite blackmail. Men, who are continually being used to illustrate stories in the newspapers, were approached by an agent for the artists and requested for a subscription. The amount of money they subscribed was used toward purchasing pictures in the exhibition. Many of the men who subscribed, such as Abe Ruef, Jeremiah Sullivan and others, sent in their photographs to the artists in order to have their own portraits made and exhibited. The man who managed the affair for the artists got one-half of each subscription. He probably cleaned up somewhere in the neighborhood of $3000. The artists got just one-half the amount their pictures were sold for.

This exhibition is the second and will probably be the last held in San Francisco. Mr. "Blinker" Murphy of political notoriety, is planning an exhibition of unpublished manuscripts by local newspaper writers. He thinks these "unpublished manuscripts" would be far more interesting and command far higher prices than the output of the artists. His scheme for this exhibition is rather ingenious. He proposed that the leading men of the various papers shall write the inner facts of the secret lives of the men of prominence in the metropolis. The manuscripts are to be placed in an envelope and sealed. On the outside of the envelope there will be a legend telling of the contents something after this fashion:

"The Real Dope on Mayor Schmitz. $500."

"Abe Ruef's Sources of Income. $1000."

"Ballot Box Stuffer Wyman's Confession."

"What James D. Phelan Did to Civil Service."

"Gavin McNab's Morgue Record."

Labor Party indorsements are not quite as valuable this year as they were at the last election. The trouble is that Abe Ruef has made the Labor Party nomination or indorsement too much of a personal matter. The turning down of Wynn by the Labor Party did nobody any good save Wynn, who now has a chance for election. Williams, the Labor candidate for Congress in the Fifth District, is personally a man of ability and integrity. While he was nominated through the influence of Ruef, it is a well-known fact that Ruef's supporters are all going to vote for "Red" Hayes, the "spook" man.

* * *

Burchard, one of the Labor Party candidates for Judge of the Superior Court, has a bad record. It doesn't look as though he has any chance whatever of being elected. "Jimmy" Gallagher, who has the Republican nomination for Superior Judge with the Labor indorsement, looks as though he has a chance for election. He has thus far given evidence of possessing wonderful campaigning faculties. He is young, hearty, a good talker and has a bunch of friends ready and willing to work for him. He belongs to half the fraternal orders on the earth, and has a universally envied glad hand.

* * *

The financial predicament of the Democratic State Central Committee is pathetically funny. When McNab succeeded in electing "Tim" Spellacy chairman of the committee, it was announced with considerable blare of trumpets that Mr. Spellacy had money and possessed a liking for spending it.

But thus far Spellacy's bank roll has remained in the ice chest. The State Central Committee has not any money to get up meetings or to send anything like an adequate corps of orators to spell-bind the State. Consequently the campaign is thus far stale, flat and unprofitable. The opening Democratic meeting addressed by Senator Newlands was anything but a success and the Iroquois Club meeting held last night was attended only by about 300 people. Thus far the McNabites have mismanaged the party's affair more effectively than any of their predecessors.

THE KNAVE.

BARD-DEMOCRATIC COMBINE.

A DEMOCRATIC PAPER DENOUNCES IT AS AN UNHOLY ALLIANCE.

(Grass Valley Union).

Certain Democratic candidates for the Legislature in the Southern part of the State have pledged themselves to vote for Senator Bard in case they are elected. It is regarded as being absolutely certain that the Republicans will have a majority in the next Legislature on account of the hold-over Senators, and the Democratic candidates of San Bernardino and Ventura counties who have agreed to vote for Bard offer this as their excuse. In fact, the Democratic candidates have been instructed by conventions and committees in certain instances, and have made their pledges public, stating their reasons.

This savors of a political trade which is anything but creditable. Democrats who may be elected to the Legislature will do well to permit the Republicans to make their own fight—it will not be a Democratic affair, and should the Democrats get control of the Legislature some time in the future they will not appreciate it if a minority of trading Democrats and a number of trading Republicans should control the election. Such politics would lead to disreputable methods, if not to corruption.

There is another feature about it which is of particular importance to Democrats, and it is the fact that General Harrison Gray Otis, of the Los Angeles Times, is engineering the scheme. His Republican Times having lost its influence he has bought the Los Angeles Herald, made it Democratic, and now is working to control the Democratic party after being discredited in his own party.

Otis is a hard taskmaster, and his henchmen must do his bidding. It is quite certain that he controls a few other Democratic legislative candidates in that section, and that they are bound to vote for Bard. Otis needs Bard in the United States Senate and is determined that the Democrats shall put him there if the Republicans will not.

Bard is the minority, however, as far as Republican support is concerned, in the southland, and in other parts of the State. It would seem the best thing at any rate for the Democratic legislators to do is to keep clear of the Republican fight, and not permit themselves to be catspaws for the odious Los Angeles Times—a paper which is the worst enemy the Democratic party has in this State, and which comes as a wolf in sheep's clothing into the Democratic fold. Even the Republicans consider that paper a sort of public enemy.

Senator Bard is a nice old man, though somewhat enfeebled, and probably is not intentionally a party to the scheme, but Democratic candidates and newspapers which advocate his election are certainly playing into the hands of the enemy.

NEW YORK, October 15.—A device intended to prevent accidents like that aboard the battleship Missouri several months ago, when several men of a gun crew were killed by a "blow-back" in one of the turrets which is being installed on the battleship Kentucky. It is called a smoke ejector and is designed to force out of the bore all the unburned gas and smoke remaining after the gun has been discharged.

MINSTRELS AT THE THEATER.

WILL PLAY AT THE MACDONOUGH ON OCTOBER TWENTIETH.

On next Thursday and Friday evenings, October 20 and 21, the Native Sons will gather in force at the Macdonough Theater and give welcome to the famous minstrel aggregation from Alameda, who will appear under the name of the "Halcyon Parlor Minstrels." For some years they have been in the habit of giving a show at Armory Hall, and were to have done so this year, but the elements were unkind and Armory Hall is no more. So through the courtesy of the management of the Macdonough Theater arrangements were made to transfer the entire show and many additional features which have since been added to Oakland, and it is with a great deal of appreciation that the Oakland Native Sons receive this transfer.

Never within the history of minstrel shows is so much promised for one evening's entertainment, and every one knows that the Native Sons always keep their promise. The show will open with an elaborate first part. James Tilling, late of the Bostonians and recently stage manager of several big musical companies, will have charge of the stage and that is sufficient guarantee in itself that the show will be a success. The music and orchestra are being looked after by Van E. Britton, who has had considerable experience in that line, and he promises to introduce several of the late Eastern successes.

Russ Pariser's beautiful voice will be heard to great advantage in a new ballad, and Henry Koerber's great basso will roll out the tones of "Out Where the Billows Roll High" just as he composed intended that they should be sung. Jo Rosborough has been especially engaged and will sing several new songs one of them being Dr. H. J. Stewart's new drinking song that is said to make you forget all others. The end men are ready to spring some entirely new and original jokes and to sing some clever songs. The prices are reserved 50 cents and gallery unreserved 25 cents.

PORTLAND, Or., October 15.—About 150 telephone girls quit work tonight in the general offices of the Pacific States Telephone Company here. The strike will tie up the telephone system of the city.

THE PREACHERS AND THEIR RELIGIOUS "RE-HASH"

People Want Less Theorizing in the Pulpit and More Faith and Works.

BY BETTY MARTIN.

The man who said "When the churches begin to run the business of Jesus Christ like the world runs the business of selling soap, we shall do something," knew what he was talking about.

What the world wants is faith and works, not empty theories. The trouble with the average wearer of the cloth is that he's given too much to generalizing, in a high sounding, vague sort of way.

No one with an ounce of gumption cares two cents for that sort of thing. If these same learned old fogies would get in and manifest real interest in the things about them, and enter into intimate personal relationship with members of their flocks, each church would soon become a center from which boundless good would emanate.

As it is, the ordinary pastor is so wrapt up in creeds and dogmas, and his own petty affairs, that he hasn't time to investigate or give ear to the wants of those whose spiritual needs he is supposed to minister to.

The world wants sympathy, and counsel, and spiritual guidance, and is perfectly willing and eager to receive it, should it be fittingly presented. It wants everyday religion—something which applies to the common, ever recurring tasks.

I don't think it would be too broad a statement to say that today in this generation of broad culture, universal learning and great wealth, the Salvation Army is doing more good in its humble way, than any other organized body of men and women in the world banded together for the purpose of orthodox religion. And why?

Simply because its members look after the every day needs of those about them. They gather in the hungry, the poor, the fallen. They look after the convict when he is liberated from the evil, debasing influence of our State prisons, into the lesser temptations of our cities. They do not pull their skirts about them at the sight of a fallen sister, but take her by the hand and show her the way to peace. In short, they are not mocking Pharisees.

B. Fay Mills, the one time Evangelist, is not in favor with members of the orthodox faith, because he broke away from the fold, and launched into a line of original work, but it is noteworthy that at this very time he is preaching to Jew and Gentile alike, and that the edifices wherein he speaks are always crowded to the doors. It is also noteworthy that Mr. Mills does not theorize but preaches universal good, and the brotherhood of man, which reminds me of a story I heard him relate here in Oakland, at a Unitarian reunion. He said he himself couldn't vouch for its truth, having had it told him by a professional gentleman. Mr. Mills told it on the spur of the moment because so many members of his church appeared to be strangers to each other, whereas, according to his idea, they should have been thoroughly well-known.

The story goes that two very eminent gentlemen, whose dwelling place was heaven, one day met, and through the courtesy of a mutual friend, were introduced. After awhile, conversation turned to earthly affairs.

"What church did you attend, brother, when you dwelt on earth?" asked saint number one.

"I? Why, I was a member of Dr. B——'s congregation in New York," replied the second saintly one.

"You don't say so. I belonged to his church for fifteen years myself."

"You did! and we never met?" Mutual explanations.

"Think of all that waste time," concluded Mr. Mills, dryly.

The story is certainly apropos of the modern aspect of city churches, at least. Many men pay pew rent, and never go near the sanctuary because it's such a bore to listen to the old re-hash.

If it weren't for the women, there is hardly a church in Christendom but would fail.

Surely, something is "rotten in Denmark."

* * *

Speaking of humanity and a broader outlook, the memorial services conducted last Sunday afternoon by the Alameda Parlors of the Native Sons of the Golden West will not readily be forgotten by those fortunate enough to have witnessed them.

Never was a finer eulogy uttered than that delivered by Maurice T. Dooling, who in language the most choice, and sentiments the most beautiful, paid his tribute to the departed.

Among the speakers were Phillip M. Walsh and Robert M. Fitzgerald, both of Oakland, and both too well known to need more than mention.

Reverend W. Carson Shaw and the Reverend Ernest E. Baker also spoke a few fitting words, and a musical program of exceptional merit added to the impressiveness of the ceremonies.

BETTY MARTIN.

WOMAN TRAMPLED TO DEATH BY BULL

PITTSBURG, Pa., October 5.—Wilhelmina Masur, aged 50 years, wife of John Masur, one of the oldest newspapermen of Pittsburg has been stamped to death by a bull in the stable at their home in Allegheny. The animal was raised by Mrs. Masur. It had been kept in the barn and she was about to replace the chain on its neck when she was trampled down and killed.

ONE CASE OF SMALLPOX—HUNDREDS ARE VACCINATED.

CHICAGO, October 15.—One case of smallpox has caused the vaccination of 1700 men employed at the Stock Yards and more are to be treated. The vaccinations are only a precautionary measure and not because there is any serious danger of a spread of the disease.

The 1700 vaccinated men were all employes of one company. Four physicians went through part of the packing plant, leaving behind cattle killers, sheep butchers, laborers and foremen with sleeves rolled up and arms "scratched."

The wholesale vaccination was caused by fact that a smallpox patient had been taken to the isolation hospital from a Slavonian settlement in which thousands of stock yards workers reside.

RUMMAGE SALE FOR FABIOLA.

DONATIONS SOLICITED IN AID OF DESERVING LOCAL HOSPITAL.

The management of Fabiola Hospital has decided to hold a rummage sale for the benefit of that institution, which is to open Wednesday, November 2 and continue for several days. The place in which the sale will be conducted has not yet been decided upon.

Donation of articles for the sale may be sent to the store of Kohler & Chase, or will be called for by attaches of the association if information as regards their whereabouts is 'phoned to the hospital.

WILL ORDER STRIKE AGAINST WOMEN TAILORS.

NEW YORK, October 15.—Directed against the manufacture of clothing in bedrooms and kitchens of tenement houses, a general strike is threatened by the Ladies' Garmentmakers' International Union.

The general secretary of the union has announced that strikes will be ordered against all Fifth avenue women's custom tailors who compel workmen to take their work to the tenement house quarters, where they live.

"The strikes will be ordered to compel the manufacture of clothing in sanitary and properly lighted and ventilated work rooms rented or built by the employers," said the secretary. "I am of the opinion that if the wealthy women who patronize custom tailors knew the conditions under which a good deal of their clothing is made they would be as anxious as we are to bring about a revolution in the industry by refusing to patronize any except the firms which have their clothing manufactured in sanitary workshops.

"The workmen employed in the manufacture of wealthy women's riding and street dresses are paid very low wages, and, as a consequence, live in the worst and most unsanitary tenement houses. They must take their work home and finish it in squalid, unsanitary, disease-infected bedrooms and kitchens.

"In addition to insisting on the manufacture of the clothing in sanitary workshops the union will demand a minimum scale of $21 a week. Strikes will be ordered wherever the demand is refused."

Lawson—Hullo, Doc. Glad to see you back. Did you kill anything?

Dr. Carver (with dignity)—I don't know what you mean. I have just returned from New York, where I was called to perform an important surgical operation.

Lawson—Great Scott! I thought you'd been out in the Adirondacks on a hunting trip.—Somerville Journal.

AT THE PLAY

THE CONVICT'S DAUGHTER.

With new stage settings and a number of improving changes, "The Convict's Daughter," a melodrama of strength, opened at the Macdonough last night to a very large audience. This melodrama possesses the usual characteristics of such plays. There is a "Weary Willie," an outcast in the "Convict's Daughter," and the part is played by Frank Beal, an actor of ability. Mr. Beale also plays the part of Robert Graham, the false father, and William Woodford, convict 1234. The role of Edith Gould, the persecuted girl, is played in an able manner by Claire Louise Chapman. The lighter turns are better than the emotional parts of her work, but both are good. Charles C. Bartling plays the villain, James Blackadder, and if gallery hisses are a testimonial, he makes a hit. The role of Jack Warburton is successfully played by Warren Ellsworth. Frederick Monley as Matthew Gould, a Kentucky banker, and Louise Lester as Mrs. Gould, his wife, are both clever players. The other members of the cast give strong support. There was another big house at the matinee given today. There are but three more performances of this company at the Macdonough, and they are tonight, tomorrow matinee and tomorrow night.

THE TENDERFOOT.

"The Tenderfoot" (Phil Riley) and his merry band of cowboys, Indians, seminary girls, senoritas, from over the border, and the blue-shirted alkali-dusty rangers of Texas are announced to appear on the stage of the Macdonough theatre Monday and Tuesday, October 17 and 18, and present one of the most extraordinary financial and artistic musical triumps of the season.

"The Tenderfoot" is the work of two young Americans. Richard Carle is responsible for the book and lyrics said to be as refreshing as a rushing stream by the dusty roadside and the music by H. L. Heartz, composer of "1492," "Miss Simplicity," "The Show Girl," and other popular successes, and equally shares with Mr. Carle in the success of the piece.

MASON AND MASON.

Mason and Mason, in their new musical comedy "Fritz and Snitz," under the direction of Messrs. Broadhurst and Currie, will be seen at the Macdonough theatre Saturday, October 22. Few musical comedies have ever, or ever will, make a better impression than "Fritz and Snitz." As far as fun and music are concerned it can not be outdone. It is one continuous laugh, dotted with the brightest and most tuneful musical gems and only the intermissions between the acts serve to restore your breathing capacity. The special cast engaged is very strong, and includes some bright lights of the musical comedy stage. The chorus has been highly praised, for the girls can sing and dance, as well as being perfectly well drilled, and form interesting groups. The scenery for this production is entirely new, and the gowns worn by the show girls are considered to be superb creations.

A TEXAS STEER.

"A Texas Steer" will doubtless be greeted by a big house when it comes to the Macdonough theatre Sunday and Monday, October 23 and 24. It would be singular if the theme hit upon by Hoyt did not furnish rousing entertainment. "Maverick Brander" is a rugged, honest Texas ranchman. During brief absence from his ranch he is elected to Congress. The yeoman confronted with this fact upon his return indignantly refuses to fill the office. "If you think you are too good to represent us in Congress, you jest say so," greets "Brander's" refusal, backed up by hundreds of barrels of six-shooters. The plainsman throws up his hands and hies to Washington with his honest wife and daughter. The misadventures that ensue are always absorbing, now wildly hilarious, quietly satirical, again touchingly pathetic. The play will be presented by a company of players remarkably adapted for the interpretation of the taking roles.

FRANK DANIELS.

Frank Daniels, the popular comic opera commedian, under the management of Charles B. Dillingham, will be seen at the Macdonough theatre Tuesday and Wednesday nights, October 25 and 26, in his greatest comic opera success, "The Office Boy." This piece, now in its second season, scored strongly last year in the East, playing for over three months in New York City alone, and achieving popular triumphs in Boston, Philadelphia, and other great centers.

EMPIRE.

The usual change in program will take place on Monday night, next, at the Empire Theater, when a most attractive bill will be presented to its many patrons. Acts that possess merit, and novelties that are of value will constitute the program. J. H. Jackson will be seen in contortion work. Christy and Willis, the tramp jugglers, are excellent. Miss Louise Willis will delight her audiences with some difficult dances. Ernest Edwards, the popular illustrated singer, will give another new publication. Kohler and Seymour, two established favorite comedians from the East, will make their first appearance here in comicalities. Motion pictures will be shown that will be entertaining to all. Particular attention is called to the Empire Orchestra, which will render pleasant music to its hearers.

OTHER PLAYS.

Thursday and Friday, October 27 and 28, the great rural drama success, "York State Folks." Saturday and Sunday, October 29 and 30, and two matinees, "Gorton's Big Minstrel Jubilee." Monday, October 31, for three nights and a matinee the newest musical comedy success, "San Toy," with the inimitable comedian, James T. Powers.

PALACE OF THE KING.

Records for attendance are being nightly broken at Ye Liberty Playhouse this week, so great is the demand to see the most beautiful production ever seen in that popular playhouse of "In the Palace of the King." And it seems a pity that all of the gorgeous costumes can be worn but twice more; that all of the properties must be returned in two days, and that the most attractive and complete scenery ever seen in Oakland will be relegated to the theatrical graveyard after tomorrow night's performance.

LINDA ARVIDSON, AT YE LIBERTY

FROU FROU.

A few weeks ago the patrons of Ye Liberty Playhouse voted on a list of standard emotional dramas and "Frou Frou" won by a large majority. "Frou Frou" was adapted from the French by the late Augustin Daly and produced by his own stock company in New York, where it enjoyed a long and prosperous season. Since then it has been included in the repertoire of many of our best actresses, and recently has been given by the best stock companies in America. The story of the play centers around the frivolous and irresponsible disposition of Gilberte (Frou Frou) and her sister Louise, who is all the other is not. Louise sacrifices her love for Henri Sartorys that her sister may marry him, and later when Frou Frou becomes a mother goes to her home in Paris and acts as housekeeper for her. Frou Frou still devotes herself to society and the gay and reckless life of that world center until she suddenly realizes that she is no longer missed at home, that her sister is nearly in all respects her superior there. It is then that she feels that she can love, hate and be jealous and listens to the words of her husband's "friend" and runs away with him to Venice. Her husband follows the guilty pair and her companion meets his just deserts. Frou Frou returns to her deserted home a poor little broken butterfly and clasps her child in her arms for the last time. Comedy of the higher order is introduced by the other characters. It will be given a beautiful production and the scene of the Venetian garden will be a revelation in the scene painters art. The usual matinee will be given on Saturday at the ever popular prices.

THE NOVELTY.

Crowds waiting for the second show every night is the reward that the management of the Novelty gets for having such first-class talent and an all-round good performance this week. Morgen, the wizard of black art, continues to meet with approval and applause from the audiences, as likewise do the Willagross, R. Clinton Montgomery and the rest of the numbers on the bill.

The comic sketch produced by Le Witt and Ashmore, is one of the funniest comedies seen on the vaudeville stage. In fact it keeps the audiences in a roar from the moment the curtain rises until it falls.

The colored moving picture is all that Colonel Lubelski promised it to be. It is a fine specimen of artistic hand coloring.

For next week a still stronger show than this week's is promised, headed by the world-famous Bisho, the automatic wonder, who gives such a close imitation to a mechanical figure that it is almost impossible to tell whether it is really a human being or a mechanical piece of work that is performing on the stage.

The celebrated Three Forests, novelty, entertainers, and Ed De Moss, monologist, are coming direct from the East to open at this house. The Prampins are celebrated musical artists, and Miss Care Gibson, the Gibson Girl, is quite a popular vocalist, who will entertain with some of the latest songs. There will be several other feature acts, including R. Clinton Montgomery, the popular illustrated singer.

The special moving picture will be a new melodramatic scene, entitled "The Miser's Daughter," to be followed by three other comic subjects.

THE BELL.

The Bell Theater has had some fine attractions, but this week's bill is without a doubt the best yet shown at this popular playhouse. The attendance this week is taxing the seating capacity of the house at every performance. The bill includes some of the best acts in vaudeville. The Three Irvings are marvels as acrobats. Helen Aiken and Mabel Darragh are two clever singers and dancers. The pictures are excellent. Mr. and Mrs. J. Chick in this sketch, entitled "A Sleeping Lion," do splendidly and cause a great deal of laughter.

LEE F. STONE, MANAGER OF THE EMPIRE THEATRE, WHO KINDLY DONATED THE TALENT AT THE PRESS CLUB LAST EVENING.

VIOLET HALLS, WITH FRANK DANIELS.

MINA GLEASON, IN "FROU FROU" AT YE LIBERTY.

Gus Leonard, a comical man, plays some complicated instruments. The Great Delain is up to date. Arthur Pringle, in pictorial melodies, is in fine voice. The famous Budd Brothers close the bill. The management announces a great bill for next week, containing some excellent numbers, including the Hamilus, Riodan Trio, Nelson Sisters and Melville.

MEXICAN GIRLS IN "THE TENDERFOOT," TO APPEAR AT THE MACDONOUGH.

IN THE FIELD OF LITERATURE

BOOKS AND MAGAZINES FROM THE EASTERN PRESS.

"Leonora" is a charming romance of a quaint and interesting people, told in a simple and pleasing style.

The scene is laid in the great Smoky Mountains of North Carolina, and the author, Laura Burnett Lawson, has managed to infuse the atmosphere of the country into her work to a remarkable degree. In short, the story is exhilerating. The character of old Abe Hobson, the moonshiner, is almost unique in the annals of fiction and is a type that is rapidly disappearing. There is shadow and sunshine in the book and the love element is strong yet natural. Published by Neale Publishing Co., New York.

"THE WANDERING TWINS."

The scene of "The Wandering Twins" by Mary Bourchier Sanford, is laid in Labrador, a portion of the world that is seldom touched upon in fiction, but which possesses types and scenes that are full of interest.

The tale of the wanderings of two waifs in this rugged country affords an opportunity for many pathetic as well as exciting situations and the author has managed to catch the spirit of her theme and utilize it to the best advantage. Illustrated by H. C. Ireland and published by A. C. McClurg & Co., Chicago.

NEW SCHOOL TEXT BOOKS.

A. W. Porter is the compiler of a "Grammar School Algebra," which, although brief, is calculated in a year's school work, to open up the subject in a simple and comprehensive manner, arouse interest and lay the foundation for more effective work in the high school. The book appears to possess all the good qualities claimed for it. Published by American Book Company, New York.

To the list of recent school text books, Harmon B. Never, A. B., has contributed "A School History of England," which is intended for use in the higher grades of the elementary schools. For a brief work, it seems to be quite comprehensive, and it will undoubtedly succeed in its fundamental purpose, "to excite an interest that shall stimulate the pupil to a search for further knowledge." Published by American Book Company, New York.

"First Principles of Agriculture," by Emmet S. Goff and D. D. Mayne, is somewhat of an innovation in the line of school books, and seems to fill a niche that has heretofore to a great extent been vacant. The practical element in education is an important one and this fact is fast becoming universal. The volume is handsomely illustrated with color plates, beside black and white drawings. Published by the American Book Co., New York.

"OLD ENGLISH BALLADS."

Professor William Dallam Armes, of the State University, has compiled a volume of early ballads and folk songs which is published under the title of "Old English Ballads."

The compiler has evidently spent much time in resurrecting the quaint verses from out-of-the-way sources, and the result is a highly entertaining collection.

In most cases the original spelling has been retained and copious notes are appended. The volume is of handy, pocket-size and is illustrated with quaint pen sketches that admirably mirror the spirit of the period. Published by the Macmillan Company, New York.

"CAREERS FOR THE COMING MEN."

A composite volume of "practical and authoritative discussions of the professions and callings open to young Americans" is "Careers for the Coming Men."

The idea is an original one and as each calling is treated by some noted representative thereof, the articles should prove valuable and interesting to the reader.

Nearly every important profession and business is included in the list, and such distinguished authorities as Whitelaw Reid, Colonel Albert L. Mills, U. S. A., James K. Hackett, Cyrus Townsend Brady, etc., etc., are contributors to the volume.

At the head of each chapter is a portrait of its author. The book is one that should be placed in the hands of every young man who is making a start in life, for it will serve to give him inspiration or deter him if he has chosen a calling for which he is unfitted. Published by Saalfield Pub. Co., Akron, Ohio. Price, $1.50.

"ON A LARK TO THE PLANETS."

A fairy tale in a modern vein is told in "On a Lark to the Planets," which is a sequel to "The Wonderful Electric Elephant," and is from the pen of Frances Trego Montgomery.

In this fanciful work two little children are taken on a trip to the various planets, by their friends, the Prince and Princess, and their wonderful adventures cannot fail to delight the youthful readers. The illustrations in color by Winifred D. Eldred add greatly to the charm of the volume, which will instruct as well as amuse. It would form a handsome and acceptable gift book, the rich blue binding making it very attractive, and it is safe to say that any child with imagination would derive great enjoyment from the volume. Published by the Saalfield Pub. Co., Akron, Ohio. Price, $1.50.

"BILLY WHISKERS, JR."

A book for children, written in a simple yet pleasing style, is "Billy Whiskers, Jr.," by Frances Trego Montgomery. "Billy" is a goat and his adventures are of the most exciting sort. He manages to mix himself up in all sorts of peculiar predicaments, but comes out unscathed. The volume is bound in boards with a handsome colored cover, and is illustrated in black and white and colors by W. H. Fry. Published by the Saalfield Pub. Co., Akron, Ohio. Price, $1.00.

"DAN BLACK."

"Dan Black, Editor and Proprietor," is a distinct contribution to American literature. Seymour Eaton—himself an experienced newspaper man—has in this character painted a distinct and unique personality. It is refreshing, after so many conventional heroes have been presented to the public, to find a character fairly bristling with individuality. "Dan Black," the tall, bony, awkward diamond-in-the-rough, exhibits in his big-hearted life the qualities that command human interest in a larger degree than any other character recently portrayed in American fiction. Robert Barr has declared this to be the best story of the decade. Perhaps this is strong praise, but certainly this virile tale is not surpassed by any story of equal length that has been written on this side of the water in many years.

The Library Publishing Company, of Philadelphia, publish the volume in attractive art boards at twenty-five cents.

THE FORUM.

"The Forum" is a quarterly magazine devoted to American politics; foreign affairs, finance, literature, travel, applied science, the educational outlook, etc. The features in the October to December are "Protection Against Fires and Faulty Construction," "Private Societies and the Enforcement of the Criminal Law," "The Negro's Part in the Negro's Problem" and "Is the Human Brain Stationary?" The magazine is published at 135 East Twenty-third street, New York City.

OUT WEST.

"David Josephs," "A Frontier Justice," "Thoroughbreds," "A Romance of the Canon," "California's Cathedrals," and "Camp Atascadero," are the features in "Out West" for the current month. The magazine is published in Los Angeles and in San Francisco.

THE DELINEATOR.

"The Delineator" is an illustrated monthly magazine devoted to fashion, fiction, fancy work, household topics, society, etc. It is published by the Butterick Publishing Company, Butterick Building, New York City.

MUSICAL LEADER.

"The Musical Leader and Concert Goer" is a weekly record of dramatic and literary topics. It is published in Chicago, Ill.

SUNSET.

The "Sunset Magazine" for the current month contains among its many articles of interest "California's Army Camp," "The Olive Industry in California," "The Hour of His Release," "Through Western Eyes," and "A Sierra Empire." The magazine is published in San Francisco.

THE HOUSE BEAUTIFUL.

The features of "The House Beautiful" for the current month are "A House Designed by a Woman," "The Vital Things in the Home," "Dutch Colonial Farm Houses," etc. The magazine is illustrated and is published by Herbert S. Stone, 11 Eldredge Court, Chicago, Ill.

LITERARY DIGEST.

"The Literary Digest" is devoted to topics of the day, letters and art, science and invention, the religious world, foreign topics, notable books of the day, etc. It is published weekly by Funk & Wagnalls Company, New York City.

ARCHITECTURAL RECORD.

"The Modern American House, Its Design, Equipment and Furnishing," is the feature in "The Architectural Record" for the current month. The article is profusely illustrated by the interiors of houses, situated both in the East and the West. The magazine is published by the Architectural Record Company, New York City.

AMERICAN BOY.

Among the contents of "The American Boy" for the current month are "Jimmy Boy's Mission," "The Famous Children's Crusade," "Three Yankee Boys in Ireland," "Wonderful Boy Swimmers of New York," "Clever Work with the Pocket Knife," and "How General Morgan Won His First Shoulder Straps." The magazine is illustrated and is published monthly by the Sprague Publishing Company, Detroit, Mich.

YOUTH'S COMPANION.

The contents of "The Youth's Companion" for the current week are "Providence," by Etta Webb, "Old Rackabones' Last Kick," by Robert Merrill, Jr., "Tools of the Future," by Henry S. Pritchett, "Jennie's Porter's Bag," by Elizabeth Lincoln Gould, etc. The "Companion" is published by the Perry Mason Company, Boston, Mass.

BABY'S FRIENDS.

"Baby's Friends" is one of the many little muslin books published by the Saalfield Publishing Company of Akron, Ohio. These little books are made up of pictures of many colors with lively little jingles beneath them. The books may be washed and the colors will not run. They will afford the babes and larger children much enjoyment.

BERKELEY SUBURBAN NEWS UNIVERSITY

STUDENTS WILL BE KEPT BUSY THIS WEEK.

Series of Interesting Events Are Scheduled to Take Place at the State University

BERKELEY, October 15.—Replete with events of interest in the college world is the calendar announced for the week at the State University. At 4 o'clock next Monday afternoon memorial exercises will be held for Marius J. Spinello, late professor in Spanish at the University. President Benjamin Ide Wheeler will preside.

On Tuesday, the Multnomah Athletic Club football team will play the Varsity on the campus at 3:30 o'clock.

Wednesday night at 7:30 the Miners' Association of the University will banquet in Oakland.

Thursday night H. R. Mead will give the fifth of a series of lectures on bibliography at the library.

Friday afternoon Soura's band will play at 2:30 o'clock in the Greek Theatre. In the evening the Freshie Glee will be held at Harmon gymnasium.

Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock the University of Oregon football team will play the Varsity on the campus. The Pacific Athletic Association will hold a track meet on the campus at 2:30 o'clock.

PROFESSOR WAS JOSHED, BOOK SUPPRESSED.

College Editor Accuses Faculty Member of Tardiness in Installing World's Fair Exhibit.

BERKELEY, October 15.—"The Pelican," a humorous publication issued by the students of the State University, caused considerable consternation on the campus today by declaring, editorially, that Professor Samuel B. Christy, who had charge of the University exhibit at the World's Fair, suppressed the appearance of the last Blue and Gold in the display of college publications, because the professors were grilled too hard in the book. The editorial further accuses Christy of tardiness in installing the college exhibit, declaring that it was not in place until the Fair was a third over.

Eugene R. Hallett is the editor of "The Pelican" and the following is his breezy little article that is causing all the talk:

"PELICAN IS PUZZLED.—The University of California has an exhibit at the World's Fair. The Golden Bird didn't see it for she left St. Louis on the fourth of July and it was not sight yet—but then the Fair was only one-third over. However, one '05 man says he saw it and it was good. He went in August. Seeing a '98 Blue and Gold as the sole representative of the series of thirty-one annuals he asked why a later issue was not on exhibition and particularly that of his own class. Right here is where he found out what a disreputable bunch he belonged to for he was told that the exhibit committee did not consider it fit to represent the University as it contained matter attacking the faculty and offensive to the authorities. Shades of Stew Masters! Has the meek good-natured cartoons and little jokelets should have hurt anyone's feelings! Pelican can see tender-hearted and mild-mannered Professor Christy in his grief over the Blue and Gold joke. Never mind maybe sometime there will be a Blue and Gold that will leave behind it a record for gentleness genially and consideration like unto soft-spoken Professor Christy. Pelican admires his team work."

Professor Christy passes the buck for the non-appearance of the 1905 Blue and Gold up to Professor Elmer E. Brown, whom he declares had charge of the literary publications.

"I don't know just what books were in the exhibit," declared Professor Christy this morning. "Professor Brown had charge of that department."

Professor Brown does not care to have the responsibility rest on his shoulders and so he passed the buck still further on to Librarian J. C. Powell of the University.

"Librarian Powell selected the books," stated Brown, "and it is not up to me whether the 1905 Blue and Gold was in the exhibit or not."

But the fact remains that the '05 college annual in which Professor Christy was unmercifully lampooned, did not appear at the World's Fair.

REPUBLICANS HAVE A BIG RALLY AHEAD.

PROMINENT CANDIDATES TO ADDRESS BERKELEYANS ON TUESDAY NIGHT.

BERKELEY, October 15.—The next big Republican rally to be held in Berkeley will occur on the evening of October 18 at Shattuck Hall. The speakers of the evening will be Senator Joseph R. Knowland, Hon. Myron Wolfe, Senator G. Russ Lukens and Assemblyman William H. Waste.

The intermissions during the speeches will be filled with the side-splitting monologues of Milton Schwartz and selections by the Berkeley Quartet.

★

WILL CONTINUE STRIKE AGAINST STEEL WORKS.

PITTSBURG, Pa., October 15.—A meeting seemingly of great importance to iron and steel interests, has been held here. Heads of all the United States Steel Corporation's subsidiar departments were present from various parts of the country.

For two hours the steel manufacturers discussed business, and from one of the conferees it was learned that the strikes at Youngstown and Girard, Ohio, were the principal topics. Nothing definite was given out but it is said that the fight will be continued.

BERKELEY LODGE NOW HAS A CHARTER.

NEW MASONIC BODY IS CONSTITUTED BEFORE THE GRAND LODGE.

BERKELEY, October 15.—With the full rites of the Grand Masonic Lodge of California, Berkeley Lodge, No. 363, Free and Accepted Masons, was constituted last night in the Masonic Temple at Post and Montgomery streets, San Francisco. The ceremonies were pointly conducted. San Francisco Lodge, No. 360, being constituted at the same time.

All the officers and nearly all the members of Berkeley Lodge were present, as well as a large delegation from Durant Lodge. Despite the fact that the new local lodge has been organized but a short time it made a splendid showing.

On the conclusion of the work in the lodgeroom Berkeley Lodge entertained the members of the grand lodge at a banquet held at the Occidental Hotel. A. S. Parsons, the worshipful master of Berkeley Lodge, presided as toastmaster, and during the evening addresses were made by Grand Master Calvin W. Nutting, the assist grand master, and Grand Lecturer Edward H. Hart of Berkeley. The grand officers complimented Berkeley Lodge in the most glowing terms and praised the officers for having conducted its affairs in an efficient manner while under dispensation.

The officers of Berkeley Lodge who were honored last night were: A. S. Parsons, worshipful master; Major John T. Morrison, senior warden; James L. Robison, junior warden; H. V. J. Swain, treasurer; William E. Loy, secretary; L. L. Nelson, senior deacon; Lester McNulty, junior deacon; H. P. Nelson, chaplain; W. R. Stamper, tyler; James Davis, musician, and W. C. Dudley and Geore Slater, stewards.

MRS. KEITH GIVES LARGE DONATION

BERKELEY, October 15.—At the recent meeting of the State Woman's Suffrage Association, in Los Angeles, Mrs. William Keith of this city aroused considerable enthusiasm by contributing $50 to the campaign fund of the association. Mrs. Keith took a prominent part in the proceedings of the convention which was one of the most successful that has ever been held by the association.

NAMED TO DIRECT SETTLEMENT WORK.

BERKELEY CITIZENS WILL UNDERTAKE TO CARRY ON ASSOCIATION.

BERKELEY, October 15.—At the meeting of the West Berkeley Settlement Association last evening, the following board of directors for the ensuing year were nominated: Hart Greensfelder, Monroe Deutsch, William Harrison, Chas. Hadlin, Adolph Miller, C. C. Wickson, E. L. Parsons, Professor E. C. Moore, C. Engelbretsen, A. W. Taylor and S. D. Waterman and on motion they were elected by acclamation.

The new Board organized by the election of the following officers: Hart Greensfelder, president; Monroe Deutsch, secretary; A. W. Naylor, treasurer. Hart Greensfelder submitted papers showing that the word "appropriately," used in connection with the "slum lecture" was used unintentionally and with no intent of reflecting upon tre West End. A petition was presented by Mr. Greensfelder, signed by sixty-six persons, requesting a continuance of the settlement work.

Mr. Greensfelder urged the continuance of the settlement work and, said he did not consider the opposition of the Mothers' Club as representative of the feeling of the West End.

SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT GIVES HISTORY

S. D. Waterman Tells of the Growth of the Berkeley School Department.

BERKELEY, October 15.—City Superintendent of Schools S. D. Waterman has issued the following statistics regarding the Berkeley School Department:

"In 1884 the number of census children between the ages of 5 and 17, in Berkeley, was 871. In 1894, after the annexation of the Peralta and the Lorin districts, the number was 2209. In 1904, the number is 4454. This was the number in April of this year, and the number now is nearly, if not quite, 5000. During all these years there has been a steady increase. In no year has there been a decrease.

"In 1900, the only school buildings in Berkeley proper were the Kellogg and the Rose Street, in this part of the town, and the San Pablo Avenue and the Seventh Street in West Berkeley. At that time there were 65 pupils in the High School with 3 teachers, one of whom, the principal, was also obliged to act as superintendent.

"Twenty teachers all told constituted the teaching force—twelve, including the High School in East Berkeley and eight in West Berkeley. When the districts at the south of town were annexed and there had been also quite an increase in all parts of the town, three new buildings were erected, eighteen rooms in all. These were the Whittier, the Columbus and the Le Conte. All of these were occupied and filled with pupils almost as soon as they were finished. Before these were completed the department was compelled to rent rooms in different parts of the town, and at one time there were no less than ten rooms in different localities, that were fitted up for the temporary accommodation of the children. In 1899 the number of pupils demanded increased facilities and the McKinley and the Longfellow school buildings were erected. Two years or so ago twelve rooms were added to the seating capacity of the department, and these are all filled. Besides these, the new High School building, with twenty-two rooms all but two of them of the standard size, has been built and every room is at present occupied. Even now, the demand for additional room is very urgent. The growth of the town now, and the prospects for a continued growth, gives the school management no little anxiety, as to ways and means for providing in the best way possible for the educational wants of the community.

"The ideal conditions are these, so far as the rooms are concerned: to have buildings large enough to admit of a separate division of each grade for every teacher, and to have these buildings situated as far as possible to accommodate the people in the different districts in the best possible manner. This condition of things must come, eventually, if we are to have the best conditions for the carrying on of our schools. A few small schools are needed in the outlying districts for the accommodation of the smaller children, but the concentration of the pupils in the other grades into large schools under the management of a capable principal and corps of teachers, will do much to strengthen the work and to make it more effective.

THE MUSIC DEPARTMENT.

"In addition to the regular work in music, Mrs. Sweesy, our supervisor is organizing glee clubs in all of the larger schools, making use of the best voices in the different grades in the singing of part songs. The boys are taking especial interest in the singing this year, and the results at the end of the year, if all goes as at present, will be very satisfactory. Mention has been made of a great concert, to be given in May in the Greek Theater. Of course, this is, so far, only a plan but it may develop into a reality. It may be done without much effort. The success of the plan will depend largely upon the success of the different clubs in the various grades, mention of which has just been made. One thing is certain, we have the reputation of having about the most progressive and efficient department of vocal music that can be found on the coast.

TARDINESS AND ABSENCE.

"The superintendent desires to thank those patrons of the schools who are cooperating so fully with the efforts being made to secure regularity and promptness in attending the daily sessions of the schools. There has been a marked improvement in this respect. In every school there are and, possibly, there always will be one or two families who furnish nearly all of the delinquents. The Superintendent and the Attendance Officer are laboring continually with some of these people with what result, time alone can tell. It seems too bad that the otherwise excellent records in this regard should be spoiled by the negligence and carelessness of so few. It is our duty to do away with these two evils, if possible, and no efforts will be left untried."

ARRESTED ON AN OLD CHARGE.

THOMAS MULLANEY ARRIVES IN EMERYVILLE AND DEPARTS A PRISONER.

EMERYVILLE, October 15.—Thomas Mullaney arrived in town yesterday morning at 8 o'clock and at 9 o'clock was arrested by Marshal Carey on a charge of disturbing the peace, which was preferred last December by H. Albrecht.

Mullarey, when in an intoxicated state, is said to be inclined to rowdyism, and participated in a saloon row at Albrecht's place, Park avenue and Holden street last December.

He created considerable trouble and did much damage to furniture and fixtures, and then decamped before the officers could arrest him.

This morning he arrived and promptly ran into the arms of the Marshal, who took him before Judge Coburn.

He pleaded not guilty and demanded a jury trial, which was set for October 27. In the meantime he languishes in the county jail.

ASKS FACTS ABOUT COLD STORAGE

Among the many letters asking information regarding the advantages of Oakland received by Secretary Stearns of the Board of Trade, this morning was one from an Eastern manufacturer asking for an idea of the situation regarding the ice and cold storage business in this city. The writer declared that he had an idea of establishing an ice-making and cold-storage plant in the West and was anxious to learn how Oakland was situated in that line of industry. He asked for facts regarding the ruling prices of ice in large quantities to hotels and saloons, as also in smaller quantities to private individuals. The writer closed the letter by stating that he intended later coming to this city to make an investigation for himself.

TRUSTEES HOLD MEETING.

HAYWARDS BOARD HOLDS ADJOURNED SESSION ON STREET MATTERS.

HAYWARDS, October 15.—All members were present at the adjourned meeting of the Board of Trustees last Thursday evening. The subject for discussion was the grading and improving of Castro street. Several of the trustees were opposed to going ahead with the work until the ordinance providing for such was properly constructed. After each member had presented his views on the subject it was decided to give Attorney Ryker until next Wednesday to make out a written report in regard to the legality of the ordinance.

The majority of the members of the Board do not feel justified in commencing the work until the ordinance is thoroughly investigated, as litigation might arise over the matter before the grading was completed.

LEAVES TO BECAME A MISSIONARY

BERKELEY, October 15.—Miss Ella Hewett, the daughter of Mrs. Julia A. Hewett of 2201 Hearst avenue and one of the best known missionaries in the State, left yesterday on the steamer Mongolia for Japan, where she will resume her labors in the missionary field. Accompanying her on the Monolia were thirty other missionaries bound for different ports in the Orient, several from this side of the bay and some from the Eastern States.

Though she has had but a few months' rest, Miss Hewett felt compelled to return to her work in the far Orient. She has already spent ten years in Japan and has been remarkably successful in her field. Miss Hewett is very well known in Berkeley, where she has spoken many times before the various missionary societies.

Her mother and sister, Miss Elizabeth Hewett, were present yesterday, together with a large delegation of friends from Berkeley, to bid her farewell. Miss Elizabeth Hewett will leave on February of next year for South America to enter the mission field there.

NOTES FOR THE WOMEN

QUEEN OF ITALY WITH HER TWO ELDEST CHILDREN, THE PRINCESSES YOLANDA AND MAFALDA.

NOT A POLITICIAN.

When I asked Mrs. Finis P. Ernst, of Denver, if she was not a politician, declares a writer in the National Magazine, she looked at me a trifle indignantly, and said:

"No I'm not. I am a home-maker. Why, I've raised nine children, and how could I find any time for politics when I was doing that?"

When one considers the amount of detail that is incident to the proper handling of even a single baby, the truth of Mrs. Ernst's rather indignant remark is very apparent. But Mrs. Ernst is the president of a political club and I knew it, so I observed with a very apologetic air:

"You're the president of a political organization, though, aren't you, Mrs. Ernst?"

"Ye-es," she said, hesitating a little. "If women are entitled to suffrage in Colorado, they should be interested enough to vote. Why, do you know," (Mrs. Ernst was beginning to get interested herself) "that 50 per cent of the total vote was cast by women? Our organization differs in no way from any other political club.

"We have city committees, ward organizations and precinct committees, and we have accomplished a great deal of good for women and children in the ten years that we have had the right to have a voice in State affairs. The club of which I am president has 3,000 members in Denver alone, and the members vote and see that others vote when any vital question is involved."

"Why don't you elect a woman governor, then?" I asked Mrs. Ernst, out of pure curiosity.

"Why," she said, with apparent surprise, "we haven't ever thought of that, really we haven't. We're all too busy with our home affairs to give up the time. Now I really believe that a woman's first duty is to be a home-maker, and I believe that she can do more good by raising a small family like I have than in any other way. But the women of Colorado have accomplished real good since the right of suffrage was given them, and don't care for office except in a few instances where abuses needed correction. I have never let politics interfere with my home or my social duties, and home always comes first; but when I interest myself in politics, I do so in a matter of fact, business way, and ask no favors that are based upon the fact that we are women instead of men."

A NEW GAME.

A new and original game is called "Commerce," and the requisites are trifling articles done in packages, three to every guest. The parcels contain very inexpensive little things, tinware for the kitchen and small pictures, which may be picked up at a five and ten-cent store; or one may put in vegetables, fruit or jokes of any kind. Each package has an ordinary playing card slipped under the string and the mate to the card is taken from another pack; these are then shuffled and dealt around to each player, who has in addition to his cards, a small dish containing about twenty-five beans. Then someone, stationed there for that purpose, calls off the number of the card on one of the parcels, for instance, the eight of hearts; anyone holding the corresponding eight of hearts receives the package; and so until all are distributed. All now open their bundles very secretly, and if the contents are something they want to keep, nothing more is done with it, but otherwise they tie the article up carefully again, so as not to betray its share, and try to sell it to one of their neighbors for any number of beans. The game is great fun, and much laughing is caused by the ridiculous articles done up in the bundles.

ONLY WOMAN LAWYER OF FRANCE.

Gabrielle Reval, in a series of articles entitled "Our Daughter's Future," in the Echo de Paris, has one on "Lady Barristers," wherein she celebrates Mlle. Chauvin who is the only woman lawyer of France at least the only one who is acknowledged. The difficulties that beset her admission to the bar were enough to discourage any but the most determined, and the cost is not an immaterial matter, since it involves six years study at the rate of between $2000 and $8000 a year. Mlle. Chauvin is authority for the statement that even the great leaders of the French bar do not make more than $15,000 or $20,000 a year, a mere bagatelle to the emoluments of American and English lawyers.

THE LADY CURZON STYLES.

The fashionable coiffure for this winter will be the Lady Curzon style, if the persons who set these fashions are, allowed to decide the question. There is no more becoming ornament for the head than the tiara, and those women who are fortunate enough to possess one may follow this style of coiffure with a certainty of being correct.

Not so sure is the question of becomingness. This arrangement will not suit all faces, and the girl with a thin, pointed chin will find a low coiffure more suited to her style. The hair will be worn low as well as high for formal evening dress, the usual ornament when it is worn low being a rose fastened carelessly at one side, behind the ear.

Women who are not the happy possessors of jewelled tiaras may wear the hair in the same Lady Curzon style with a wreath of small flowers in its waves. As in other matters of fashion now, the point that is to be considered more than that of latest style is what is most becoming.

THE BRAINY DOMESTIC.

A professional woman of inherited wealth and college degrees, who is consulted by gentlewomen forced to earn a living, now advises them to secure situations in good families as housekeepers, caretakers, parlor maids, housemaids, or whatever branch of housework they may have learned in their own homes, or for which they think they have natural inclination or fitness. "If such women put brains into their work they will soon find their level, as does the worker in the arts and professions. It is a poor household, this woman asserts, that will not sooner or later recognize the superior worth of the brainy domestic and reward accordingly.

A HOMOGENEOUS WARDROBE.

A woman whose income is limited and whose suits usually must last at least two seasons has applied herself with diligence to making her slowly acquired wardrobe homogeneous. She selects a "ground color," which may be blue, black, brown or gray, as fancy and style dictate, one, which she knows is becoming to her, and keeps this in mind whenever she goes shopping. Her suits, extra skirts, hats, gloves and little "notions" are bought with this color scheme in view. In this way she is able to vary her costume at little expense by making different combinations. For instance, her house skirt, with its dip and her round length street skirt both match one jacket, which always outwears a skirt. Her fancy waists are either in white or pale tints, so that should they outlast her present choice of dominant color they still would be in good taste. She has found that a white waist simply but becomingly made, trimmed only with clusters of tiny tucks, can be worn alone or as the base for elaborate collarettes and fichus, without anyone remembering more than that she was dressed as the occasion warranted. In this way she wore a cream lansdowne five consecutive years without a change except an occasional dip into gasoline and a subsequent hour or two in the sunshine. And much to her amusement old friends congratulated her on her dainty new waist when she brought it out the fifth spring to "finish it up." This woman has also found that she can suit herself and enjoy in summer her love for various colored gowns, by choosing white hats made piquant by a touch of black. These go with any color she may choose.

THE PROPER CARE OF PET BIRDS.

Those women who buy canaries or parrots for pets and simply ask in a casual manner of the dealer, or of the neighbor, how to feed them, have no idea how far from simple is the bill of fare on which to properly nurture birds. Taking the soft-billed songsters first, there are dried grasshoppers from the West, flies from Mexico, meal worms, and other dainties. Women can raise meal worms since all that is necessary is to have a jar of corn meal, to leave it standing uncovered for some time when it will be found to be infested with fat, white meal worms, the despair of housekeepers, but the delight of birds, who like their meat as fresh as possible. The worms may be bought by the quart of hundred, costing 25 cents a hundred, but it is much cheaper and better to invest a few pennies in meal and have them in good condition. As birds relish something besides meat, it is well to give them a certain amount of fruit, and this cannot be too fresh. A quarter of a ripe peach, a little bit of pear, or a berry or two are gratefully received.

Parrots must be even more carefully fed, since they are specially delicate, and prone to diseases. Nuts, that are not too oily, and fruits, especially oranges are good for them, with now and then a red pepper. Hard-boiled egg seasoned with a little pepper is excellent food for any bird, and green food of some sort, preferably chickweed or cress, all birds should have. If persons keeping pet birds would remember that sudden changes in temperature are almost sure death to their pets, that drafts will surely give them bronchitis and pneumonia, and that they need much such treatment in illness as human beings have, there would be fewer deaths among caged birds—and keepers of bird stores would make less money.

CARE OF THE HAIR.

When the hair is in a healthy condition it is more or less oily and glossy. This state is caused by the sending out of the oily nutriment on which the hair grows and lives. To wash the hair too frequently is to cause it to become harsh and dry. A shampoo every fortnight is as often as the hair should be subjected to a drenching. Use six eggs and plenty of hot water. If one's tress locks become oily in the meantime, rub a little diluted alcohol into the scalp.

PLAN THEIR OWN GOWNS.

"I am amused as I watch women in a small city strain every nerve to keep up with the style, and in the end they are not well dressed," said a young New York society woman recently. "Only this morning a pretty little cousin of mine lamented that she had nothing to wear to the theatre tonight. When I suggested a white cotton shirt-waist, since she was not to sit in a box, she went away exceedingly sorrowful, her faith in my good sense woefully diminished. Yet a canny New York woman would never question the appropriateness of a well cut white waist for any but the most formal and elaborate occasions. As for her other clothes, if a suit or a dress is becoming she wears it regardless of style. But then, the best dressed women plan their own gowns now and so are able to give them an individuality and piquancy which transcends and outlasts any so-called 'style' for they belong to the woman and she to them in more than a superficial sense. For instance, this gown I am wearing tonight was made seven years ago and yet it is in just as good taste as it was the day it was made because it 'looks like me.' Nothing planned wholly by a modiste could do that, for her gowns must necessarily be like the proverbial corporation, soulless."

AN ORIGINAL ENTERTAINMENNT.

A number of young girls entertained themselves one glorious autumn day by raking a large lawn. The bright reds and yellows of the fallen maple leaves made a gorgeous carpet and in its crisp beauty all found delight. The rakes were decorated with ribbons, two of each shade, and the individuals drawing them were partners for the afternoon, carrying between them the basket which bore the same color. Each rake was numbered and on that number each person had one guess, the leader giving that particular rake to the one guessing nearest. Tied to it was found a small souvenir, a box of fudge, salted peanuts, almonds, or some other trifle dear to a schoolgirl's heart. After many hands had made light work, all were invited into the house, where, seated, at small tables, they were served with dainty refreshments.

THE FASHIONABLE SUPPER.

Just at present supper is the fashionable meal, says Good Housekeeping, and a delightful thing it is for both guests and hostess. A supper is much simpler to prepare and serve than a dinner ever can be, and by its informality it is the more charming; it has ever taken the place of the luncheon of late, especially in the smaller places, but it is as appropriate in the city as in the country.

Always use a bare table for a supper. No matter how disfigured it may be, or how lacking in polish, it is quite easy to rub it up and discreetly veil its imperfections with doilies, small dishes and candles and plenty of flowers until it looks as good as new. Any sort of doily will do, from the fringed damask napkin six inches across to the most elaborate lace-edged affair, but both doilies and centerpiece should, if possible, be white; that is, either plain or embroidered in white linen or silk. To light the table, use silver or brass individual sticks if you have them; if not, invest in two pairs of the pretty twisted glass candlesticks to be had now for fifty cents a pair. Use candles to match the flowers if you use metal sticks, but clear white ones with glass. As to shades, either have none at all—a very pretty fashion—or keep the color of the flowers still. Pink shaded candles in glass sticks with pink roses and plenty of asparagus fern make a beautiful table, and red carnations with maiden-hair ferns and red shaded candles are lovely also.

WOMAN JURORS AT ST. LOUIS.

The three women jurors from Georgia on the jury of awards of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, have attracted the general attention and admiration of those in authority by efficiency of the work and their most evident ability to fill the honor of the office.

The eldest of the three, Mrs. William H. Felton, whose work in the agricultural department has been remarkable, is a woman capacitated to judge not only from the standpoint of theoretical knowledge, but actual experience. For a number of years she has successfully operated the farm upon which she resides, near Cartersville, Ga., and her addresses and newspaper articles on agricultural matters are most valuable productions.

In the department of ceramic art, Mrs. Isaac Boyd has done excellent work as a juror, her knowledge and application of art capacitating her for the position.

Mrs. Joseph Scrutchin, one of Georgia's most scholarly women made a brilliant report in the department of mines and metallurgy, and gives a most interesting account of the great exhibit in that line.

HINTS OF SUBTLETY.

An interesting woman must always have a mauve gown. Mauve invites curiosity, gives hints of subtlety and tempermental chairoscuro; mauve is religious, transcendental and vibrant with unlimited emotion.

Picture this little toilette in mauve voile figured with silk violets in the same shade and made over shimmering taffeta, the pleats flitched flat to six inches below the waist; the bodice is trimmed with rare thread lace and ornamented with amethyst buttons; an amethyst belt buckle and a necklace of amethyst beads complete the dress which is worn with a toque of lace trimmed with orchids.

SALT WATER BATH.

A woman undergoing treatment for that most distressing of all ailments, nervous prostration, has found help, among other remedies tried, in the use of salt water in her daily cold bath. She soaks a rough wash-cloth in a strong solution of sea-salt, dries it, and rubs vigorously with it, every morning, till the flesh is in a glow.

SOME GOOD RECIPES.

Baked Egg Plant—Cut egg plant in halves and bake as one would hubbard squash. Scoop out and add one egg, beaten, salt, pepper and butter. Return to shell and sprinkle cracker crumbs on the top. Brown in oven.

Chocolate Cake—Cream together one cup of sugar and a heaping tablespoon of butter. Add the yolks of two eggs and half a cup of milk slowly. Cook half a cup of milk with two squares of chocolate until thick. Add when partially cool to first mixture. Add one level teaspoon of soda dissolved in a little hot water, two cups of flour and one teaspoon of vanilla. Bake in two layers.

Marshmallow Filling—Cook two cups of sugar, one cup of water, one tablespoon of vinegar until it hairs. Pour it slowly into the beaten whites of two eggs, beating constantly. Flavor and when thick enough spread between the layers of cake with the fingers, first dipping them in water. Sprinkle the top of cake with powdered sugar.

Baked Mangoes—Cut off the tops from six green, large mangoes; scrape out all the veins and seeds; soak in cold water half an hour. Chop enough cold meat or chicken to fill a large cup; to this add one cup of dry bread crumbs, half a cup of chopped onion, one tablespoonful of butter and one-half teaspoon of salt. Mix together with one well-beaten egg and two tablespoons of water. Fill the mangoes, put the tops on, place in a small baking pan so they will stand up, put in boiling water until the pan is half full; cover and cook slowly on top of stove half an hour. Then take off the covers, sprinkle the tops with bread crumbs and bake half an hour in a moderate oven, or until the mangoes are soft. Serve hot.

Kidney Bean Salad—Drain the liquor from one can of red kidney beans. To the beans add one and a half cups of celery cut fine, one cup sweet pickles cut fine and four hard boiled eggs diced. Over all sprinkle one teaspoon of salt. Bind together with mayonnaise.

Dainty Rolls—Sift together one quart of flour, one level teaspoon of salt, two level teaspoons of sugar and two heaping teaspoons of baking powder. Into this drop one heaping teaspoon each of butter and lard. Cut with knife until free from lumps, then mix together with one small cup of sweet milk. Mold for five minutes without adding more flour. Roll into a sheet half an inch thick, spread with soft butter, sprinkle with half a cup of sugar and two teaspoons of ground cinnamon. Roll it up tightly and slice in one inch pieces. Lay them flat in a baking pan, not too close together; sprinkle over with sugar and bake in a hot oven twenty minutes. Serve hot.

Dutch Buns—Cream together two cups of sugar, one-half a cup of molasses, three-fourths of a cup of butter and the yolks of five eggs; then add three-fourths of a cup of sweet milk, a pinch of salt, one teaspoon of vanilla and three cups of flour sifted with two heaping teaspoons of baking powder. Lastly the beaten whites of the eggs. Spread not over half an inch thick in well-buttered bread pans. Strew the top thickly with chopped nuts (hickory nuts are preferred, but peanuts are very nice); then bake in a slow oven about half an hour and while hot cut into four-inch squares; slip knife under them and pile on a dish.

Grape Catsup—Cook eight pounds of grapes with one cup of water. When well cooked put through a sieve. Return to the fire and cook until as thick as catsup. Then add one and a half tablespoons of cinnamon, one teaspoon of cloves, one-half teaspoon of nutmeg and one-eighth teaspoon of red pepper. Do not cook after the spices are in. Stir well and seal.

MISUNDERSTOOD.

"Why did she get so angry when her husband referred to her as his better half?"

POULTRY SEEKING PRIZES.

CAR-LOAD OF BIRDS LEAVES MONDAY FOR FAIR AT ST. LOUIS.

Next Monday night a car nearly filled with prize poultry will leave this city consigned to the great poultry and pigeon show which is to be held at the Columbian Exposition in St. Louis, during the last two weeks of the fair. The unoccupied section will be filled by exhibits of birds, which will be picked up all along the line and, in a special manner, in the southern part of the State.

This enterprise is the work of the Oakland Poultry Association, which has aroused interest in the matter among the poultry raisers and bird fanciers throughout California.

The consignment will include medalists in previous shows and some new birds which are now making their debut in poultry social circles. Among them will be the pick of the standard breeds, including Leghorns, Plymouth Rocks, Brahmas, Orpingtons, Games, Cochins, etc.

The consignment will be under the charge of L. N. Cobledick of this city, J. C. Williams and Henry Berrar of San Jose.

The birds selected will undoubtedly make a showing in the competition which will be thoroughly representative of California's great poultry business, and which will undoubtedly prove remunerative financially, because the owners expect to win some of the premiums which have been offered by the fair association, which amount to $25,000.

There will be forty-one States represented in the exhibit, and California rank eleventh among them in the number of entries for the prize contest.

RAILWAY CLUB TO MEET.

MEMBERS WILL LISTEN TO PAPER READ BY T. J. HENDERSON TONIGHT.

The next regular meeting of the Pacific Coast Railway Club will be held at the Palace Hotel, San Francisco, this evening. The meeting will be called to order at 8.30 o'clock. The paper of the evening will, it is expected, be highly interesting. It is entitled "Combustion, or the Source of Energy in the Locomotive." The author is T. J. Henderson. This is the first paper that the club members have had on this subject, and no doubt there will be a large attendance.

CARS JUMP TRACK.

Several cars of oil attached to train No. 280 left the rails at San Leandro yesterday afternoon, but no serious damage was done. The wrecking train was sent to the scene from the West Oakland yards and the cars were soon placed back on the track. It is supposed that the cars left the track because of the spreading of the rails.

SHOP AND YARD NOTES.

Ernest Holcomb, who has been on the sick list for the past two weeks is reported to be recovering from his illness.

The regular monthly visit of the pay checks is due next Monday.

The members of the fire department at the West Oakland yards will have their pictures taken Sunday morning at the yards.

Mr. Folger, a representative of the Nove Steel Company, visited the West Oakland yards yesterday afternoon.

The Southern Pacific ferry Solano was inspected yesterday by the United States Inspectors.

Also for the purpose of submitting to the electors of the State of California amendments to the Constitution of said State submitted by the Legislature at the last session thereof.

Also, for the purpose of submitting to the electors of the State of California the act of the Legislature designated as the "San Francisco Sea Wall Act," said constitutional amendments and said act of the Legislature, designated as the San Francisco Sea Wall Act, being numbered and specified in the said proclamation of the Governor of the said State of California, to be voted for by the electors of this State.

In accordance with the proclamation of the Governor of the State of California issued on the 28th day of September, A. D 1904, calling a special election throughout the Fourteenth Senatorial District of the State of California on Tuesday, November 8th, A. D. 1904, at which special election the following officer will be elected, to wit:

One Senator from the Fourteenth Senatorial District of the State of California, to serve for the unexpired term of J. R. Knowland, resigned.

It is hereby ordered by this Board that a copy of the said proclamation of the Governor of the State of California calling a general election be posted at each place of election in said County of Alameda as heretofore established by said Board of Supervisors of said County of Alameda and now legally existing, at least ten days before said election:

And it is hereby further ordered by this Board that a copy of the said proclamation of the Governor of the State of California calling a special election throughout said Fourteenth Senatorial District be posted at each place of election in said Fourteenth Senatorial District as heretofore established by said Board of Supervisors of said County of Alameda, and now legally existing at least ten days before said election.

And it is hereby further ordered by this Board that a copy of said proclamation of the Governor of the State of California and a copy of the proclamation of this Board be posted at the Court House door of the Court House of the County of Alameda, and at two other public places in said County of Alameda, at least fifteen days before said election.

And it is hereby further ordered that a copy of the said proclamation of the Governor of the State of California calling a general election be published in the Berkeley Daily Gazette, a newspaper published and circulated in the said County of Alameda for ten days before said election.

And it is hereby further ordered that a copy of the said proclamation of the Governor of the State of California calling a special election in the Fourteenth Senatorial District of the State of California be published in the Alameda Daily Argus, a newspaper printed, published and circulated in the said County of Alameda, and in the said Fourteenth Senatorial District for ten days before said election.

And it is hereby further ordered that the County proclamation herein contained be published in the Oakland Daily Enquirer and Oakland Daily Tribune, newspapers printed, published and circulated in said County of Alameda for fifteen days prior to election.

And it is hereby further ordered in pursuance of law that the following shall be the offices to be filled at said election, and the numerical order of the same at said election:

1. Ten Electors of President and Vice President of the United States
2. One Representative to Congress in and for the Third Congressional District of the State of California.
3. One Representative to Congress for the Third Congressional District of the State of California for the unexpired term.
4. One Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of California for the unexpired term.
5. One member of the Senate of the State of California in and for the Thirteenth Senatorial District of said State.
6. One member of the Senate of the State of California in and for the Fourteenth Senatorial District, for the unexpired term.
7. One member of the Senate of the State of California in and for the Fifteenth Senatorial District of said State.
8. One member of the Assembly in and for the 46th Assembly District of the State of California.
9. One member of the Assembly in and for the 47th Assembly District of the State of California.
10. One member of the Assembly in and for the 48th Assembly District of the State of California.
11. One member of the Assembly in and for the 49th Assembly District of the State of California.
12. One member of the Assembly in and for the 50th Assembly District of the State of California.
13. One member of the Assembly in and for the 51st Assembly District of the State of California.
14. One member of the Assembly in and for the 52nd Assembly District of the State of California.
15. Member of the Board of Supervisors in and of the Supervisor District No. 1, of said County of Alameda.
16. Member of the Board of Supervisors in and for Supervisor District No. 4, of said County of Alameda.
17. Member of the Board of Supervisors in and for Supervisor District No. 5, of said County of Alameda.

And it is hereby further ordered that pursuant to Sec. 1150 of the Political Code (which requires that the polls must be opened at six o'clock in the morning of the day of election and must be kept opened until five o'clock in the afternoon of the same day, when the polls shall be closed.)

That the polls shall be opened at six o'clock in the morning on Tuesday, November 8th, A. D. 1904, and shall be closed at five o'clock p. m of said day.

And it is hereby further ordered that the election precincts in said County of Alameda shall be as heretofore established and fixed by said Board of Supervisors and as the same now legally exists, the boundaries of which said precincts are hereinafter in this proclamation defined and set forth.

And it is hereby further ordered that the following named persons be and the same are hereby appointed as members of the boards of election in the respective election precincts of the County of Alameda as indicated, and that the polling places mentioned below be and the same are hereby designated as the places or houses within each of said precincts where the said election must be held, viz:

AT my office at 128 Geary street, can be seen daily a lady's face which has been treated by my scientific method on one side for crow's feet and dark circles about the eye, wrinkles about the mouth and in front of the ear, lost contour and sallow complexion The before-treatment side looks every day its 66 years. The after-treatment side looks not a day over 33 years. Furthermore, I want to state that this work was done just two years ago and there is not a sign of a breakage or wrinkle, which speaks most emphatically for permanency. As for the beauty and expression, inspection is most cordially invited.

SALT TALK—
No product of food is as liable to contamination as Salt. Many disease germs lurk in Salt. It cost no more to get a pure non bay-sewerage Salt, and if you will ask your grocer for Leslie Sterilized Salt, you will have a chemically pure article.
But be sure it is Leslie's.
Does not clog or harden. Shakes freely from salt cellar, and it's sterilized for Table, Kitchen and Bath.

SPORTS

Notes From Field and Clubhouse

ASSOCIATION FOOTBALL MATCHES TOMORROW.

Albion Rovers and Oakland Hornets.

BY THE WAYFARER.

Indications point to ideal weather for tomorrow, when the association football game will be formally opened on both sides of the bay. Last Sunday was to have been the initial day, but the heavy rain was the means of the postponement.

The sport of association football has had to overcome many obstacles in this country which have not occurred in Rugby football. Indeed, for sport, pure and simple, association football takes precedence over all other forms of sport.

It is admitted on all sides that the danger in university football is more or less very great. Seldom indeed does one hear of an injury received in association. All this bids fair for the game here, and every year the enthusiasm is increasing and today the game is beginning to receive its just reward—recognition by the American people.

Albion Rovers and Oakland Hornets will oppose each other at Freeman's Park at 2:30 tomorrow. Great interest is being manifested in the meeting of these two teams, as they are old rivals and the fact of it being the first game of the new season, each team will want to register a win.

Both teams are stronger than last year, but the Rovers are more so than their opponents, having a well-balanced team, which will take some beating.

Pomeroy is a hard worker, and he thoroughly deserves a good team, but the Hornets last season got the name of "hoo-doo" eleven, but now it seems as if this disagreeable individual had been ousted and tomorrow the Hornets will put a team on the field composed of some of the best players on the coast.

The Albions will introduce an imported English football, which is said to be a fine specimen and of an endurable make.

Conolly will not be able to appear for the Hornets tomorrow, owing to being out of the county.

The Hornets, in conjunction with the Eagles and Pickwicks, will practice at Idora after the baseball game tomorrow morning. The first-named club will leave for Freeman's at 2 o'clock.

J. A. BARLOW, VICE-PRESIDENT OF THE ALBION ROVERS FOOTBALL CLUB AND FIRST VICE-PRESIDENT OF THE CALIFORNIA ASSOCIATION FOOTBALL UNION.

Clubs and Their Prospects For the Season.

Thistles will play at Freeman's Park. The Thistles were champions of the League last season and the proceeds of the game will go to purchase badges for the winners. It should be a great game, and a large gathering will be the result.

The Independents have signed an agreement with the Albions to play alternately on Freeman's Park this season. The Independents were the cup winners last season, and are even a better and more powerful team this year. This should be a good thing for the sport in Oakland and much praise is due the Albions' executive in securing the cooperation of such a club.

Alameda Eagles will hold a musical entertainment and drill at Guild Hall, Santa Clara avenue and Grand street, on Monday, October 31.

Word has come to me that some players are hanging back in signing or identifying themselves with some club. Players of this sort should not be coaxed, and if there is any truth in the rumor that certain clubs are offering financial inducements, the matter should be taken up both by the Football Union and the Pacific Amateur Athletic Association. Another proceeding which will do considerable to harm the sport, is that of the best players holding back so as to be able to enter the strongest team. Why not, seeing the teams are all playing under amateur rules, have more evenly balanced teams. When such players are severely dealt with, then only will the game be what it should be.

The portrait of J. A. Barlow appears with this week's article. Mr Barlow is a well-known figure in football circles. He is one of the vice-presidents of the Albion Rovers Football Club, and also first vice-president of the California Association Football Union. He is an enthusiastic worker for the Albion Rovers, and a member of the "old gang."

The meeting of the Albions at the St. Julian Hotel last Monday evening was a complete success. J. Stewart was elected league delegate for the club, and the interests of the team are undoubtedly placed in capable hands. Sully acted as pianist.

SPORTING NOTES OF INTEREST.

ITEMS RELATING TO THE FIELD, CLUB AND ARENA.

Errors made by San Francisco gave the game to Oakland yesterday afternoon by a score of 5 to 1. Dr. Moskiman delivered the benders for the Commuters while Barber performed a similar duty for Harris.

No game was played yesterday afternoon between Seattle and Los Angeles on the former's grounds on account of rain. And for the same reason the Tacoma-Portland affair was called off at Tacoma.

Lick won from Polytechnic across the bay yesterday afternoon by a score of 4 to 0. The tally was made early in the game on a place kick for a goal thirty-three yards from the line.

A benefit game will be played tomorrow at 12:30 o'clock at Idora Park, between the Orients and Rowells. The game is to be in the nature of a benefit for James Matthews, captain and shortstop of the Orients, who recently had the misfortune to lose his hand in an accident.

Mr. Britt says that he would rather see his son Jimmy on Slab 8 than in the ring with a negro. The tender solicitude of these proud pugilistic papas is really quite touching.

The Pacific Amateur Athletic Association will hold a preliminary try-out on the Berkeley cinder path, Saturday, October 22. The try-out is for the purpose of getting a line on the athletes who will go to Portland next year.

Providing the weather does not interfere, the benefit game of ball for Frank Cullen will be played at Newark to-morrow.

A prize run to Livermore and return will be held to-morrow by motorcycles. The start and finish will be at the foot of Broadway, Oakland.

FRESHMEN TENNIS CHAMPION.

Herbert Schmidt defeated Charles Lumbard in the finals of the University of California freshman class tournament Thursday afternoon and has won the title of champion of the '08 class for 1904. Although the score of the last two sets, 6-4, 6-2, appears to be considerably lopsided this is far from being so.

Both Lumbard and Schmidt played a good game of tennis and the general opinion of those who saw the contest is that it was the best seen on the court this year. Both men were free with their drives and these were spiced up by a variety of lobs which were very effective especially in the case of Lumbard, who failed repeatedly to return the well-placed sphere.

If Lumbard had come to the net it is believed he would have located more points, for Schmidt was true as a die in his lobbing. Lumbard, on the other hand, lobbed a trifle too short, and Schmide placed the ball on either side or along the base line almost at will. Schmidt played a beautiful game of tennis and used his head better than almost any player ever seen on the University courts. The final score of the match is 9-7, 4-6, 6-4, 6-2.

It is expected that the interclass singles tournament will be finished by next Tuesday and then the doubles tourney will be commenced. The entry list is the largest in the history of the University tennis and the class of game put up by the teams will be better than is generally seen on the courts. The team so far entered are:

Freshmen—Lumbard and Smillie, Schmidt and Butler, Morgan and C. Variel.

Sophomores—Lane and Wayne, Lowell and Francis, Gorrill and Whittaker, Wright and Newhall.

Juniors—R. Variel and McDuffie, Esterly and Linford, Rolfe and Baker.

Seniors—McCollough and Noble, Doremus and McGavin.

PERMIT GRANTED FOR FIGHT.

MANAGER COFFROTH WILL HOLD BRITT-GANS CONTEST WITHOUT OPPOSITION.

Exactly forty-five seconds were required yesterday for the Supervisors' Police Commission to report in favor of granting a permit to the Shasta Club for the October date.

James Coffroth, manager of the Shasta Club, Willie Britt, Morris Levy and a host of sporting men were present at the meeting.

After the commission had reported favorably on the permit the meeting adjourned. It is confidently expected that no difficulty will be experienced in receiving a favorable consideration from the Supervisors next Monday.

Manager Coffroth has always acted fairly and has never sought to obtain a permit for a fight out of his turn. And he always has a good show; the Britt-Gans contest will be one exception to this rule of his.

It is to be decided by Jimmy Britt this afternoon where he will make his training quarters. He will decide between the Seal Rock House and Croll's Gardens in Alameda. Britt has a strong liking for the quarters on this side of the bay, but it would be to the best interests of the club management for him to get into condition in San Francisco where he could be viewed by the largest number of fans.

"BABY" ELEVENS PLAYING.

The freshman elevens of the University of California and the University of Stanford are contesting this afternoon on the Berkeley gridiron in the eleventh intercollegiate freshman football game.

There have been in all ten freshman football games. From this number, California has won four and Stanford six. The total number of points scored by California freshmen in this time is 101, and the total number made by Stanford freshmen is 64. The largest score made by California in one game is 44—0, made by the class of '99 in 1895. The largest score made by a Stanford baby team is 12—0, made last year by the class of 1907. The greatest number of points California has made in a single freshman game is 44, and the greatest number by Stanford in one game is 14.

INTER-SCHOOL BOWLING.

KNIGHTS FROM OAKLAND AND BERKELEY HIGH SCHOOLS MAY MEET.

There is a strong possibility that ere long the rival schoolboys of the Oakland and Berkeley High Schools will meet on the bowling alleys in the popular sport which is as yet not included in the athletic activities of the Academic Leagues or the Intercollegiate contests.

Berkeley has, since Wright's Alleys were built, developed a number of expert bowlers who have given a good account of themselves in club meets. No interschool contests have taken place for the reason that no rivalry has sprung up in the neighboring cities.

Within the past few weeks, however, the Oakland boys have been taking an interest in the game and have developed material for making a good team. It is quite probable the representation from the two schools will meet and arrange for a series of games to be played during the winter.

DUCK HUNTERS ARE BUSY.

SEASON OPENS AND MANY LOCAL MARKSMEN SEEK THE MARSHES.

Ducks are flying high today.

The season during which ducks, curlew, valley quail and plover may be killed within the law opened this morning and a host of local sportsmen were on the marshes at dawn to greet the members of the feathered tribe.

Duck hunters claim that there are more birds within this State than ever before at this time in the season. There has been a very hard winter in the north and the birds have been driven down this way early. The unusual condition of the weather the past week or so has left the sportsmen at sea as to the number of birds to be seen today. It is believed that before many days have passed limit bags will be to order.

The TRIBUNE herewith presents a few of the many local sportsmen who are seeking the resorts of the ducks.

Clyde Patterson, Arthur Meed and Wilkes Pickard will journey tonight to the vicinity of Los Banos.

Tom Rudelick and Chick Cooper have constructed a "blind" in the bay off the Brown-Grange Mole and expect to capture the limit.

George Schmidt, Dr. J. A. D. Hutton, W. C. Dibble, Billy Such of Berkeley are shooting the feathered ones in the neighborhood of Giant. They have one of the best preserves in the county.

Dr. C. F. Grossman and George Francks are over in Contra Costa county enjoying the sport in Sullivan's ranch.

E. P. Brown, H. Jeffries and Fred Sergeant have gone to Half-Moon Bay for a five-days' shoot.

"Smiling Smiddy" of the Oakland team and Fred Petine have constructed a "blind" at the Key Route Mole and they expect to slaughter the game.

W. J. Bowman and R. E. Leet have departed for Los Banos and expect to come home with the bag limit.

Oakland will be well represented in the vicinity of Los Banos. A party consisting of the following huntsmen will awaken the echoes near that town: Clyde Carmen, Fred G. Jones, Robert Leckie, George B. M. Gray, H. Windmuller, N. J. Bowman, Robert Leet, Roscoe Havens, Al Olander, George Adams, George Jackson, Frank Adams.

E. J. Stuart will attempt to bag a few quail at Mount Eden.

J. Mathews, Senator Russ Lukins, Senator Leavitt, Dr. Harry Travis and J. Cal Ewing have all selected their favorite guns and ammunition at the Pierce Hardware Company's store and will hunt on Victoria Island in the San Joaquin River.

J. Crumley has gone to Monterey.

Van S. Taylor, Charles Bolce, E. F. Robbins and Fred Johns will be the guests of the Pastime Gun Club at Alviso.

Dr. Gilman, H. P. Bancroft, W. J. Wilson and George Edmonds will slay the wily duck in the vicinity of Alvarado.

George Lackie, Thomas Warren and Louis Geischer have selected the Alviso bridges as their hunting grounds.

County Treasurer A. W. Feidler is shooting quail in the Livermore Valley. He has a good stable of dogs and should bag the limit.

Thomas Hanson, Dr. J. Shannon and Ed McGeary left, with a complete hunting outfit, for Cygress, Marin county, where they will spend several days duck hunting.

J. Laveago and W. C. Little left yesterday in their ark for San Pablo Bay. They are noted duck men and should be able to treat their friends to a quantity of the toothsome bird on their return.

A. P. Leach and L. W. Platt are bagging quail in Crow Canyon, on the Meek estate near Haywards.

Judge Mortimer Smith is shooting at ducks near San Leandro. The Judge has never distinguished himself as a nimrod, but if enthusiasm counts for anything he will bag the limit before noon.

J. Lanktree and C. Crowell have gone by yacht to Alvarado to puncture the atmosphere with their bullets.

Joseph Ghirardelli and James Dunham left Wednesday for Los Banos and will doubtless come back laden with game.

Charles Vogel, port captain of the California Yacht Club will cruise through the Montezuma marshes for the next two weeks, in his launch "Teal" in quest of ducks.

J. A. Vatjo is shooting at Bay Farm Island.

Perhaps Tom Williams' theory was no too bad as his horse. And surely the conversation that led up to the match was more interesting that the race.

FOR PORTLAND'S '05 TEAM.

DUGDALE HAS HIRED SIX PLAYERS FOR HIS NEW NINE.

MEN RESERVED BY DUGDALE.

Pitchers—Jake Thielman and Ike Butler.

Infielder—Erve Beck.

Outfielders—Nadeau, Drennan, McCreedie.

Six of the present team have been reserved by Manager Dugdale in his list that has so far been filed. He expects to add several names to the list however, before the expiration of the time limit, November 1. The names of the men are given in the foregoing. Ira Hastings was included in the list that was filed with Secretary Anderson, of the Coast League, but was, of course, stricken from the reserve when he was released. There has been some little attempt at criticism founded on the assumption that Dugdale might not have the men to commence the season of 1905, but he argues that he was not able to win the pennant with the players he had, and why should he retain their services for another year?

The fat man gives assurance that Portland will have a team that will come to the front next year. Runkle was promised his release by Walter Wilmot, who managed Butte and expects to secure it. As soon as he does, he will be signed up with Portland. Stanley is another man Dugdale thinks he will have for sure next season, and Hugh Kellackey, who played this year with Boise was first baseman and change catcher, is added to the team. Harry Spencer is to be reserved, so that Portland will be better off than this time last year.

On Wednesday, October 19, the Oakland Stars will club roll on the Palace alleys.

ALL MANAGERS MAY RESORT TO SHARP PRACTICE—HE WILL NOT.

Secretary Farrell, of the National Baseball Association, has made a ruling regarding the drafting of players that will be of particular interest to the Coast League. It is to the effect that non-reserve players are exempt from draft, as contract expires with the end of the playing season.

President Bert wrote Secretary Farrell, requesting some information on the subject, as the ruling affects Tacoma. The Tacoma Club claims that both Overall and Graham hold non-reserve contracts and therefore cannot be drafted. It is known that Graham does not want to play with Detroit, as he has business interests on the Coast. With Overall it is different. The collegian wants all the glory that is coming, and he wired President Herrmann, of the Cincinnati Club, insisting that if there was any draft money due it should be paid to him, and not to Mike Fisher.

As the Pacific Coast League entered the National agreement late its contracts with its players were not called for by Farrell and therefore the standing of the men with their respective clubs will be left to the word of the managers who pay their salaries. As matters now stand, all the managers, excepting Lohman, can resort to sharp practice by claiming that none of their players was reserved and ergo all are exempt from the draft clause.

WHITE TO FIGHT "CORBETT."

"Young Corbett" and Jabez White of England probably will meet within a few months for international pugilistic honors. White fights at 130 pounds and is reckoned as the best fighter of his class in England.

Charles Mitchell, representing the English lad, has practically agreed to terms for the bout and only the formal signing of an agreement remains to be done.

WHAT O'BRIEN HAS TO SAY.

WANTS A MATCH WITH "KID" McCOY OR A BATTLE WITH RYAN.

That busy boxer, Jack O'Brien of Philadelphia, has this to say about Tommy Ryan:

"If he is entitled to the honor of boss of our division, well and good, but it has been so long since he defended it I have my doubts as to his rights. He demands, I understand, that I train down to 156 pounds, which he knows is impossible. The weight limit for our class is 158 pounds, and I will agree to scale at 3 o'clock on the afternoon of the fight. If this is suitable to him I will sign articles immediately and permit him to name the financial conditions. There is but one place to fight, and that is California, and several Frisco clubs have been after the match for over a year.

"I thought I could get McCoy for Los Angeles, but I understand he is tied up with another match with Jack 'Twin' Sullivan, whom I defeated in three rounds, or seventeen rounds less than it took the 'Kid,' and he did not put him away at that."

O'Brien's next fight of importance will be with Joe Choynski. The fight is scheduled to take place at St. Louis on October 20th, and will be a fifteen round affair. The House Point, New York, Club, which offered $10,000 for the O'Brien-Ryan fight a short while ago, died a natural death.

NEW YORK, October 15—Captain S. S. Brown, the Pittsburg millionaire turfman and mine-owner, is seriously ill in this city from appendicitis. An operation had been planned Friday at his rooms in the Hoffman House, but the surgeons thought best to defer it until their patient received further preliminary treatment.

It is expected the battle will take place some time in January next before the National Athletic Club of London.

A purse of $10,000 and a large side bet will be the prize.

TRAINER A SLAVE TO APPARATUS.

HOW DOES THE AVERAGE HORSE SURVIVE ALL THAT'S GIVEN HIM?

The average trainer and driver is a slave to the boots, bits, body, and leg washes and patent contraptions in general for the alleged benefit of horses that are placed on the market every season by shrewd folk who realize that not more than one trainer in a score has a practical knowledge of the business he is engaged in. That is why so few trainers of harness horses make any permanent success. Almost any man who stays in the game will run across a first class horse, and by virtue of the inherent merits of that animal he will ride in front for a season or two, after which he retires to his original secussion in "the bushes."

The wonder is that the average horse survives the meshes that are forced down his throat in the shape of so-called stimulants, speedmakers, and tonics; and that his hair and hide come safely through the course of leg and body washes, liniments, and salves imposed upon them by the average trainer. When to this is added toe weights, side weights, spreaders, check reins, galting poles, and about forty other devices to annoy animals that are deserving of good treatment it is no wonder that only about one out of every one hundred horses that are "trained" ever amounts to anything in the racing line.

EAGLES HOLD A CLUB ROLL.

The Eagles bowled their club roll last night on the Palace alleys and made a very good score for four men. Reeves and Kennedy did not play on account of sickness. The score is as follows:

	1st Game	2d Game	3d Game	T'l'h
J. U. Bird	201	156	180	537
J. Berquest	170	198	196	564
L. Campbell	220	168	165	553
F. Bateman	141	208	148	497
	732	730	689	2151

The old Palace team will reorganize on Thursday, October 20, and make their headquarters at the Palace. This is a fast team and will make some of the other teams go some.

BRITT AND THE COLOR QUESTION.

BY EDDIE SMITH.

At this time, when all the sports are talking Britt and Gans, and a good many are wondering at Britt's intention to fight a colored man, it may be interesting to some to know a little of Britt's feelings on the race question.

Jimmy Britt's agreement to fight Gans has been more of a surprise to his many friends than to those that do not know him personally. Just after Britt fought Erne, the talk commenced relative to his fighting Gans. One evening Britt was sitting in the Louvre in San Francisco with Nat Goodwin and two young ladies, when a friend approached and asked Britt his reason for not wanting to fight a colored man. His reply was:

"I pride myself on having enough intelligence to know that just as sure as I have fought and won my first fight, the time will come when I must taste defeat. And when that time does come and the referee has counted ten, I don't want to look up and see a colored fighter standing over me."

A great many people have thought Britt afraid of Gans. But this is a mistake, as anyone who really knows him will say that he fears nothing. To show how fearless and confident Britt is of his pugilistic powers:

"When he fought Erne, who was at that time considered a very dangerous man, I went over to see him in regards to the rules of the contest. Erne had told me that he figured that if Britt knocked him down, his past experience would carry him through the tight places. But, he reasoned, should he drop Britt, that fighter would surely taste defeat.

This made me curious and so I asked Britt what he would do if Erne dropped him. He answered very quickly: "Ed, don't worry, he'll never drop me."

When Jimmy was an amateur and fighting in the club tournaments, a young fighter from the West Oakland Club, by the name of Billy Bevert, entered the tournament and the first night drew with a lad named Carroll, who was supposed to be Britt's hardest man in the tourney. Bevert ran across the ring and knocked Carroll out in gig time. This caused the Olympic Club boys to become alarmed and they told Jimmy to stay, that the boy from Oakland was too much for him at slugging.

This only made Britt mad and he said: "Just to show you I can beat him at his own game, I will try him at his kind of fighting. And the next tournament night when the youngsters fought, Britt mixed it from the jump and won. Thus he shows his extreme confidence in himself.

Britt first learned the rudiments of the boxing business at the Phoenix Athletic Club, where Jimmy Lawler and Henry and Billy Lewis were turned out. The Lewis boys, especially Henry, were always boxing with the white boys of the club and in fact they were the only colored fighters that belong to the organization.

In all time the time Britt was in the club he never had a glove on with either of the Lewis boys, although he considered them his friends. It was simply his early feelings and was one reason why he did not meet Gans long ago.

Britt, in facing Gans, will lose nothing socially, as a fighter is expected to fight, and fight negroes. Gans is certainly the equal of any white fighter as a gentleman. He is a quiet, unassuming fellow and is liked by all who know him. Besides, he is undoubtedly the cleverest man of his weight the world has known. And if Britt should win from Gans, Jimmy would be like Jeffries, in a class by himself. When Britt and Gans meet it will be the greatest lightweight fight seen in many years.
